Grand Knight’s Message

Brothers, Families, and Friends of Council 367,

Although it may sometimes feel comforting to immerse and relax in a bath of lukewarm water, it is neither therapeutic nor healthy. Lukewarm water is not hot enough to generate steam and thus be mechanically useful. Nor is it cold enough to become ice and be palatable. Until water is boiling or freezing, it is not very beneficial. Lukewarm water is just about useless and not liked by many people.

Similarly, lukewarmness in our Catholicism is useless too. In fact, it may be dangerous to be lukewarm in both our faith and our Knighthood. There are numerous accepted signs of being lukewarm in one’s religiosity: self-satisfaction, mediocrity, spiritual laziness, complacency, and unfaithfulness. Being self-satisfied in one’s position in life, mediocre in your religious zeal, spiritually lax about sacramental adherence, complacent in actions, and unfaithful to the tenants of the Catholic religion are all signs of being dangerously lukewarm. All of them combined can be devastating. God detested lukewarm. In Revelation 3:17, He saw the signs of lukewarmness in the citizens of Laodicea and said to them: "For you say, 'I am rich and affluent and have no need of anything,' and yet do not realize that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked." And He admonished them by saying, "So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth." (Revelation 3:16). As good Catholic gentlemen and as Knights, we can NOT be lukewarm

In the first one hundred years after the resurrection of Jesus, members of the early Church could not afford to be lukewarm about their Christianity or the Church would not have survived nor would it have thrived as it did. The first Christians had to be fervent, evangelical, and religiously zealous in their faith. However, recall that it was against Roman law to be a Christian during the years after the crucifixion of Jesus. As such, it was not possible for early Church members to advertise and market for new members. The only way that the first converts to The Catholic Church were made was through observing the way the Christians lived. Those Roman pagans who converted to Christianity had to have a reason to do so. They saw that the Christians lived a life of charity, modesty, selflessness, humility, and caring for one another. The pagans were drawn to the Christian way of life. That’s exactly what we still need to make happen two thousand years later.

In seven very famous and consequential letters written in the first century to Christians before he was martyred, Saint Ignatius of Antioch established the doctrine for The Catholic Church. Most importantly, he codified the relationship of the Christians to God. As part of that, he established the rules of conduct for the people. One of the most important tenants was that of charity. As a people devoted to acts of charity, Saint Ignatius believed that the Church would thrive. Once all the original Apostles were dead and there was no longer anyone to tell the first-hand accounts of the life of Jesus, there could be no other way to attract converts other than the living example of present-day Christians. Charity was the key to the Church’s success during those early years. Until Constantine the Great became a Christian in 312 and legalized the religion, pagans only converted because of the charitable lives and works they saw in Christians. That can still be true today.

Family of the Month

The Family hails from Sacred Heart Church. They are an outstanding example of a family that is very highly devoted to their Church. The father is a lector at the 11 AM Mass each Sunday. His baritone voice is renowned in the parish. The wife is an Extraordinary Minister of Communion. She helps Father serve the Eucharist at each Mass. The son is an altar server and has also followed in his father's footsteps to be a lector. Additionally, he is an active participant in the SHC Youth Ministry. The husband and wife are also both chaperons for the Youth Ministry.

The entire family were integral participants in the Triduum serving in various important roles throughout all the Holy Week celebrations. Finally, they helped decorate the Church for the Easter Mass. They are an outstanding example of a Catholic family devoted to the Church and their parish.

Congratulations to Chris, Jennifer, and Will Palestrant as Family of the Month for April.

Vivat Jesus,
Dan

Knight of the Month

The Knight of Month is a familiar and ever-present one around the Council. He tirelessly participates in almost every event, activity, and program that we do. This Knight is always visible at the Council front door collecting money and keeping our drive thru dinner customers on track. He faithfully manned the post for every Lenten Fish Fry and the subsequent Friday night and Sunday afternoon drive thru dinners.

As the Round Table Coordinator at Blessed Sacrament Church he coordinated and executed a NEST dinner and the presentation of rosaries to the children receiving First Communion. Both events were perfectly done.

As the Ceremonial Captain for the Council and the Assembly, he masterfully organized top-notch events for both. He led the first-ever Exemplification of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity conducted at the Council. He also was responsible for coordinating a Chalice Ceremony for a deceased Past Grand Knight. Both events were flawlessly executed. This Brother is the epitome of a dedicated Knight and one to be emulated by all.

Congratulations to PGK Jim Pressler on his selection as the Knight of the Month for April.

Vivat Jesus,

Grand Knight's Message, from Page 1

As Knights, we are called to witness for Jesus. One way to do that is by our acts of charity. It's no mistake that Blessed Fr. McGivney made charity the first principle of the Order. It's how The Catholic Church first started. It's still central to its existence today. Works of faith are critical as James (2:14) says: "You have faith. I have deeds. Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds." Brothers, it's through our deeds of charity that we show our faith. It's through these deeds that we attract new Catholic gentlemen to the Order. It's because we are men of faith and demonstrating it, that we are like the early Christians giving others a reason to be drawn to us. But we can NOT be lukewarm about it. We must be fervent, full of vigor, and faithful. Anything less is like warm spit: useless.

Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly said during his first address to Knights: "These times demand that we be bold and daring. that we meet the challenges before us head on." We can't hope to do that by being lukewarm about our Faith-In Action program execution. We must be passionate in our love for Christ. Only then can we bring more Catholic gentlemen into the Order and show them the way to the Lord. We have to be like the Good Shepherd who was ready to lay down his life for his sheep. We have to be like Jesus. As Knights we are uniquely commissioned to do just that. We must do all that we can to demonstrate our true faith through our selfless acts of charity. We have the programs, the manpower, and the mandate. But, do we have the willpower? Or, are we lukewarm?

Brothers, we don't want to be and can't dare to be lukewarm. Being so is antithetical to what we stand for as Knights. Let's be all in for God and be boiling hot in our passion.

Vivat Jesus,
Dan Doyle

Craft Beer at Harbor Park

COVID restrictions are lifting and we'll be serving ice cold beer at the Craft Beer Pub at Harbor Park for the 2021 season for your Norfolk Tides. We will work approximately 30 games again this season and will need a crew of four to eight people to man the beer stand. Number of people will vary as the restrictions for COVID are decreased to increase the size of the crowd. This is an enormous undertaking but has become a huge financial boost for the Council and the Columbus Club, so we NEED YOUR HELP! You do not need a food handler's card to volunteer. You must be 18 years old and everyone is required to wear black or khaki trousers or shorts and a ball cap, preferably a Knights of Columbus ball cap and our Knights of Columbus T-shirts.

We'll have 4 leads for these games, PGK Ed Isajewicz, Sean Myers, PGK John Person, & PGK Jim Pressler to manage the teams working the various nights. The schedule will be out soon, but we will have six games each in May and June to work. This is open to all Brothers, families & friends.

For more info or to volunteer, contact PGK Pat Nash at (402) 350-8918 or e-mail at ptjnash61@gmail.com
