

GIVING YOU JESUS

QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER | Fall 2020

I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

— Psalm 91:2

The last two years of my life have been physically challenging and spiritually strengthening. I can declare with certainty based on God's Word and my personal experience that the Lord is utterly trustworthy. Therefore I have made the choice to place my trust in Him, regardless of feelings, circumstances, or the opinions of others.

So if you, too, find yourself challenged by chaos, fear, anger, weariness, disease, loneliness and despair, I encourage you to renew your commitment to trust in the One who has loved you from before the beginning of time, and who will love you to the End. The world is not falling apart. It is falling into place at the feet of the One who works all things for your good and His glory.

The following is a prayer I wrote regarding unshakable trust that has been taken from my newest book, The Light of His Presence: Prayers to Draw You Near to the Heart of God. As our world convulses and our nation implodes, I have prayed this prayer for you... and for myself.

God of Creation, I bow before You, acknowledging Your greatness and Your glory. No one compares to You. No one is Your equal. I look at Your creation and marvel at the infinite power and wisdom that are Yours. Nothing is beyond Your reach. You are the One who "brings out the starry host one by one and calls them each by name. Because of [Your] great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing." You are the One who "has pitched a tent for the sun. . . . It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is hidden from its heat." "Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there."¹ There is nowhere in all the universe where You are not.

Surely Your arm "is not too short to save, nor [Your] ear too dull to hear."² Yet I confess that as I look around at the mess our world is in—when terrorists strike; when floods, fires, tornadoes, and storms ravage our land; when national leaders don't lead; when business leaders lie;

Due to COVID, the hosts of each of my speaking engagements since March have gone virtual. While I have missed interacting with people face to face, I have been able to fulfill my commitments by video. Added to my speaking schedule were several invitations that came with only a few weeks notice. One of the most special opportunities was to address the Jerusalem Prayer Breakfast by video. As I looked into the camera, in my mind's eye, I could see the faces of old and new friends who had been before me two years ago.

Between 300,000 and 400,000 people gathered on the National Mall in Washington, DC, on September 26 to pray. It was my privilege to begin Jonathan Cahn's prayer call, The Return, by challenging those present to look up! Jesus is still on the throne. And I prayed with my brother Franklin at his last prayer stop in front of the Capitol, pleading with God to hear all of our prayers, forgive all of our sin, and heal our land.

when political leaders put their own interests before the people's; when spiritual leaders contradict Your Word—I find myself asking, What's going on? Where are You?

The Enemy whispers lies, tempting me to think You are . . .

distracted, disengaged, distant, inattentive, inactive, impotent, outmaneuvered, outmoded, outclassed, unable, unaffected, and even unaware of our fear, our helplessness, our confusion, our outrage.

Why do You seem so small while our problems, disasters, and enemies seem so large?

So I ask, Almighty God, that You would strengthen my resolve to place my trust in You. Give me the courage to declare that even if "the kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord,"³ I will trust in You. If "the earth give[s] way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging,"⁴ I will trust in You. Though "nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall,"⁵ I will trust in You. When "the wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright,"⁶ I will trust in You. I trust You!

In the powerful, unshakable, unstoppable name of Jesus, Amen.

These are trusting times. Keep praying...

For His Glory,

The LIGHT of HIS PRESENCE Prayers to Draw You Near to the Heart of God

Now Available

Why is it that as soon as we bow our heads to pray, we start thinking of other things we need to do? How do we make time to pray in the middle of our busy lives? And how do we know what to say and how to say it?

Like many of us, Anne has struggled with prayer. Over the years, she discovered that writing out her prayers draws her into deeper, more intimate conversations with God. The Light of His Presence offers forty of these tender, honest prayers for real-life situations as an invitation to deepen your own prayer life through worship, confession, thanksgiving, and intercession. You'll be encouraged to lean more fully into God's promises through this power-packed devotional resource, which includes inspiring quotes from Christians throughout the ages and also has space to journal your own words to God. Anne gives readers a starting point for their own daily encounters with the One who listens to every heartache and who delights in giving every good gift out of His abundant grace and mercy.
