(December 2017) The Arts-Mart Gallery (www.arts-mart.com) is proud to officially announce the unveiling of Egypt's largest ever contemporary art exhibition, the 3rd Cairo Art Fair. The Cairo Art Fair III will take place at The Arts-Mart Gallery, opening next Friday December 8th until February 15th 2017. The artwork will periodically change during the course of the fair.

The Cairo Art Fair III (CAF III) will showcase the work of over 100 Egyptian artists participating with over 1000 artworks. CAF III is perhaps the most unconventional art fair in the region; breaking the boundaries of format, participation, duration and presentation, the fair is an unmissable synergy of art and artists. With a focus of embracement, the CAF III aims to democratically present the widest possible range of contemporary Egyptian talents. Displaying well-established artists alongside upcoming stars has always been, and continues to be the gallery's unique strategy, designed to portray an honest reflection of today's Egyptian art scene. Expect to see artworks covering every inch of space, providing an unbeatable variety of genres, sizes and prices.

Art enthusiasts will be pleasantly surprised by the pivotal new body of work by some of Egypt's most popular artists. Look out for Mohamed El Sharkawy's new enchantingly genuine phase, resulting from a series of personal events and changes. The free-flowing emotions that come through Mohamed Rabie's work, as well as the perfect fusion of ancient and contemporary in Mohamed Sabry's stunning new collection are sure to be turn-around points in their careers. Always noteworthy, Ibrahim El Tanbouli serves us a gorgeous feast for the eyes and heart. For the first time at Arts-Mart, Ayyad El Nimr will charm viewers with his blend of nostalgic figures and pop colours. Gamal Meleka, Mohamed Abu El Waffa, Mostafa Rahma, Khaled Hafez, Lina Mowafy, Hossam Dirar, Lubna Abdelaziz, Alaa Abu El Hamd, Aida Khalil, Ahmed Osman, Mohamed El Ganouby, Ali Saeed, Esraa Zidan and many others will also all be showing new work for the Cairo Art Fair.

The third edition of the CAF is also shining a light on sculpture; bringing you some of the best Egyptian sculptors in one place. World-renowned Khaled Zaki will be showing his stunningly graceful pieces. Be sure to also look out for the iconic work of Ahmed Askalany, the inspirational work of Maged Mikhail (in collaboration with Karim Francis Gallery), Mohamed Banawy, Mahmoud El Deweihy, Ahmed Magdy and Islam Ebada, to mention a few.
