Clarkston to Portland, OR (Vancouver, WA) Daily Schedule

---

Day 1 – Saturday, November 5th, 2016

Hotel Stay - Spokane, WA

Your journey begins with a deluxe hotel stay in Spokane, Washington.

Day 2 - Sunday, November 6th, 2016

Clarkston, WA

Take time to explore Spokane at your leisure or consider a Pre-Cruise Premium Excursion before making your way to Clarkston to begin your American Empress voyage. Your voyage will start with an evening dinner cruise departing around 6 PM and returning back to Clarkston later in the evening -

Day 3 - Monday, November 7th, 2016

Clarkston, WA

Nestled at the union of the Snake and Clearwater Rivers in southeast Washington, Clarkston is the gateway to North America's deepest gorge, Hells Canyon. The picturesque vistas, year-round mild climates, and a deep history make this scenic inland port a more-than-desirable stop! Spend the day following the footsteps of the historic Lewis and Clark journey – where the city received its name. This incredible city is filled with artifacts and stories that depict the journeys of famous explorers. Clarkston has the ideal climate for visitors to enjoy countless activities including fishing, scenic walks along the trails, shopping, and exploring.

Day 4 - Tuesday, November 8th, 2016

Tri-Cities (Richland), WA

Home to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's first national monument, Richland is a city dedicated to preserving its unique history, culture and landscape. At the Hanford Reach National Monument you will witness a diverse landscape of sweeping vistas and towering bluffs, blended with an abundance of wildlife. Although being dismantled, remnants of WWII and the Cold War such as plutonium reactors can still be seen dotted along the river.

Clarkston to Portland, OR (Vancouver, WA) Daily Schedule

Day 5 - Wednesday, November 9th, 2016

River Cruising

Enjoy a day of scenic river cruising through the pristine Pacific Northwest. Picturesque canyon walls and crevasses will keep you guessing as to what lies around the next bend.

Day 6 - Thursday, November 10th, 2016

The Dalles, OR

Known as the end of the Oregon Trail, The Dalles has long been a destination point for pioneers and adventurers alike. Located on the south bank of the Columbia River between Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, the city's rich history dates back thousands of years to the Native American trading which took place right on the banks of the river. Explore the history that weaves through the town at every stop, discover the art that lines each of the streets, and taste the culinary expertise at some of the town's most popular cuisine restaurants!

Day 7 - Friday, November 11th, 2016

Stevenson, WA

On the banks of the scenic Columbia River, the city of Stevenson is your launch pad to the Washington side of the Gorge. A stroll along the Rock Cove pathway or the Columbia River waterfront is a great way to take in surroundings. Downtown Stevenson is home to unique shops, art galleries, and restaurants. Stevenson is in the heart of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area. Explore the eastern entrance to Mount St. Helens or the spectacular Lewis River Valley.

Day 8 - Saturday, November 12th, 2016

Astoria, OR

Astoria is known to be the oldest American Settlement west of the Rocky Mountains. For thousands of years, Clatsop Indians inhabited the lands that are now known as Astoria. In 1805, Lewis and Clark led their expedition through the town and spent the winter at Fort Clatsop. In 1813, a British warship sailed into the Columbia River, gaining possession of the city and holding control until 1818, when they finally agreed to a joint occupation of the land. The British did not fully leave Astoria until 1846. There is no doubting the rich history has deep roots grounded in this Columbia River town. When the history combines with the scenery, the harmony will surely bring you back for more!

Day 9 - Sunday, November 13th, 2016

Vancouver, WA

Disembark the American Empress and make your way home from your authentic Pacific Northwest experience or consider extending your stay in Portland, Oregon with our three day, two night Rose City Stay package.

Instructor Certification Guidelines

Print out and complete Instructor application form in attachment and return it to the Napoleon Hill World Learning Center at Purdue North West, 2300 173rd Street, Hammond, Indiana 46323. Wait for approval of your application. (email to martineu@pnw.edu)

Enroll in the “Your Right to Be Rich” course. Follow the link from our website www.naphill.org

Next, complete the Distance Learning Course in advance or in tandem with the Leader Certification Seminar.

(NEXT distance learning COURSE BEGINS IN June 6, 2016) Tuition cost for the Distance Learning Course is $599.00. You must have completed or be simultaneously enrolled in the Distance Learning Course in order to register for the Leader Certification Seminar.

Enroll for the Leader Certification Seminar. Tuition cost: $699.00. Note this class fee is separate from any travel, housing, and/or personal costs affiliated with this course. Generally, the Leader Certification seminar is offered once yearly in the late summer/fall of the year. It is posted under events several months in advance on our website.

Arrange to work with a mentor who is a currently certified instructor.

Complete a video presentation lesson over one of the 17 Success Principles that is 15 minutes in length.

Pass the Leader Certification Exam at the 80th percentile or higher. (A comprehensive take home exam due one month after the program)

Complete a service project under the direction of your mentor.

Turn in the provided sheet that is signed by the relevant parties – your instructor for the Distance Learning Class or Home Study Course, your mentor, and the Instructor for the Leader Certification Seminar. This documents that you have completed the initial steps. Finally, your exam grade and service project are to be recorded as well.

When these steps are satisfactorily completed you will be awarded the certificate of Instructor. This certificate is good for three years and eligible for renewal. It has been our custom to welcome currently certified leaders to enroll in the leader certification course as a refresher course – tuition free. This is a wonderful opportunity for each of you to share your personal knowledge and mentor our upcoming instructors as well. Also, it serves as a good opportunity for a reunion and course audit at no charge.
