March 2020

From Our President

Donna Steele

Happy March! Will the month come in like a lion and go out like a lamb? I hope not. I hope the snow is over and the spring flowers in my yard can come back out.

We still have lots of activities planned for spring! I hope you meet more of our new members personally when you volunteer for our upcoming events.

February Meeting: At the February meeting, our members saw the $1498.59 donation check presented by Kathleen Nobles, Clayton Visual Arts for our participation in the Arts Holiday House Tour in Portofino. A big thank you to Lorretta Mascia, Teresa Mathis and their volunteer team for all of your dedicated work for this fund-raiser.

With valentine decorations everywhere in the clubhouse, the Arts Community Service group led by co-chairmen, Faye Brooks, Dianne Carroll and Angela Williams, assisted by their members: Belle Allen, Peggy Earp, Brenda Edge, Suzanne Green, Brenda Hill, Patty Jo Johnson, Susan Johnson, Ruth LaRocca, Jean Lee, Connie May, Sherry Miller, Sunday Penny, Becky Stewart and Sharon Wilson. The delicious meal was provided by Betsy Grannis, owner of the Morning Glory Inn. Our speaker, Nikki Dyke, Director of the Carolina Youth Theatre, told the story about the formation of the Carolina Youth Theatre and its exciting future. We took this opportunity to present a check of $300.00 from the Art Community Service group, TWCC and Nikki thanked us for our continued support. She reminded our members about the upcoming theater presentation of "Our Town" on February 27, 28, and 29 at the Clayton Center. Get your tickets now!

Guests and New Members: 3 guests attended, and one guest joined at the meeting. Now we have 12 new members so far this year. One guest told us her GPS took her to Selma first to a wrong location, but she did not give up and came to our meeting! Please keep inviting your friends and neighbors to our meetings so we can continue to expand our work into the community.

Second Annual Pick a Prize/Tricky Tray, February 21, 2020: A great big thank you to Brenda Hill and Bree Rude, co-chairmen and their team of 18 volunteers+ who made this such a successful event. I also want to thank all our members and their families who sold tickets, donated items for the baskets, and participated in the event on a cold Friday night! From all the happy faces when people won the prizes they had picked, the event proved to be a fun evening for all!

Ways and Means Committee: Teresa Mathis is chairwoman. The Spring Fling Fashion Show and Brunch, March 7, 2020, 10:30 am-1:30 pm at the Brick and Mortar Restaurant at 217 E Main St, Clayton: Dianne Carroll, Bree Rude and Betsy Grannis are co-chairs. At the end of the newsletter is a list of books relevant to the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment.

Book Review by Mary Sinzdak:The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother by James McBride

In this beautiful book James McBride expresses his love for his mother along with his own struggle for identity. As a child he worried about his mother, who "didn't look like his friend's mothers", nor like anyone in their neighborhood. While embracing life, Ruth McBride Jordan wouldn't speak of her past, which her son now presents in alternating chapters with his own childhood. A very remarkable woman who raised 12 children, all of whom obtained college degrees. I would have liked to have known this woman.

James McBride will be speaking about his newest book, Deacon King Kong, at Quail Ridge Books in March.

Tricky Tray (Pick a Prize) Fundraiser Chair: Bree Rude

The Tricky Tray (Pick a Prize) event held on February 21st at the Clayton Civitan Club building was a huge success! TWCC exceeded last years earning by more than $500! In 2019, a cold rainy night was an issue. In 2020, leftover snow was an issue but it did not deter folks from coming out for this FUN event!

One of the best things about this event—it brought out a lot of members! More than 18 volunteers worked the event either by setting up; selling tickets, food and desserts; calling out numbers; serving as runners; helping to clean up, etc. And then there were the many members who purchased tickets and yelled and screamed when folks around them won a prize. It truly takes a village!!!! A HUGE thanks to Bree Rude and Brenda Hill for co-chairing this event. Brenda Hill is a master at taking multiple items and making them look like an item you can't live without. Bree can charm the socks off of MANY local merchants and procured free food, gift cards, etc. TWCC is so fortunate to have to have these ladies lead this fundraiser!!! Any members who procured donations for this event are encouraged to give the donors a Thank You letter with the TWCC tax ID. Please email sbrooks@twccnc.org for a copy of the letter.

New REAL ID Deadline
Oct. 1, 2020
Department of Homeland Security
Effective January 2, 2015

Have you heard about REAL ID? This ID, available from DMV, will be required on October 1, 2020 when stricter ID requirements go into effect. REAL IDs will make it easier to board airplanes, visit federal facilities and military bases. The REAL ID looks and works like your driver's license but there is a gold star in the upper right corner indicating you have met the identification standards required by the federal REAL ID Act. To obtain the REAL ID, go to DMV with documents that show identity and date of birth (e.g., birth certificate, valid passport or immigration documents), proof of NC residency (e.g., copy of utility bill, NC vehicle registration card or title, NC voter precinct card, property tax statement), and proof that you have a Social Security number (e.g., Social Security card, 1099 tax form, pay stub with full SSN or W-2 form with full SSN), legal name change (e.g., marriage license, divorce decree). The proof documents will be scanned and remain on file at DMV. (Refer to Requirements, page 14). The REAL ID can be obtained at the time of driver's license renewal or before the renewal period for the cost of a duplicate. For more information, visit NCREALID.com.

RSVP your CSP Chair by Sunday before the meeting if you will be attending the March lunch meeting as well as any guests you may be bringing.

Hocutt-Ellington Library Request Library Director: Joy Garretson

Let's Talk About It is a library discussion series from the NC Humanities Council; it brings scholars and community members together to explore how selected books, films, or poetry illuminate a particular theme. For our purposes, we will apply for access to a book series, and the NC Humanities Council (if we get approved) will send us the books in that series and will set up scholars to come talk about those books. We will meet five times over the summer, and at each meeting, the scholar will speak about the book, and we'll have discussions and refreshments. If a participant can't attend all five meetings, that's okay! We just ask that you sign up for the meetings you can come to. This is a great way to connect with friends and soon-to-be friends over the summer, to read, and to enjoy thought-provoking scholars and discussions about these books!

Here's the link to the survey that only has 3 questions so it is not time-consuming:
