6	On Saturday morning, Jerry's parents picked  up Nathan and dropped off William. Nathan  ran off with just his bathers and thongs. William  brought a backpack bursting with stuff.  He brought a toothbrush and  toothpaste. "I always brush after I eat," he  said. He brought a clean shirt. "I might  spill something on this one." And he  brought two model kits and two movies.  "We have movies you can watch,"  said Hanna.			M	S	V	M	S

Beyond the Text
Hanna is annoyed with Nathan. He drives her crazy. Nathan is messy and she wishes she could have a brother who is neat.	How does Hanna feel about Nathan at the beginning of the story?	0 1 2 3
Hanna discovers that having a brother who is neat can be frustrating. William is so neat and picky that he annoys Hanna. She starts to appreciate the fun she has with Nathan.	What happens that causes Hanna to change her feelings about Nathan?
You need to appreciate what you have. She realises that Nathan isn't so bad after all and his good qualities outweigh the bad.	What lesson does Hanna learn in the story?
Sample response: I need to be thankful for the good things about my family. (Accept logical responses that make a connection between the student's experiences and the content.)	How does this lesson make you think about what you can do in your life?

About the Text
This story is fiction. It is realistic fiction because it could really happen. It is a made up story about characters named Hanna, Nathan and William.	What is the genre of this book? How do you know?	0 1 2 3
The main character is Hanna. The writer tells the story from her point of view. The reader sees what the boys are like in Hanna's eyes. The writer wants readers to understand the lesson Hanna learns.	Who is the main character in the story? Why do you think the writer chose to tell it from this character's perspective?
Sample response: The writer makes the two boys very different, so it's interesting to compare them. William is neat and fussy, like when he picked out all the green bits from his potato salad and lined them up. Nathan is messy but likes to have fun. (Accept logical opinions and note how well students support their ideas with evidence from the text.)  Note any additional understandings:	What does the writer do to keep you interested? What else? Show an example.
