

The Well Dressed Guardisman

A Quartermaster's purchasing guide to outfitting yourself as a Member of the Sons of the American Revolution Color Guard

By Emil Decker,

Updated 2019

I have always been one to look for a deal. When purchasing my own militia uniform, I searched through many websites. As always, quality, size, color, material, as well as price varied greatly. When asked to help fellow chapter members attend events in uniform, after loaning a few items, the requests changed to, “what/where should I purchase my own?” I became the chapter’s Quartermaster.

I decided that I would put together a small volume to address the current state of affairs. I have included the various sites I have found, with personal experiences. (Understand I cannot possibly know all sites, and some local sutlers are not listed. Some don’t do websites, but sell at reenactment events. If you know of any I should include, let me know. eldecker@weegrr.space) Understand that these are not an endorsement, nor an attempt to keep you from purchasing one item over another. Just my personal opinions. Photos are from seller’s webpages, so I cannot show more than they did. Of course, as soon as it is published, the prices, website, and availability will immediately change. “Capes ut pendes” {you get what you pay for} and the final choice decision is your own.

To fire a musket in any event, the material of the uniform must be natural fiber. No polyester or poly blend is allowed.

Contents: (I chose to organize by separate clothing item. Most companies offer many of the items, but not all. Cruise through their websites to see all the offerings.)

Militia minimums: What is the bare minimum needed to participate?

The bare minimum would be period shirt, pants, & shoes. Hat, vest and weapon would be the next set of items to look / act the part. After that, the accessories are endless. But let's look to the essentials and build from there.

Shirts

Standard period shirts were long sleeve, with collar. Collar may or may not be buttoned. Longer lengths like a nightshirt are more period, but tucked into pants, one would not notice a shorter length. Standard colors include white, patterned (mostly plaid) and solid colors. Materials include cotton, linen, silk, fustian, or buckskin leather.

When going in hot weather, I often wear the hunter's shirt, with the longer length hanging out over my pants. A belt wrapped around the waist is sufficient to complete the look.

Military Clothing

This website has lots of military camo, equipment, all kinds of accessories, but carries a very inexpensive line of reenactment clothing as well.

This shirt has a shorter length, but the price is the cheapest I have seen outside of sales.

I have personally made purchases of shirts from Military Clothing, Crazy Crow, and Fort Downing. The cloth is pretty much as described. I have had no problems with any. MC shirts are shorter tailed, but acceptable when tucked into pants. Too short to wear out. Fort Downing was period precise, as you would expect from a reenactment sutler's craft. The embroidered heart at the collar was a nice touch. I had several conversations with Fort Downing regarding fabric choice, style, etc. on other items, even returning one that was sized wrong (my fault). Excellent service.

Pants:

Most folks think of button festooned knee breeches, although trousers (britches) are period as well. Either, depending on the wearers preference, location unit, or occupation may play a part. Trousers have the advantage of hiding one's socks and shoes, while the knee breeches requires knee stockings and more visible shoes.

I have the afore mentioned Military Clothing breeches and trousers. Also have a Ft. Downing sets. Custom hand made are "definitely better quality", though they do cost more. Worth it !!!

Weskits, vests, waistcoats, or gilets:

Names and lengths changed over time, but basically fall into two categories, short and long. French and Indian War period long versions were still worn during the time of the revolution, when the style started to shorten. the French Gilet being the shortest and closest to a modern wear vest.

The coolest items for summer are a shirt and weskit, with no overcoat. A man would be considered undressed wearing a shirt alone. Militia wear of the hunting shirt without the open front coat is also summer accepted. But one must have a "Sunday Go To Meeting" Weskit.

I recently ordered the Military Clothing weskits. Very well made and quite nice for the price. Due to color constraints, I will be looking at Samsons since I believe them to be the same, but with more color options for only a little more. I also have a Townsend vest, and have a brocade waist coat with fabric covered buttons from Ft. Downing. It is absolutely delightful. As with many items with buttons, these have a tendency to fall off. The more rare your button, the more you want to watch for threads coming loose. Additionally, covered buttons, over time, will have the fabric come loose and start to look raggedy. Replacement buttons may become necessary.

Socks:

Knee breeches require knee stockings. Trousers hide most all socks, so crew or your favorite tubes works just fine. Socks can be cotton, light weight, heavy weight, silk, wool, white, colored, striped, just about anything goes. (Bad legs or feet? Compression socks might help, and look good enough to pass. I have worn them.)

Due to the fact that a regimental coat is a very fitted coat you must fill out the complete size card along with the diagram FI-1R in order for the order to be excepted.

The Regimental reaches nearly to the knee and has back split and side vents. Please specify the number of buttons you need on the front. The cuffs are functional with buttons. Lapels are also functional with button holes carefully tailored to button into the cape (Collar). The coat was one color and the facings, lapels, and cuffs were another. The turnbacks were lined (usually in wool) with either the facing color or white. The body of the coat is lined with linen. There are two functional pockets with button holes. The edges of the collar, cuff, lapels, and tail are left raw.

The edges of the collar, cuff, lapels and tails are left raw.

Appendix A: Accessories

There are many accessories for Continental and milita uniforms. They include powder horns, leather belts, straps, haversacks, gaiters, cartridge boxes, canteens, all manner of black powder items(flash guards and flints, to cleaning kits and tools), and the list goes on and on. There are too many items to list as I have done for the clothing. This manual would become the size of an old Sears and Roebuck catalog. Suffice it to say, many of the items are available from the sutlers previously listed, and others who do not provide clothing. Below is a list of merchants I have found or done business with in the past. Good browsing.

Appendix B: Weapons

Musket, pistol, sword, rifle or cannon, the weapon you choose to complete your equipment will probably be the most expensive part of your uniform. There are few websites for period reproduction weapons that most folks will go to for the majority of weapon options. Each has its own issues, prices, and requirements for purchase, based on country of origin, shipping codes and restrictions, etc.

Many of the reproductions are made in India, and the metal is subject to rust if not treated properly. Italian made reproductions will generally cost more. Super expensive would be the custom Kentucky or Pennsylvania rifles made by master gunsmiths. Originals,....well, we won't even go there.

One Canadian firm will ship the lock separate from the barrel and stock to get around shipping restrictions. Another will not drill the vent hole between the barrel and the pan, therefore it is not yet a fire abled weapon. (Local Gunsmith required to drill the hole). Others may simply need proof of age. Read and compare like weapons between vendors and do not assume. Ask. Some of my favorite sites to cruise are:

Note: Any weapon fired at an SAR event must have a flash guard installed, as well as a hammer stall.

If you know of, or find some interesting vendors or can't-do-without equipment, send me a link. I will add to future updates to this manual. Until later, shoot straight, keep your powder dry, and God Speed.

Appendix C: Georgia Fellows Uniform Stipend

Until further notice, there is presently a standing approval for stipends towards the purchase of a Continental Line uniform or Militia outfit. The stipend is given to members joining the Georgia State Color Guard upon proof of purchase of such an outfit and confirmation by the Georgia State Color Guard Commander that such uniform has been obtained and worn at a State or National Color Guard event.

With new Continental Line uniforms available from GG Godwin, or other quality uniform, any Compatriot who orders a new uniform is eligible to receive the stipend, even if they are previous recipients for old uniforms or Militia outfits. Compatriots interested in the new uniforms should contact Color Guard Commander Bill Palmer.

The Georgia Fellows Fund Board unanimously voted to increase the stipend to $200 in the hopes that more Compatriots will consider purchase of a new uniform.
