Yesterday, you had the chance to look at three different newspaper articles. You needed to pick out the key information about the article and find the key features of a newspaper article. Today, I would like you to use the attached template to think up some creative headlines for your article and answer the questions to begin putting together the basis of your newspaper article. Could you have a look at some real newspaper headlines for inspiration?

Boudiccan Revolt

Use this to help you plan your newspaper report. You should include a headline, introduction, body and conclusion.

Introduction

Use your research to help you write your introduction. Make sure the introduction is linked to the headline.

Who is the article about? _____

What has happened? _____
