

The Lamplighter

June 2021 • Salem United Church of Christ • Higginsville, Missouri

Dear Friends,

One of the great works of literature in the United States is Herman Melville's Moby-Dick; or, The Whale. It is also a book that few of us ever actually read. Believe it or not, I did read it many years ago, and I have sometimes facetiously referred to it as 600 pages of nineteenth-century whaling minutiae followed by thirty pages of heart-pounding excitement. That is more than a bit unfair, but not entirely inaccurate. Even so, it really is a good book, just not an easy one to read.

Forty-one chapters into the story, the narrator, call him Ishmael, describes Captain Ahab's obsession with the great white whale, Moby Dick. In that description, we read these words: "All that most maddens and torments; all that stirs up the lees of things; all truth with malice in it; all that cracks the sinews and cakes the brain; all the subtle demonisms of life and thought; all evil, to crazy Ahab, were visibly personified, and made practically assailable in Moby Dick."

This is a description not only of obsession but also of madness, of insanity. A part of Ishmael's description is that this madness is "all truth with malice in it." After what we have been through in the last several years, all of which intensified even more during the pandemic, I have come to believe that there are many of us who live "all truth with malice in it."

When I was working on my dissertation, I realized that a good deal of the opposition that my subject faced as he spread the word of his belief in the imminent return of Jesus, was due to his absolute belief that his interpretation of biblical prophecies was the only logical interpretation, and maybe the only possible true interpretation. So sure was he that he had found the great hidden Truth of scripture that he could not admit the possibility that he could be in error.

So it is, I believe, with all of us when we conflate "my truth" with "the truth." Whenever we think that we possess the whole truth, whenever we think we know the full depth and breadth of truth, then we are only a short step from believing that anyone who has another "truth" is not only wrong but quite possibly evil, as well. Believing that we have the whole truth of anything, we draw a line in the sand, so that those who agree with us are on the right side and those who do not agree with us are on the wrong side. It is a dangerous situation that we create, dangerous for others and for ourselves.

All my life I have heard people chide Pontius Pilate for his question during his interrogation of Jesus in John 18:38: "What is truth?" But maybe that is one of the most important questions we can ask ourselves and should ask ourselves every time we speak or write a post on social media. Before we click "post," we should consider, "What is truth? Is this truth, or is it my truth only?" Maybe asking the ourselves those questions would remind us that while "The Truth" exists somewhere, it does not dwell fully in us, it cannot dwell fully in us. We are finite creatures, and we can only reach occasional glimpses of the whole Truth, out of the corners of our eyes, as it were., like Moses getting a glimpse of God's backside because seeing all of God would likely kill him (Exodus 33:17-23).

Instead of speaking all truth with malice in it, I suggest that we learn to "speak the truth in love" (Ephesians 4:15). Paul uses this phrase in a conversation about the unity and maturity of the body of Christ. Speaking the truth in love is a demonstration of our growing unity and maturity, of growing in every way to be more Christlike. Speaking the truth in love is never hurtful, never belittles another, respects the other, and values right relationship with the other over controlling the other.

Our world has enough of all truth with malice in it. Let us seek the Way of Jesus for a while and see where that will take us.

Grace and Peace

Tommy

No boundaries

Love is a commitment to seek the good and to work for the good and welfare of others. It doesn't stop at our front door or our neighborhood, our religion or race, or our state's or [our] country's border. This is one great fellowship of love throughout the whole wide earth, as the hymn goes. It often calls us to step outside of what we thought our boundaries were, or what others expect of us. It calls for us to sacrifice, not because doing so feels good, but because it's the right thing to do.

—Bishop Michael Curry, Love Is the Way

From guilt to grace

For Jerry Schemmel, a 1989 plane crash that killed more than 100 people ended up shaping his life and faith. The sports broadcaster walked away from the tragedy with minimal physical injuries but was haunted by survivor's guilt and PTSD. "The big turning point for me came when I became a Christian," he says.

"Things got much easier to deal with after that, I believe, because I had the best ally fighting the fight with me, Jesus Christ."

Schemmel, author of Chosen to Live, says he'd love to be able to "go back and rewrite the script" and change what happened that July day in Sioux City, Iowa. "But since I can't, I just have to keep on trusting God, trusting that he put me through this experience to serve him, to be the man he wants me to be and ultimately give him glory."

It is time for...Summer Special Music!

With the pandemic last summer, we were unable to have summer special music. Now, with Salem reopening, the worship committee decided to move forward with inviting people to share their talents this summer! If you play an instrument or enjoy singing and would like to share your musical talent during the summer worship service, please call Jamie Smith at 660-232-4470 to schedule a Sunday. You may also call the church office 660-584-3603 and leave a message and Jamie will then contact you. Thank you for considering sharing your talent with us!

A week of tributes to Dad

To celebrate the special man in your life, use a quote a day the week before Father's Day, or honor him with tributes the whole week after. Write one of these (or one of your own) on a card, make a message into a placemat, tape one to the bathroom mirror — get creative!

Every day of the week is a good day to celebrate his love and show him yours.

PRAYERS AND CONCERNS

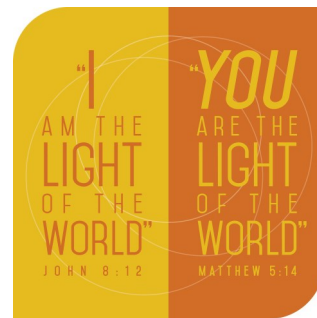

Anyone who is in need of prayers, please call the church office, (660) 584-3603.

See light, be light

In January 2021, National Youth Poet Laureate Amanda Gorman presented her poem "The Hill We Climb" at the presidential inauguration. The final lines read: "For there is always light, / if only we're brave enough to see it. / If only we're brave enough to be it."

How often we long for light! In recent years we've agonized amid pandemic, angry politics and new awareness of racism. Some have suffered deep sorrow. But Jesus says, "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12) and invites us to turn to him. God is always bringing light into darkness, through helpers, healers, peacemakers, friends. Sometimes bravery is required to turn our focus from the negative to the positive — to see the light of God.

Jesus also says, "You are the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14, emphasis added) and calls us to brighten the gloom. That requires bravery, as Gorman notes, but as Christians we're urged to look for light not just to make our own lives better but to shine into others' lives too. The Holy Spirit gives us the needed courage — to both see and be light.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING

April 15th, 2021, 7:30 p.m.

The regular meeting of the Salem Church Council was held on Thursday, April 15th, 2021, 7:30 p.m. in the downstairs dining hall. Members present were Bobby Bergsieker, Keill Borchers, Sharon Hoefer, Mark Hook, Marc Jensen, Barb Nolte, Pastor Tommy, and incoming council members Alex Starke and Carla Starke.

President Marc Jensen called the meeting to order, Pastor Tommy opened with the devotion of Psalm 4, and prayer. Minutes were read, and approved. The financial report was given by Sharon, discussed, and approved with balances of $17,699 in the General Fund and $24,716 in the Building and Grounds Fund. The total average attendance of 262 includes in-person (45) and live stream views (217).

Pastor Tommy shared the move toward more open service has gone quite well, he is grateful most members continue to wear masks and maintain a respectful distance from one another. Live Streaming has become an essential part of Salem's ministry and with donated funds the production is improving. A memorial service/celebration of life for Bob Pragman will be on Saturday, April 24th, on the one-year anniversary of his death. Thank you to the Elders for devising a plan and serving communion on Maundy Thursday, and Easter Sunday. Installation of officers for the coming year will be on Sunday, April 25th. Pastor Tommy is looking forward to, along with our congregation to have the opportunity to welcome them and thank them for their service and leadership. John Knox and Meyer Care center are now open to visitors and he will be attending to our members.

Correspondence: A thank you was received from OCWM for our 2020 contribution. Council approved a donation of $20.00 requested from Higginsville Senior Center.

Committee Reports: Christian Ed: Mark Hook shared Sunday school attendance continues to grow. Bibles have been purchased for the confirmands. The Easter banner will be hung on Sunday. The children's Easter program was well received. The Youth on Mission committee is being formed and will start in the fall.

Building & Grounds: Keill shared he has made inquiries to fill in areas in the yard at the Parsonage, a concern was expressed regarding bats possibly trying to regain entrance in the church building. Cemetery: Barb shared cleanup day will be on Saturday, April 17th. Memorial: Sharon reported no meeting. Stewardship: Kevin reported no meeting. Evangelism: No report. Worship: Bobby reported no meeting. Ushers: Council members will continue to usher Sunday services through May.

Unfinished Business: None. New Business: A letter had been received from the Board of Elders suggesting not to reinstate the 8:30 service at this time, possibly waiting until Rally day in September. Returning the 8:30 service requires individuals to assist Pastor Tommy, possibly conflict with youth and adult Sunday school times. The council decided to table month to month. Discussions will continue with the Council and the Board of Elders. Election of Officers was held: President, Keill Borchers, VP, Alex Starke, Secretary, Carla Starke, Financial Secretary, Stacy Barnes, Treasurer, Sharon Hoefer. Next council meeting Date: May 20th, 2021, 7:30 p.m.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned with the "Lord's Prayer".

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Nolte,
Council Secretary

Our way out

While in London, Timothy Merrill was intrigued that signs with arrows read WAY OUT, rather than EXIT, as they do in America. "Everywhere I went, I saw signs that showed me the WAY OUT," he writes. That made him ponder all the Bible characters who looked for a WAY OUT of predicaments. Moses looked for a WAY OUT of Egypt, Daniel certainly wanted a WAY OUT of the lions' den and countless people thought (and still think) there's no WAY OUT from their sins.

"The good news of the Gospel," Merrill writes, "is that Jesus Christ is the WAY OUT! He is our exit from the messes and disasters we create. He is the exit from sin and unrighteousness. He is the WAY OUT of a life without purpose and the WAY IN to an abundant life. And the symbol of the WAY OUT is not an arrow but a cross. What a blessing to know that Jesus knows — and is — the WAY OUT!"

Thank you for the beautiful flowers at Salem Cemetery celebrating Memorial Day.

If you would like to save your flowers please pick them up by Tuesday, June 8.

Thank you.

True, needful, kind

If you are tempted to reveal a tale to you someone has told about another, make it pass,
 before you speak, three gates of gold;
 these narrow gates.

First, "Is it true?"
 Then, "Is it needful?" In your mind give truthful answer. And the next is last and narrowest, "Is it kind?"

And if to reach your lips at last it passes through these gateways three,
 then you may tell the tale, nor fear
 what the result of speech may be.

—Beth Day, "The Three Gates" (1835)
