Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Most chapters of the novel study focus on two chapters of The Secret Garden and are comprised of four different sections:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. It is important, too, that students be encouraged to relate their own feelings and experiences in certain contexts, and describe their own interpretations of particular passages.

- Students can work on the activities at their own pace.
- Every activity need not be completed by all students.
- A portfolio cover is included (p.7) as well as a Checklist (p.6).

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the Yorkshire Moors; importance of friendship; perseverance; magic; positive thinking; finding beauty in the midst of ugliness; self-acceptance; family and family responsibilities; the power of love.

The Secret Garden

By Frances Hodgson Burnett

Synopsis

When orphaned Mary Lennox comes to live at her uncle's great house on the Yorkshire Moors, she finds it full of mysterious secrets. There are nearly one hundred rooms, most of which are locked, and the house is filled with creepy old portraits and suits of armor. Mary rarely sees her uncle, and perhaps most unsettling of all is that at night she hears the sound of someone crying down one of the long corridors.

The gardens surrounding the odd property are Mary's escape and she explores every inch of them - all except for the mysterious walled-in, locked garden. Then one day Mary discovers a key. Could it open the door to the garden? (The Publisher)

Author Biography

Frances Hodgson Burnett

Born in Manchester, England on November 24 1849, Frances Eliza Hodgson was the eldest daughter in a family of two boys and three girls. After her father's death when she was three years old, the Hodgsons experienced financial difficulties. As a young girl, she would scrawl little stories on sheets of old notebooks, as she was unable to afford proper writing materials. In 1865 the family moved to Tennessee where they lived in a log cabin and the teenage Frances set up a little school. She began submitting stories to women's magazines and soon became quite a successful writer. In 1873 she married Dr. Swan Burnett and they had two sons -- Lionel, born 1874, and Vivian, born 1876 -- but the marriage was not a happy one. Her younger son, Vivian, clamored for something to read, so Frances wrote "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and modeled the main character after him. In 1890 tragedy struck when her eldest son, Lionel, died of influenza. Frances and Swan separated and finally divorced in 1898, and she went on to remarry Stephen Townshend. Frances moved to Long Island, New York in 1901 and there began to write her two most famous stories -- "A Little Princess" and "The Secret Garden", inspired by her poor childhood and her love for gardening. Frances Hodgson Burnett died on 29 October 1924. [<http://www.imdb.com>]

Language Activities

A. INDIA

Europe is merely powerful; India is beautiful. (Savitri Devi)

The Secret Garden opens in the country of India. At the time that the events of this novel took place there were several thousand people from the United Kingdom living in India, which was part of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

What do you know about this fascinating country?

Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research at least a half-dozen interesting facts about India. This might pertain to its natural resources; important occupations of its people; animal life native to the area; culture; popular foods; recreation; etc.

B. The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same consonant sound at the beginning of several words in close succession (especially words beginning with the letter s). An example from Chapter Two is: “‘Humph,’ muttered Mrs. Medlock”. Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain at least three words.

The squabble of two raccoons
The chirp of a robin
Your own topic

C. Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

One of the most revered individuals ever to hail from India was Gandhi. Do a further investigation of this important figure and briefly describe below what he accomplished for the people of India, and also the mistakes he made as a public figure.
