FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

Welcome to TUTS' production of Disney's The Little Mermaid! Back by popular demand, we are thrilled to bring this magical show back to Houston for a limited run!

After closing on Broadway in 2009, The Little Mermaid underwent two years of intensive work to fine-tune and master the production. In June 2014, TUTS produced the revised version which included mesmerizing scenery, stunning new costumes and high-flying action. We welcome back many of the creative team, including director Glenn Casale, choreographer John MacLinnis and flying sequence choreographer Paul Rubin. Last year's production wowed audiences, and I have no doubt this one will do the same.

We look forward to seeing you back here in October for the 2015/16 mainstage season opener Matilda The Musical, followed by the clever adaptation of the 1983 holiday classic A Christmas Story in December. This season offers six fantastic shows with something for everyone - it's definitely one you don't want to miss. For those who prefer edgy, contemporary new works, our 2015/16 TUTS Underground season is just what you need. Season tickets for both series are still available, so get yours today!

As we head into our 48th year of bringing the highest quality musical theatre to Houston, I want to thank all of you for your help in making each year a success. I would also like to give special thanks to our season sponsor CHI St. Luke's Health, media sponsors ABC-13 and Houston Chronicle for their continued support, as well as our official airline sponsor, United Airlines. The generosity of our sponsors allows us to carry on our tradition of bringing great works to the stage and impacting thousands of individuals throughout the community each year.

Sit back and enjoy your trip under the sea!

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

I am delighted to welcome you to this captivating production of The Little Mermaid, a story for all generations. Due to popular demand, we are excited to bring this spectacular musical back to our stage, and we are pleased to announce that we will be co-presenting this production in four cities across the country after closing in Houston.

The beloved tale of The Little Mermaid has been enchanting audiences since Danish author Hans Christian Andersen first penned the classic story in 1837. Andersen's entrancing, yet dark tale tells the story of a young mermaid who is mesmerized by the human world and is willing to give up her life under the sea and her beautiful voice, not only for the love of a prince, but also for her fascination with the unknown. Andersen's original fairy tale, Den lille havfrue, does not end happily—the mermaid and her prince do not marry and the mermaid returns to the sea, dissolving into foam.

In 1989, Walt Disney Pictures added a happy ending for the mermaid and adapted the treasured fairy tale into a full length animated musical film which was very well received and even won two Oscars for Best Original Song and Best Original Score. This animated classic is often credited with reviving the art of the Disney animated feature film and began the era known as the Disney Renaissance. With music by Alan Menken and Howard Ashman, The Little Mermaid has been called "the film that brought Broadway into cartoons."

Following the success of hit musicals such Beauty and the Beast and The Lion King, Disney Theatrical produced the stage version of The Little Mermaid in 2007 with a book by Doug Wright, music by Alan Menken, lyrics by Howard Ashman, and additional lyrics by Glenn Slater. The Broadway production ran from January 2008 to August 2009, and since closing, numerous productions have been seen by audiences of all ages both nationally and internationally.

Due to the musical and imaginative elements of the animated film, The Little Mermaid lends itself spectacularly to the musical stage. The score utilizes the memorable songs from the film as well as introduces new music to the audience. The musical stunningly brings the beloved film to life and is now a part of a legacy which began with Anderson's original tale.

Thank you for joining us for The Little Mermaid, and I hope that you will visit us again here at TUTS for one of our many upcoming productions.

Our upcoming main stage season kicks off in October with Matilda followed by A Christmas Story, The Bridges of Madison County, Mary Poppins, Oliver!, and A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder.

We hope the adults in the audience will also check out our newest venture featuring innovative, immersive, and alternative musical theatre—TUTS Underground. The third season of Underground includes Bonnie and Clyde, Striking 12, Sweet Potato Queens, and Heathers.

Enjoy the show!

BRUCE LUMPKIN*Artistic Director*

Bruce Lumpkin joined the staff at Theatre Under The Stars in July 2012 as Artistic Director to maintain artistic oversight of TUTS' producing operations, to provide creative direction to TUTS' Humphreys School of Musical Theatre, and to enhance TUTS' voice in the arts community. In 2013, he launched TUTS' newest venture, TUTS Underground—a series featuring ground-breaking, alternative, and affordable new musicals.

After earning his BFA from the University of Houston, Bruce got his start in theatre at TUTS as the resident director of the Humphreys School. He soon caught the attention of Tommy Tune, who recruited Bruce to work on several Broadway titles including Grand Hotel, My One and Only, Nine, Stepping Out, and The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas.

Bruce's career has taken him to several respected theatres across the nation including the 5th Avenue Theatre, Cape Fear Regional Theatre, Casa Manana, Dicapò Opera Company, Heritage Entertainment, the Lyric Theatre, Maine State Musical Theatre, North Shore Music Theatre, the Pittsburgh CLO, and Walnut Street Theatre. He counts Summer '69 and Honky Tonk Angel among his off-Broadway work, and he served as the artistic director to Broadway's Mindfreak featuring illusionist Criss Angel. Additionally, Bruce co-directed Grand Hotel on London's West End and served on the creative team for the national tours of Dr. Doolittle and Nine. He received the Barrymore Award for Best Director and Best Musical for his revisionist look at Cabaret. Other personal milestones for Bruce include his work in the world premieres of Dodsworth and Grossingers and the US premiere of La Vie En Bleu.

Bruce is thrilled to have returned to Houston, the city where he grew up, and to work at TUTS, the theatre where his career began.
