Sometimes you never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory"... Dr.Seuss....

Change is inevitable. We used to celebrate the birthday of each President, now we celebrate President's Day, which incorporates Abraham Lincoln and George Washington on one day. I believe everyone deserves his own day!!

Some things change for the better. Here at Anshei Shalom, inside these walls are the rituals, programs, activities and celebrations that nurture our community. We are 37 years "young", with a wonderful Life Long Learning Program, lecture series, Scholar in Residence weekend, movies, social activities, Anshei After Dark", a Men's Club and Sisterhood.

In this past year, we have added 100 new members who, we hope will become active participants in our Synagogue life. New members bring a new outlook, new ideas and inject new vitality and thinking into TAS.

Our "37th" Gala Journal Dinner will honor two very special people, Cantor Saul Rubinstein and Florence Ull. They, in their respective roles, contribute to making TAS so very unique. Cantor Rubinstein is our Cantor Shainee, and has stepped up every time he has been needed to conduct services and daven Shaharit on the High Holy Days. Florence Ull is our very special go to gal. Go to ...if you need to purchase a ticket for an event, go to ...if you want to join us for dinner, go to.... if you want chair seats for the holidays. Their devotion to our Temple is priceless. Please join us on March 5th to say Thank You for their tireless efforts.

"To make a difference in someone's life, you don't have to be brilliant, rich, beautiful or perfect. You just have to care."

L'Shalom

Rabbi's Column

Rabbi Raphael Adler

Yes, Anshei Shalom should have an official fruit, and it is...Bokser!

That word brings back a flood of childhood memories. When Tu BiShvat, the New Year for Trees, or the beginning of Spring in Israel arrived, so did that fruit known as carob or bokser. It seemed exotic to hold this unusual export from Israel, hardy enough to make a long ocean voyage and still remain "sort of edible." The long, sticky, dark bokser pod may not have tasted like much, but that didn't matter. Jewish farmers plucked them from a Jewish tree planted in the Jewish home land. So that carob was precious.

Bokser, which features prominently in several mystical Rabbinic episodes, has a unique characteristic. In the Talmud, (Ta'anit 23a), we are told that the carob tree takes 70 years to bear fruit. Alas, the Anshei Shalom connection.

You, who comprise our synagogue family, are walking, breathing bokser fruits. You participate in Jewish learning, volunteer, form new friendships, and, daily, choose to join our active congregation and make us a key element of your routine. All of you are bearing fruit at 70+ years, with a curiosity and zest for living, that makes our community so very special.

To your neighbors who feel that it's time to let the next generation step up and that shul affiliation and involvement are just dusty memories of life up north, there is a one word response...bokser!

Your best days are now. Fruitful, verdant, and connected you demonstrate a passion that doesn't exist among younger people. It is now spring time in Israel, but it is our springtime year round. So don't break your teeth on a rock hard carob, instead remember that fruit took at least 70 years to come into being. Your experiences of a lifetime have brought you to us and I am glad you are here...my bokser congregation.

Dear Congregants:

As we begin 2017, we especially welcome our newest members of 2016.

The warmth of this temple community has been enhanced by all the wonderful new members, of whom we have gained 100.

They have joined Temple Anshei Shalom because we have what they want and need. We will strive to continue to do so. In the future, there will be more events planned so that members can meet each other.

Apologies to those members who joined in 2016 whose names were not listed in the "New Member Shabbat" program: Roselle Jacobson, Alex and Lollie Pechman, Murray and Myrna Markin, Grace Moses and Jack and Arlynn Siegel.

May 2017 bring all our congregants the joy they seek and may all of you, and your loved ones, be blessed with health.

Shalom

Sisterhood

Jane Wechsler

Shalom!

Greetings, from not only me, as President of the Sisterhood but from the entire Sisterhood Board.

We want to thank you for your continued support of our meetings, programs and trips. Let us know if there is something you would like to see us include. The Board meets monthly, and if there is something you would like to suggest to us, let me know and I will discuss it with the Board.

On February 9th, Millie Grant has scheduled another trip to Miami and the Cuban Synagogue. This has been one of our most popular events. Keep checking our flyers because she is planning an overnight trip this summer. You won't want to miss that.

Sisterhood Shabbat will be February 11th. Please come and support all the wonderful women who are participating. I want to thank Rabbi Adler and David Zimmer, Vice President of Ritual for their encouragement and support. A special thank you also goes to Steven Wallach, our Baal Koreh, for all his coaching and support. Sisterhood members, Marilyn Silberstein and Ruth Morwitz, provided the enthusiasm, planning and coordination for the day. It will be an exciting day for us.

February 20th will be our membership meeting, featuring Israeli Singer, Ron Dagan. Thanks to Sema Weinberg for planning this day, and to Helene Mendelson and her group for the organization of our breakfast. Come and meet your officers and Board members and get involved!

Don't forget, to visit our Judaica Shop - Linda Kaplan has ordered new items that you will not only want to browse but to purchase. If you have a few hours in the mornings - Mondays to Thursdays from 9-12, and you would like to assist Linda in the Judaica Shop, please talk with her at one of our meetings or call her at 865-1936.

We are looking for some women to help out in the Ticket office, to sell tickets for our events, on Mondays to Thursdays. If you are available from 9:30-11:30, and you want to help us in a fun-filled environment and be able to meet some great people - see Millie Grant or Sema Weinberg.

Thank you for your support. Come and get involved!

Shalom Chaverim. I owe you all an apology. The email address I listed in my last article was incorrect. Since I seldom use it I mixed up the numbers and whenever I checked for responses I got none. Let me try again. I would like to hear from everyone who wants an Aliyah on Shabbat. I need to know whether you are comfortable with reciting the blessings, reciting a Haftorah, Reading from the Torah, Davenning P'Sukei D'Zimra, Carrying the Torah or opening and closing the Ark. I don't care if you have done any of these before I would still like to hear from you. Please remember to give me your Hebrew Name including that of your parents, and the tribe you were born to, i.e. Kohane, Levite. Here is the real Email address: Zimmerdavid675@gmail.com. If you are more comfortable not using a computer you can put the same information on a card and bring it into the office.

In February we are looking forward to Sisterhood Shabbat and the Scholar in residence Shabbat. Both of which will have many women having Aliyot reading Haftorah and reading from the Torah, and leading us in P'Sukei D'zimrah. I am looking forward to meeting you all during my term. I will be at the door as services begin most Shabatot, and occasionally on the Bima.

Anshei After Dark

Comedian John Carfi and a crowd of nearly 400 kicked off 2017 with gusto at our Jan. 11 Anshei After Dark performance. After the show, Carfi (center) shared more laughs with, from left: Ted and Carole Marcus, Boca Raton, Judy Cooper, Palm Beach, Andra Klein and Larry Serur, both of Delray Beach. Next up for Anshei After Dark is Julietta Daniel on Feb. 8, at 7 p.m.

Protest Against German Insurance Co. Allianz during the Allianz Golf Championship

Old Course, Broken Sound Country Club, Boca Raton Intersection of Yamato Rd. and Broken Sound Blvd., north side

Jack Rubin was a tireless leader in this annual protest against German insurance giant Alliance, A.G., which has refused to pay some $2.5 billion in claims for families' paid-for Holocaust era insurance policies. Thousands of survivors live in poverty.

The protest puts a strong media spotlight on the injustice of survivors waiting for what is due, while Allianz basks in the national limelight of sponsoring a major golf tournament.

The number of survivors physically able to protest are dwindling fast.

If we who are able do not step up to speak for those who cannot, the protest might not happen this year. To paraphrase Rabbi Hillel:

If not us, who? If not now, maybe never!

Life has thrown curves my way, but I seem to have wound up the winner. How fortunate
I am to have met and made so many friends at TAS.

Thank you for your birthday
cards, Simcha Shabbat wishes and telephone calls in my honor.

Thank you for your thoughtfulness, your caring.
May 2017 bring good health and happiness to all.

Shalom - Love Florence Ull

THANK YOU TAS FAMILY FOR ALL THE GET WELL WISHES I RECEIVED DURING MY RECENT

Testimonial

"I want to thank you for introducing me to the Invisalign procedure. I was impressed as to how quickly I began to see the results. Being able to whiten my teeth while I was wearing the appliances was very convenient."
