November is a special month dedicated by the church to pray for our beloved departed. In all of our masses for the entire month of November, we will have a special prayer and blessing for them after the concluding prayer. Envelopes to write their names and to give your donation are available at the back of the church. Please return them through the collection baskets or through the office before next month.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

Noviembre es un mes especial dedicado por la iglesia para orar por nuestros amados difuntos. En todas nuestras misas durante todo el mes de noviembre, tendremos una oración especial y una bendición para ellos después de la última bendición. Los sobres para escribir sus nombres y para dar su donación están disponibles en la parte posterior de la iglesia. Devuélvalos en las canastas de colección o en la oficina antes del próximo mes.

Concédeles el descanso eterno, oh Señor. Y que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos. Amén.

October 17, 2021 - Opening of Diocesan Synod Phase

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace and well-being to you in these beautiful months of Autumn. With great joy and anticipation, we start the worldwide Synod on Synodality in our Diocese. This is an important and providential moment for us; an opportunity to enter a mutual dialogue about the future of our Holy Mother Church and to be moved by the power of the Holy Spirit in our listening to each other in conversation.

The word 'Synod' may not be familiar to everyone. It literally means "common road." So, we might think of this two-year process as time that our entire Church – laypeople, clergy, religious, youth, elderly, and our many cultures – walking together. We will talk, listen, pray and discern where God is calling us. It will be a time for us to dream together and to share our hopes for renewal in the Church. It will also call us to confront difficult questions about how power and decision-making take place, how wounds and divisions in our Church are being addressed, about what might be inhibiting the baptized from going out fully in mission. When painful truths are expressed, let us always keep in our minds and hearts to listen with compassion, trusting that the Holy Spirit is guiding us in this shared journey and that it will lead us ultimately to where God intends us to go.

In calling for this Synod, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, invites us to reflect on a sequence of Communion, Participation and Mission. Communion requires coming together united in our diversity, which in turn requires participation in order to fulfill our mission. Pope Francis describes the Synod as both a "gift and a task," for we are to make a priority of inviting to our common road those brothers and sisters who are on the margins of our communities, who we do not normally see in church, who have been hurt and estranged from us. We are called to seek them out, welcome them, and listen to them with compassion and without judgement.

The Synod on Synodality begins with the diocesan phase. At the same time, we know that the dialogue and the consultation will unfold principally in our parish communities, where the life of the local Church takes place. Please be attentive to where and when the Synodal gatherings and listening sessions will take place in your parish as information becomes available.

In receiving these words, you may think of this Synod as a new "program." I encourage you to see it rather as way of being Church; accompanying one another, sharing our unique experiences with each other, and discerning our shared path in the light of the Holy Spirit. I have learned that a Synod in the early 1970s played a key role in the birth of our own Diocese. It surfaced the reality that our counties of Riverside and San Bernardino needed to become a new diocese.

The Synod is essential to the nature of the Church, and we will be renewed in that reality in the coming years. I hope this message will provide the information and inspiration you need to prepare for this important a blessed moment in our Diocese and in the Universal Church. Let us keep each other in prayer as we begin our shared journey in Synodality. And let us always seek the intercession of Our Blessed Mother Mary who gently nurtures and guides us to the loving arms of our Lord.

In Christ's Love,

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

17 de Octubre, 2021 - Apertura de la fase Diocesana del Sinodo

Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Paz y bienestar para con ustedes en estos bellos meses de otoño. Con gran gozo y anticipación, comenzamos el Sinodo mundial sobre la Sinodalidad en nuestra Diócesis. Este es un momento importante y providencial para nosotros; una oportunidad para entrar en un diálogo mutuo sobre el futuro de nuestra Santa Madre Iglesia y de ser movidos por el poder del Espíritu Santo al escucharnos el uno al otro en conversación.

La palabra 'Sínodo' quizás no sea familiar para todos. Literalmente significa "camino común." Por lo tanto, podemos pensar sobre este proceso de dos años como el tiempo en que nuestra iglesia entera-laicos, clero, religiosos, jóvenes, ancianos, y nuestras varias culturas-caminando juntos. Hablaremos, escucharemos, oraremos, y discerniremos a donde Dios nos esté llamando. Será un tiempo para que soñemos juntos y compartamos nuestras esperanzas para la renovación de la Iglesia. También nos llamará a enfrentar preguntas difíciles sobre como el poder y las decisiones toman lugar, como las heridas y las divisiones en nuestra Iglesia se están abordando, que podría estar impidiendo a que los bautizados salgan completamente en misión. Cuando se expresen verdades dolorosas, tengamos siempre en nuestras mentes y en nuestros corazones escuchar con compasión, confiando que el Espíritu Santo nos esté guiando en este camino compartido y que al final nos guiará a donde Dios quiere que vayamos.

En pedir este Sinodo, el Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco, nos invita a reflexionar sobre una secuencia en la Comunión, la Participación y la Misión. La Comunión requiere que nos reunamos en nuestra diversidad, que al mismo tiempo requiere participación para poder cumplir la misión. El Papa Francisco describe el Sínodo como un "don y una tarea," ya que debemos hacer una prioridad de invitar a nuestro camino común a aquellos hermanos y hermanas que están en las periferias de nuestras comunidades, a quien normalmente no vemos en la iglesia, que han sido heridos y separados de nosotros. Estamos llamados a buscarlos, darles la bienvenida y escucharlos con compasión y sin juzgarlos.

El Sínodo sobre la Sinodalidad comienza con la fase diocesana. Al mismo tiempo, sabemos que el diálogo y la consulta se desarrollarán principalmente en nuestras comunidades parroquiales, donde toma lugar la vida de la Iglesia local. Por favor estén atentos sobre los lugares y horas de las reuniones Sinodales y las sesiones de escucha en su parroquia a medida que la información esté disponible.

Al recibir estas palabras, puede ser que piensen que este Sínodo es un nuevo "programa." Los animo a que lo vean más bien como una manera de ser Iglesia; acompañándonos el uno al otro, compartiendo nuestras experiencias únicas el uno con el otro, para discernir nuestro camino compartido a la luz del Espíritu Santo. He aprendido que un Sínodo en los principios de los años 1970 desempeñó un papel clave en el nacimiento de nuestra propia Diócesis. De ahí surgió la realidad de que los condados de Riverside y San Bernardino necesitaban convertirse en una nueva diócesis.

El sínodo es esencial en la naturaleza de la Iglesia, y seremos renovados en esa realidad en los años venideros. Espero que este mensaje provea la información e inspiración que necesitan para preparamos a este momento importante y bendecido en nuestra Diócesis y en la Iglesia Universal. Mantengámonos en oración los unos por los otros al comenzar nuestro camino compartido en Sinodalidad. Y busquemos siempre la intercesión de Nuestra Santísima Madre María que bondadosamente nos nutre y nos guía a los brazos amorosos de Nuestro Señor.

En el Amor de Cristo,

Pope Francis: "Get vaccinated for the good of everyone."

Pope Francis issued a recent appeal urging people to get inoculated against COVID-19 saying the vaccines could bring an end to the pandemic if we work together. His Holiness further states that vaccines should be taken by everyone for the good of everyone.

The CDF, the Vatican's doctrinal office also concluded that to take the vaccine is deeply rooted in the Catholic moral tradition. "Not only on the duty to protect one's own health, but also on the duty to pursue the common good."

"To ensure everyone is vaccinated is an act of love." says Pope Francis.

My Saint Margaret Mary Family,

I have been a parishioner with SMM since 1989 and along with Debbie we raised our three daughters within the SMM family and the relationships we've gained naturally made SMM an extension of our family. After serving in liturgical ministries for a number of years you have seen me enter the vocation of the diaconate when I was ordained in 2015. Aside from serving at SMM my participation in the detention ministry has also been fruitful. Again, it is the relationships between volunteers and the inmates that have revealed God's genuine witnesses. Although my ministry has been truly a blessing I want to share that I have found a need for me to temporarily step away from serving as deacon for SMM and CIM. After receiving support from Fr. Resti, I submitted my request to Bishop Rojas and am awaiting his formal response. I, along with Debbie, will be addressing the needs of our family which will require our attention, time and energy. As I share this message my heart is heavy but my prayers remain with each of you. I only ask for your prayers during my temporary leave of absence. May you continue to be the People of God in Chino!

In Christ,
Deacon John

Mi Familia de Santa Margarita María,

He sido feligrés con SMM desde 1989 y junto con Debbie criamos a nuestras tres hijas dentro de la familia SMM. Las relaciones que hemos adquirido naturalmente hicieron de SMM una extensión de nuestra familia. Después de servir en ministerios litúrgicos durante varios años, me han visto entrar en la vocación del diaconado cuando fui ordenado en 2015. Aparte de servir en SMM mi participación en el ministerio de detención también ha sido fructífera. Una vez más, son las relaciones entre los otros voluntarios y los reclusos las que han revelado los verdaderos testigos de Dios. Aunque mi ministerio ha sido una bendición, quiero compartir que he encontrado la necesidad de alejarme temporalmente de servir como diácono para SMM y CIM. Después de recibir el apoyo del Padre Resti, presenté mi solicitud al Obispo Rojas y estoy esperando su respuesta formal. Yo, junto con Debbie, abordaré las necesidades de nuestra familia, lo que requerirá nuestra atención, tiempo y energía. Al compartir este mensaje, mi corazón está pesado, pero mis oraciones permanecen con cada uno de ustedes. Sólo pido sus oraciones durante mi permiso temporal de ausencia. ¡Que continúes siendo el Pueblo de Dios en Chino!

En Cristo,
Diacono John

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

Youth Ministry

When does the youth ministry meet?

The youth ministry meets every Sunday for the 5pm evening Mass. We celebrate the Mass as a community of believers. We know how important it is to feel supported, so the teens have a section (choir loft) where they can celebrate Mass together.

After the 5pm evening Mass, teens will travel to the Sacred Heart Center for an opportunity for our young people to grow in friendship and faith. Activities will end around 8:00pm.

A new season of youth ministry began.
