In-Demand Graduates

As an RIT graduate, you'll benefit from one of the highest outcomes rates of any comprehensive university in the country. At 3,400 organizations strong, our employer network straddles the globe, and U.S. News consistently recognizes RIT's career service office as one of the best in the nation. You'll have exactly the expert support you need to embark on your career.

Experience is Everything

Relevant, real-world, and wide-ranging experiences place RIT students and alumni at the helm of leading change and innovation.

We've become experts in experiential education because we've seen how powerful and transformative it is. For over 100 years, the thousands of positive outcomes our students have experienced have provided ample proof of its value.

Last year 4,500 students completed 6,200 co-op assignments at nearly 3,400 companies and nonprofits. That's countless hours of experience, relationship-building, networking, and applied learning.

In addition to co-op, you can apply your knowledge through internships, study abroad, work abroad, and undergraduate research.

You'll graduate with a resume, real-world exposure, and the confidence that comes from knowing you've got what it takes to be successful. Our graduates land great jobs because they learn by doing.

For programs in business, communication, art and design, and the sciences, one or two coop blocks is required or strongly encouraged.

Here is an example of a four-year program.

TRANSFER ADMISSION OVERVIEW

As one of the world's leading technological institutions, RIT is a vibrant, connected community that offers transfer students an incredible array of academic programs; a diverse, committed, and accessible faculty; sophisticated facilities; an unusual emphasis on experiential learning; and outstanding outcomes!

Recognizing that not all transfer students have the same goals, objectives, or journeys, RIT offers transfer students two distinct tracks.

Traditional Track	Flex Track
Ideal for students wishing to enter a specific major	Ideal for working adults, veterans and active military, and students with many credits from one or more institutions
Work closely with an academic advisor and faculty mentor to ensure alignment with career or graduate school plans and goals	Work one-on-one with an advisor to design your own program
Transfer credits aligned to degree requirements	Flexibility in how transfer credits are applied
Generally completed on-campus although some classes may be available online	May be completed online or blended (face-to-face and online)
Receive credit for work experience, military experience, and other life experience	Receive credit for work experience, military experience, and other life experience
Pursue multiple paid co-op experiences, internships, research, entrepreneurship projects, and other experiential learning programs	Pursue paid co-op experiences, internships, research, entrepreneurship projects, and other experiential learning programs. In fact, students must complete one experiential learning project or program to graduate
Financial aid and scholarships available	Financial aid and scholarships available
Earn a bachelor's degree in a specific major	Earn a bachelor's degree in Applied Arts and Sciences

Transfer Admission Checklist Application

- ✓ Complete and submit/sign your application by using the RIT Online Application or the Common Application
- √ Pay the $65 application fee
- √ Request official academic transcripts from all colleges you have attended (even if only one class)
- √ If you have completed fewer than 30 semester hours (45 quarter hours) at the time of your application, a final high school transcript is required. SAT/ ACT scores are optional.
- ✓ A portfolio is required for admission into our School of Art, School of Design, and BFA in Film and Animation. A portfolio is not required for admission to our School of Photographic Arts and Sciences unless an applicant is seeking transfer credit for completed course work in photography.

Application Timelines

For best consideration for admission and scholarships—and because many programs fill to capacity—we strongly recommend that applicants file their materials on or before

February 1 for fall or summer admission

November 1 for spring admission.

Fall applicants to the Physician Assistant program must have all application materials in by December 1. Applications for transfer admission will be accepted after those dates and reviewed on a rolling, space-available basis.

Transferring Credits to RIT

- A transfer credit evaluation is completed as part of the application process.
- Credit is granted by the academic departments for course work that is related to your intended program, if it is taken at a regionally accredited college or university. Usually a grade of "C" or better is required for transfer credit to be awarded.

 There is no limit on the number of credit hours that can be awarded; however, a recipient of a two-year associate degree from another accredited university cannot receive more than 60 semester credits for that degree.

EMAIL: ADMISSIONS@RIT.EDU

• A minimum of 30 semester credit hours needs to be completed at RIT in the college granting the degree for associate and baccalaureate degree candidates. A matriculated undergraduate student's year level is determined by the number of credit hours the student has earned according to the scale below. (This does not include course work in progress.)

Year Level	1- to 4-Year Programs	5-Year Programs
1	0-26	0-26
2	27-55	27-55
3	56-84	56-75
4	85-above	76-95
5		96-above

RIT is a kaleidoscope of curious minds; a profoundly inclusive and collaborative community of engaged, socially conscious, and intellectually curious problem solvers. Through an intentional blending of technology, the arts, and design, we find new and meaningful ways to move the world forward. We provide exceptional individuals with a wide range of academic pathways, including expansive experiential learning opportunities, a leading research program, and internationally recognized education and access services for deaf and hard-of-hearing students.
