- Someone who can help with desserts.
- Someone who can help put together raffle baskets.
- Come see me if you are interested in helping with any of these things.

Donations

Do you work for a company that would make a cash tax deductible donation?

Do you work for a company that would donate a gift card for a silent auction basket?

Do you have new items at home that you are not going to use and would like to donate to the PTA?

Caregiver Affidavit

Declaración Jurada del Cuidador

AMIE SCULLY, ESQ. AND KEVIN SCULLY, M.A.

THE PREUSS SCHOOL UCSD

What is a Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit?

Form you fill out and give to a child's school or doctor. You can use the form to enroll the child in school or get medical care for your child.

Does a Caregiver's Affidavit affect the custody rights of the parents?

▶ No. A Caregiver's Affidavit does not affect the rights of the child's parents. The parents still have custody and control of the child.

School Enrollment: Can I use a Caregiver's Affidavit to enroll a child in school?

You can use the Caregiver's Affidavit to enroll a child in school if the Caregiver is:

- over the age of 18, and

- takes care of the child who lives in their home, but

- they do not have a court order that gives them custody of the child.

Includes School-Related Medical Care

School-related medical care is medical care that is required for a child to enroll in school. Examples :

- immunizations
- physical examinations
- medical examinations conducted in school

How do I complete the Affidavit?

Fill in the blanks for Questions 1- 4. These are easy questions:

1. The child's name
2. The child's birth date.
3. Caregiver's name.
4. Caregiver's home address.

You do not need to answer Questions 5 - 8 if you are using the form only to enroll the child in school and to approve school-related medical care.

Sign and date the Affidavit at the bottom. No notary required for school purposes.

Medical Care: Can I use the Affidavit to approve medical care for a child?

You can use the Caregiver's Affidavit to approve medical care for a child if the caregiver is:

- over the age of 18 and

- takes care of a child who lives in their home but

- they don't have a court order that gives them custody and

- they are a "qualified relative"

Who is a qualified relative?

- grandparent
- aunt or uncle
- brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother or half-sister
- niece or nephew
- first cousin
- great-grandparent
- great-aunt, great-uncle, grand-aunt or grand-uncle
- stepparent
- parent
- spouse

Qualified relatives can also be spouses of any of the relatives listed above, even if you are now divorced or your spouse has died.

NOTE: If you are a qualified relative, check the box on Question 5 of the Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit.
Affidavits for Medical Care Must Be Notarized

▶ Take the Affidavit to a notary and sign it in front of them. They will notarize the form.

▶ Bring the Affidavit to the notary.

▶ Also, bring your I.D. The notary will need it to fill out the Affidavit.

Parents Must Approve the Affidavit

The Caregiver must tell the child's parents before she fills out the Affidavit. If the parents don't object, then the Caregiver can complete the form.

▶ If the parents don't object, check the first box in Question 6 of the Affidavit.

What if you, the parents, are not available?

If parents cannot be contacted, a caregiver can still complete the Affidavit.

NOTE: If the parents cannot be found, then check the second box in Question 6 of the Caregiver's Affidavit.
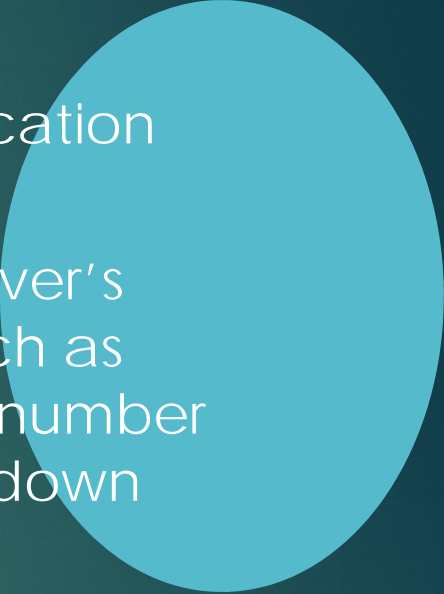

Parents can Revoke the Affidavit

- ▶ If the parents object to someone using the Caregiver's Affidavit, then the Caregiver won't be able to use it.

- ▶ Parents can revoke the authorization and change their minds.

- ▶ Parents have the final say on medical care for their children.

Caregiver I.D. Required

► Write California driver's license or identification card number on the line for Question 8.

► If Caregiver doesn't have a California driver's license or I.D. card, other kinds of I.D., such as your Social Security number or Medi-Cal number may be accepted. Make sure you write down what kind of number it is.

Who should I give the Affidavit to?

▶ For school enrollment, give a copy to the child's school.

▶ For health care, give a copy to the child's doctor or hospital

▶ Keep at least one copy in a safe place and tell other people where it is.

▶ Make several copies of the affidavit in case you need to give it to other people.

▶ Keep a list of all the people who received the affidavit. They must be notified if the child stops living with the Caregiver.

The Affidavit is Valid for One Year

▶ The Caregiver's Affidavit is valid for only one year from the date signed.

▶ If more than one year has passed since it was signed, a new affidavit is required.
