THREE SPECTACULAR EXPEDITION SHIPS THAT GO WHERE OTHERS CANNOT

THE 2019 SEASON WILL BE PARTICULARLY EXCITING AS WE proudly welcome the brand-new National Geographic Venture to join National Geographic Quest in the Pacific Northwest. Our new twin ships are perfect platforms for exploring this region: with tiered bows for unobstructed wildlife viewing, and so you won't miss a moment of the magnificent landscapes.

For those who favor a smaller vessel, we've added a Fall 2019 departure on the Columbia & Snake rivers aboard the tried-and-true, 62-guest National Geographic Sea Lion. This intimately scaled ship has plied these waters for decades providing the same off-the-beaten-track experiences as our new ships.

All three vessels are equipped with a roster of exploration tools that make expedition travel so rewarding: A fleet of expedition landing craft on each allows us to make landfall quickly, while kayaks and paddleboards enable you to get out on personal water-level adventures.

“ We are thrilled with our brand-new sister ships, National Geographic Quest and National Geographic Venture, designed to give a complement of 100 guests the same intimate, inclusive experience the 62-guest National Geographic Sea Bird and Sea Lion have provided for 35 years. They've introduced a generation to the profound joys of up-close, personal exploration with expert naturalists, and a collegial expedition community.

DESIGNED TO PROVIDE THE OPTIMAL ONBOARD EXPERIENCE

EVERYBODY KNOWS THE MOST FAMOUS MANTRA IN REAL estate: “Location, location, location.” When you’re aboard National Geographic Sea Lion or National Geographic Quest/Venture, you’re always in prime real estate that’s so ideally situated that the Pacific Northwest comes to you. Whether dining alfresco or ensconced in a dining room with sweeping views, discover the region through all your senses including delicious meals sourced from the area’s farms, vineyards, breweries, and waters—served in single seatings with unassigned tables, for an informal atmosphere and easy mingling.

Enhance the pleasures of dining aboard with local wines. Taste the region’s terroir as you explore it. And enjoy a fine selection of craft beers from this bountiful region, as well.

A young person, likely a child, is captured in profile, facing right, performing a traditional dance. They are wearing a headband and a long, fringed garment made of natural fibers, possibly cedar bark, which is draped over their shoulders and hangs down to their knees. The person is barefoot. In the background, a large, bright fire burns, casting a warm, orange glow over the scene. The ground appears to be a sandy or rocky beach. The overall atmosphere is one of a traditional ceremony or performance.

BRITISH COLUMBIA &
THE SAN JUAN ISLANDS

YOU'LL EXPLORE NOT JUST ONE STUNNING SHORELINE

but many on this expedition—the first exploration of this region aboard National Geographic Venture. Our brand-new, state-of-the-art ship threads the Inside Passage, tucks into straits and sounds, and weaves through island groups known for their charm: the San Juan Islands, Vancouver Island, and the Gulf Islands. There is much to see, and even more to do—from wildlife sighting and personal forays into nature by Zodiac, kayak, or paddleboard, to active engagement with the culture and beauty of the First Nation lands, and cosmopolitan Victoria. And, of course, we take advantage of the Pacific Northwest's renowned food culture. Our team is committed to using ingredients sourced within a 150-mile radius of where we explore—from sustainable growers, producers, and fisheries.

Join our Oct. 5 or 12, 2019 departure and sail with National Geographic Photographer Krista Rossow, who will share her wealth of travel photography wisdom and experience from around the world. All expeditions sail with a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor trained to help you with camera settings and compositions to help you get your best photos ever.

EXPERIENCE THE WILDERNESS AND CHARM OF THIS COASTAL REGION

HEAD TO THE SPECTACULAR SAN JUAN ISLANDS equipped for exhilarating discoveries of the region’s unmarred beauty, and the unparalleled opportunities it affords to spot wildlife, including, with luck, killer whales. Pick your spot at the deck rail and have your binoculars at the ready. Or your camera—your Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor will be there with you. What image will you capture?

MYTH, BEAUTY, AND LIVING TRADITIONS. On Cormorant Island in British Columbia, Alert Bay is a village in traditional Kwakwaka’wakw territory. The rich history of this thriving First Nations’ center of art and tradition is symbolized by a 173-foot high totem pole, one of the tallest in the world, and the U’mista Cultural Centre. We’ll feel history in the drumbeats at a moving, private dance performance in the Big House at the Centre.

INSIDER’S TOUR OF VICTORIA. Victoria is a city of neighborhoods, and you’ll be able to experience them with all your senses—on an active bike tour, or a leisurely historic stroll. Enjoy a private reception at the Robert Bateman Centre while taking in an incredible collection of paintings. We also provide special access to the most spectacular of the city’s famed gardens.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

A wide-angle, high-angle photograph of a waterfall. The waterfall is the central focus, cascading over a series of layered, light-colored rock formations. The water is white and frothy as it falls, creating a misty spray at the base. Below the waterfall is a large, circular pool of dark blue water with white rapids. The surrounding landscape is rugged and rocky, with patches of green moss and small plants. In the background, there are rolling hills under a dramatic sky with large, colorful clouds in shades of pink, purple, and blue, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. COLUMBIA & SNAKE RIVERS JOURNEY through some of the world's most geologically fascinating landscapes, carved over time by tumultuous floods and volcanic eruptions. Get an up-close look at towering canyons, massive waterfalls, ancient petroglyphs, and rocky shorelines where bighorn sheep roam free. Along the way you'll also travel through a series of eight locks, visit intriguing museums, and savor this fertile region's abundant bounty—from salmon fished right out of these waterways to award-winning wines and craft brews. Overlying it all: the intrepid spirit of Lewis and Clark and the Corps of Discovery. As you travel in their wake, your historian will weave tales of this dramatic episode in American history.

THE POWERFUL COLUMBIA AND SNAKE RIVERS FLOW

Every expedition sails with a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor trained to help you capture the moments at the heart of your expedition, and select voyages also include a National Geographic photographer. Shoot with Phil Schermeister, who has been on assignment in 40 National Parks, on our Sep. 27 or Oct. 3, 2019 departure; or travel with Melissa Farlow, who has brought a personal approach to over 20 National Geographic stories, mostly in the American West, on the Apr. 26 or May 2, 2020 departure.

TWO GREAT RIVERS & A REGION'S BEST SEASONS

FALL'S BOUNTY. Harvest time along the Columbia and Snake rivers bursts with flavors at the orchards we visit—and in our own dining room as we provision the ship from local markets and wineries. Photo ops abound with hillsides painted in reds, golds, and greens as the leaves change.

Enjoy the effervescence up close—whether on a visit to a local vineyard for lunch and a tasting, an optional whitewater rafting trip down the White Salmon River, or in the river-flanking vistas.

ON THE TRAIL OF LEWIS & CLARK. The fascinating legacy of the Lewis and Clark expedition permeates this region. We'll see Beacon Rock, where they knew they were approaching the Pacific; the spot where they portaged Celilo Falls; and Hat Rock, one of the distinctive landmarks passed by the Corps of Discovery on its journey down the Columbia.

EXPERIENCE MORE. Discover Portland and the Willamette Valley as optional pre- or post-extensions.
