

THE LAW FIRM MODEL IS BROKEN.

The average small business spends more than $5000 per

year

on legal, and startups average over

$100000 per

and that is without any unforeseen events...

Making it worse,
finding the right
attorney with the right
expertise is notoriously confusing,
time-consuming, and stressful.

WE CUT THE FAT OUT OF THE OLD LAW FIRM MODEL.

By eliminating overhead and outrageous hourly rates, UpCounsel allows you to hire a partner-level attorney at 1/3rd the price.

And it's working... in a big way!

In our first twelve months of operations, we drove incredible value for our clients:

users have received
free legal advice

$12

It is truly Legal you can Love ❤️

But wasn't UpCounsel founded almost a decade ago?

We're glad you asked...

UpCounsel had achieved massive success, but finding the right business model took a long time, and a lot of learning.

In fact, in February of 2020, despite serving millions of users but still unable to crack the code, the website announced that it was shutting down.

What happened next will go down in history as a great Silicon Valley success story.

Online Lawyer Marketplace UpCounsel to Shut Down (1)

Feb. 3, 2020, 9:09 AM; Updated: Feb. 3, 2020, 11:37 AM

- Site raised $26 million from investors that included Uber backer
- Co-founders concede end was "abrupt"

UpCounsel, an online marketplace for lawyers that raised $26 million from investors, will shut down next month, according to an email to site users.
