BOYS TENNIS

The boys tennis team was back in action when hosting a very solid Logansport squad last night in an NCC showdown. Logan gave us fits at every spot last night except #1 singles. The boys came away with a 4-1 win, but was nearly a 5-0.

Jon Callane continued his high level play in domination of his opponent. Jon won by the score of 6-0, 6-1 and helped set the tone for the night!

Next to strike for the Kats was Jackson Richards. Jackson's opponent was very tricky, steady and had a defensive game style that could really frustrate an opponent. Jackson did not let this get to him and elevated his game throughout in his 6-4, 6-1 victory.

Sealing the victory with the third point, Pablo Ketterer won by the score of 6-2, 7-5. Pablo's opponent was a very athletic and quick kid that made Pablo earn his victory. I was proud of how Pablo slowed and settled down to take the victory.

The doubles would both prove to be battles. The # 2 doubles team of Nathanael Elkin and Taylor Duncan played lights out tennis in their opening set winning by the score of 6-0. Unfortunately the boys relaxed and got a little sloppy dropping the second. I was proud that they were able to refocus and re-energize themselves to take the final set by 6-0 also. Moments of great play!

The final point on the night was the #1 doubles team of Ty Lauderbaugh and Rajon Sellers. These guys played their heart out and showed moments of brilliance! Unfortunately they came up a little short in three sets. The final score of that match was 7-5, 6-7(5), 10-6. What a dog fight!

The JV was also victorious in their 4-3 win. The JV was stellar in their doubles efforts! Winners included the teams of Shade Chadwell/Drew Swain, Caleb Wallace/Jacob Walker, Lucas Cummings/Louis Gamez, and Bobby Wonnell/Karson Parrott. Way to go guys!

The varsity moved to 7-4 and the JV 6-4-1.

The teams will have their hands full this weekend when hosting state-ranked Delta and West Lafayette as well as a very talented and senior heavy Lebanon squad.

Good luck Kats!!!

GIRLS GOLF

We finished our regular season last night with a great night of golf. We lost to #10 Noblesville 167 -173 to finish our 9-hole matches 9-2.

After the match we were able to celebrate our three seniors for the hard work and dedication these last 3-4 years.

Senior Kiah Parrot finished with a 2-under 34, being the medalist again.

Senior Emily Fuller had a career round and shot a 45.

Senior Haley Salinas finished strong and had a 48.

Molly Mavrick shot a 46.

Elizabeth Lytle shot a 50.

Layla Andrysiak shot a 54.

Emma Hawkins shot a 66.

Kamryn Hahn had a 67.

This wraps up our regular season except for NCC Tournament. We head to Pebble Brook Golf Course on Monday to compete.

Until next tee time,

Coach Carpenter

VOLLEYBALL

The Kokomo Lady Kats traveled to Lewis Cass last night to face the Lady Kings. This game took fans and players alike through a rollercoaster of emotions.

The Lady Kings came out strong in the first set defeating Kokomo 25-16. Not to be outdone, Kokomo came back in the second set 25-11 with a total of zero hitting errors.

The Lady Kats struggled to maintain that energy in the third set and lost 25-18. With the fourth set came a revival of spirits with Kokomo winning 25-13.

While this may seem like excitement enough, the fifth set was a rollercoaster to rival the other four sets. The Lady Kats had dug themselves in to a deep hole in the beginning of the fifth set when Correll Heath went back to serve. The score was 14-9 with the Lady Kats down. After a strong run, the score read 14-14 with momentum on the Wildkats' side. After trading points back and forth, Kokomo took the final set 19-17.

To say this win was a team effort would be an understatement. Malori Nichols led the hitters with seventeen kills, ten digs, and four blocks. Jada Moore followed with twelve kills in her strongest performance of the season. Mae Brandon added eleven kills, two aces, and eleven digs, and Asijah Miller tallied six kills with ten digs to help bring the Lady Kats kills to 40.

But wait, there's more. Correll Heath basically demanded respect from the other team with five kills, two aces, two blocks, and 47 assists for the night. Quiet but deadly, Sarah Stonebraker added one kill, two aces, and thirteen digs, and the Lady Kats' number one defender, Jada-Claire Broomfield, kept 51 spikes from hitting Kokomo's side of the floor.

To make the night just a bit sweeter Kokomo JV Lady Kats also won clinching their first win of the season. They won 25- 23 and 25- 20.

But just because the Lady Kats earned a good win doesn't mean they get to rest. The varsity Lady Wildkats will be suiting up this weekend to play a tournament in Chesterton followed by games Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday the following week.

BOYS SOCCER

The Wildkats hosted non-conference foe Hamilton Southeastern and stumbled against the 9th-ranked Royals, dropping the matchup 6-0.

The loss brings the Wildkats record to 2-5-1 on the season.

The Wildkats stayed organized early, turning away several Royal shots until they conceded the first goal of the match for a 1-0 Royals lead. After a foul was committed in the penalty area, freshman goalkeeper Joey McConnell made a brilliant penalty kick save and the rebound shot to hold the Royals to a one goal advantage.

The Wildkats conceded once more before halftime, and the score stood 2-0 in favor of HSE.

Early in the second half, the Wildkats mounted an attack which resulted in a shot by senior forward and co-captain Anjelo Flores, but the Royals battled back, scoring two consecutive goals in the first three minutes of the second half to take the momentum completely and build a 4-0 lead.

The Royals tacked on two more goals to round out the scoring and finish with a 6-0 victory over the Wildkats.

The men of the match are senior midfielder co-captain Gabriel Araujo Lage and McConnell, who finished with 10 saves in the match.

The Wildkats host conference foe Logansport in a critical NCC West tilt Tuesday evening.

DID YOU KNOW?

McCutcheon's football team has one rushing touchdown and four passing touchdowns through three games this season. Kokomo's numbers are exactly the same.

McCutcheon has rushed for 396 yards this season in 102 attempts for a 3.9 yards per carry average.

Kokomo has run the ball 68 times for 122 yards for a 1.8 average.

The Mavericks' passing attack has completed 42.6% of their attempts (20-47) for 322 yards. The Mavs have four touchdowns through the air and three interceptions.

Kokomo has thrown the pigskin 57 times, completing 27 (47.4%), for 476 yards. The Kats have four touchdown passes and five picks.

McCutcheon's total offensive yardage thru three games is 718, split 396 (55.2%) on the ground and 322 (44.8%) from their passing game.

Kokomo has 598 yards of total offense. The Kats have run for 122 yards (20.5% of the offense) and have thrown for 476 (79.5%).

Kokomo is second in the NCC in passing yardage, trailing Jeff by 439 yards. McCutcheon is fourth.

Of the eight NCC teams that report their stats to MaxPreps, McCutcheon is sixth in rushing and Kokomo seventh.

McCutcheon's defense gave up five passing touchdowns last week to Jeff.

The Mavs' roster has 29 seniors, 23 juniors, and 22 sophomores.

Kokomo's 65-player rosters has 17 seniors, 14 juniors, 16 sophomores, and 18 freshmen.

McCutcheon will start eight seniors on offense and three juniors. Defensively, the Mavs will open with five seniors and six juniors.

Kokomo starts four seniors, six juniors, and a sophomore on offense, and they will begin with seven seniors, two juniors, and two sophs defensively.

Neither team will have a starter that plays both on offense and defense.

The Sagarin Ratings have McCutcheon as the fourth best team in the NCC, the 21st in Class 5A, and the 89th best in Indiana. Kokomo is ranked 6th best in the conference, the 28th best in the class, and the 134th best in the state.

John Harrell's website predicts a 35-31 McCutcheon win.

DID YOU KNOW?

McCutcheon's Mason Douglas will undoubtedly be the focal point of the Kokomo defense this week. The 6'2", 200-pound senior is the Mavs' quarterback and leading rusher. He has run the ball 42 times for 187 yards and passed the pigskin 47 times (completed 20) for 322 yards.

Mason Douglas, who has McCutcheon's only rushing touchdown this season, accounts for 71% of the Mavs' offense.

Mason Douglas had a 100-yard rushing effort against West Lafayette, carrying the ball 20 times for 121 yards. He also has had two 100-yard passing efforts, 132 against Guerin Catholic and 108 last week against Jeff.

Mason Douglas was primarily a linebacker last season for McCutcheon. He finished with 69 tackles.

Brayden Stall, a 6'0", 175-pound sophomore, had 24 rushes for 107 yards against Jeff last Friday. In McCutcheon's first two games, Stall combined for five carries for 13 yards.

Josh Garcia is the leading receiver for McCutcheon with eight catches for 165 yards. The 5'9", 160-pound junior has all four receiving touchdowns for the Mavs, including a 50-yarder last week in the game with Lafayette Jeff.

Will Griffin is the kicker for McCutcheon. He has made three field goals in three games, including 25- and a 33-yard boots last week.

Torian Smith leads the Wildkats in rushing with 66 yards on 13 carries. Most of the yards (62) came last week against Marion.

Andres Begne has completed 26 of his 53(49.1%) passes so far this season for 412 yards. The senior foreign exchange student had 256 of those yards against Plymouth.

The Wildkats have 27 receptions in their three games, 12 of them by Noa Wainscott. No other Wildkats has more than five. Nine of Wainscott's 12 catches came against Plymouth when he had receptions for 203 yards.

Kohl Beard leads the Kats in tackles with 17, one more than Nolan Hansen and two more than Tre' Hizer.

AROUND THE NCC

North Central Conference play began last Friday with Lafayette Jeff, Harrison, Tech, Marion, and Anderson winning their league openers. Jeff remained the lone unbeaten team in the conference, while Kokomo, McCutcheon, and Muncie Central will be searching for that elusive first victory of the season this coming weekend.

Jeff ran their record to 3-0 with a 47-12 win over Kokomo's opponent this week, McCutcheon. The Bronchos led 47-3 at halftime. Bishop Johnson led the Bronchos with six receptions for 156 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He also added his second return TD of the year with a 68-yard punt return score. Teammate Derrick Matthews also had six catches (for 113 yards). Maximus Grimes was an efficient 14-of-20 passing for 318 yards, while Thomas Hogan led the rushing with 78 yards on three trips. McCutcheon was led by Brayden Stall, who had 100 yards rushing on 24 carries. Mav quarterback Mason Douglas struggled to complete just 4 of 18 aerials.

Harrison also had a big first half in their 42-0 whitewashing of Logansport. The Raiders scored seven touchdowns in the first half, and there was a running clock after intermission. Omarion Dixon had just eight rushes in the contest for the Raiders, but gained 116 yards and three touchdowns as Harrison had 300 yards on the ground. Logansport's Josh Manfred had 71 yards rushing, and QB Garrett Barron was 8-for-18 passing for 49 yards.

Tech defeated Richmond 54-7. Jayden Elliott had his third straight 100-yard rushing effort with 146 yards on 20 carries with two touchdowns. The Titans defense held the Red Devils to 92 yards of total offense, 71 of which came on the ground. Wyatt Byrd, Richmond's star running back, had 41 yards rushing but needed 21 carries to get there. Red Devil quarterback Drew VanVleet connected on four of his eight passes for 21 yards.

Anderson put up 16 points in the first quarter and hung on for a 22-16 win over Muncie Central. The Tribe's Malachi Qualls intercepted a pass at his 2-yard line to thwart the final Bearcat drive. Qualls was also a star on offense, recording 64 receiving yards while adding a field goal and an extra point. The Indians eventual game-winning score came on a 69-yard pass with 2:10 left in the game. Muncie had their own workhorse in Shoka Griffin, who had 127 yards rushing, a touchdown, and a two-point conversion in the first half alone.

In action this week, Jeff will go cross county to face Harrison in the league's top game. Anderson will head to Marion to take on the Giants, while Logansport travels to Indianapolis to face the Titans of Arsenal Tech. Richmond and Muncie Central will square off in the Bearcats' back yard, and Kokomo takes State Road 26 over to Tippecanoe County to match up with the McCutcheon Mavericks.

In the Past

FOOTBALL

October 26, 2018

Anjelo Flores' 25-yard field goal with just under five minutes to play gave Kokomo a 22-20 lead over McCutcheon, and the Kats defense held on for the victory in the IHSAA Sectional.

After Flores' kick, the Mavericks drove to the Wildkats 19-yard-line, where they had a yard to make a first down. The Mavs failed on a third-down try, and the Kats stuffed another run by McCutcheon on fourth down with 38 seconds left to preserve the win.

The first part of the game was just as exciting with the two teams alternating leads with big plays. Kokomo's touchdowns came on three passing plays, including a 72-yarder and another from 44 yards out. McCutcheon also had three TDs through the air, two of them over 60 yards.

Kokomo's Levi Hrabos connected on just nine of 26 attempts for 191 yards, but delivered three TDs. Steven Edwards was the primary target, grabbing four passes for 120 yards and two scores.

Peyton Williams had better numbers with a 16-of-27 performance for 275 yards and three scores. Garrett Maish hauled in seven passes for 146 yards to lead the receiving corps.

Jeremy Baker had 94 yards rushing for Kokomo, while Adam Jeffries was tops for the Mavs with 31. Jeffries was the running back that failed to convert on two occasions in the fourth.
