"I Will Make You Fishers of Men
by Elaine Kirkpatrick

1. Jesus went a walking, walking by the sea. He saw Simon Peter, and he said, "Com follow me." "I will make you fishers of men, fishers of men, fishers of men. I will make you fishers of men if you'll come follow me."
2. Jesus now is calling, calling you and me. Jesus now is calling, saying "Come and follow me." "I will make you fishers of men, fishers of men, fishers of men. I will make you fishers of men if you'll come follow me."

The flowers are placed on God's altar by Joanne Stastny for all of God's blessings.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION AT TRINITY:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated in this congregation in the belief and confidence that in this Sacrament, Christ is truly present, giving us His body and blood, in, with and under the forms of bread and wine (1 Corinthians 10:16, Mark 14:22-24). As Christians (and specifically as Missouri Synod Lutherans), we believe that it is through Jesus Christ alone that we have the hope of eternal life. We believe that we are sinners in need of forgiveness and that in the Lord's Supper, God gives that forgiveness, strengthens our faith, and strengthens our union with Him and each other (Romans 3:23, Matthew 26:26-28). As Christians, we also believe that as we come to the Lord's Supper, we are making a commitment to amend our sinful lives with the help of the Holy Spirit (2 Timothy 2:19, Romans 8:6).

GUESTS AND VISITORS: Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed or confirmed, or who hold to a doctrinal position differing from that of this congregation and the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). At Trinity we practice Close Communion as adopted by our Synod in Convention.

ALCOHOL CONTENT IN WINE: The "red" wine in the chalice and in the outer rings of the communion cup tray contains alcohol. The "white" wine in the center of the tray is de-alcoholized wine (alcohol nearly 100% removed). You may use the red or white wine in the tray but please remember that the chalice has only "red" wine with normal alcohol content.

Q: Typical question asked by visitors: Can only LCMS members take communion at Trinity Burr Ridge?

A: The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod has never understood or applied the historic practice of close[d] Communion in such a way as to mean that only LCMS members are permitted to commune at LCMS altars. The official position of the Synod is that not only are members of other Lutheran churches with whom we are in altar and pulpit fellowship invited to commune with us, but also that in certain extraordinary cases of pastoral care and in emergencies members of churches not in fellowship with us may be given Communion. The Synod stated, for example, in 1986 "that pastors and congregations of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod continue to abide by the practice of close Communion, which includes the necessity of exercising responsible pastoral care in extraordinary situations and circumstances" (1986 Res. 3-08 "To Maintain Practice of Close Communion"). Please see www.lcms.org for more information.

Gluten Free Communion Wafers Available Upon Request ~ Please request from Pastor Bob at least 10 minutes before the service.

But Luther's, like, so hard to read.

I know, I know. Luther's writing is a little hard to swallow all at once. It's like those huge vitamin horse pills your mom reminds you to take every time she calls you—you know they'll make you healthier, but you can't bring yourself to take them.

Luther packed into readable, digestible pieces, interspersed with personal contemporary references by author RJ Grunewald.

So take your vitamins. Read Martin Luther. Make your mom proud.

But no more. Reading Romans with Luther is like a gummy vitamin: it's all the goodness of FEAR NOT, NEW GODPARENT!

Amid the screaming of the newborn, the hubbub of visitors, and the onslaught of oohs and ahhs, the proud new parents find a moment to ask you to be their child's godparent.

Commence panic. And joy. And panic again.

You're not going to take this responsibility lightly. You're prepared to be the best godparent this world has ever seen. But where to start? You need a Baptism gift—and stat. Something that says, "I'm ready to pray for you, to help you grow, and to support your parents in teaching you the faith." Something that the baby won't outgrow in a month. Something that she can start using as soon as you gift it. Something that has spaces for handwritten milestones, a collection of simple prayers, and colorful illustrations of Bible stories.

It's your lucky day! We've got just the gift for you.

Now, how many times have you actually thought about the words in the Lord's Prayer? And how many times have you said the Lord's Prayer with your congregation, letting your mind wander to thoughts of after-church lunch plans, the carpool schedule for the week, the overwhelming amount of homework you have to do today . . .

Break the cycle. Learn to pray this prayer from Jesus in the way it's meant to be prayed—with confidence and joy.

Step into the world of Narnia...

. . . or at least into the mind of the man who created it.

Before C. S. Lewis dreamed up faith-inspired fiction about majestic lions, snowy wonderlands, and a magical wardrobe, he was an atheist.

Shocked? Me too.

So how did a passionate atheist become one of Christianity's most beloved authors and fiercest apologists? You'll have to dive into his world to find out.

You know the story—boy meets girl, both fall madly in love with absolutely no differences in morals or beliefs. That's, like, every romance story ever, right?

So what happens when boy meets girl, but there's a gaping disconnect between his and her beliefs? He's a Christian, she's not. He's the principal of a Lutheran school, she's a single mom. He goes to church every Sunday, she eats waffles with her kids at home.

It's a story about the messiness of relationships—the differences that exist, the conflicts that arise, and the sweet resolutions that can happen when God works in two people.

So, yeah, it's a romance story, but it's not as simple as the formula above might suggest. Nothing in real life ever is.

Sola what?

The solae are just some of the fancy-schmancy Latin words that get thrown around in Lutheran theology. It's easy to gloss over the italicized words you don't know in a text—because, let's face it, there are a lot of them sometimes—but the solae have real meaning for us in the here and now. And so does every other aspect of Lutheranism.

Lutheranism is just about 500 years old, but its message is constant and timeless: Jesus saves by grace alone. That's what the solae mean—we are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, and we come by this knowledge through Scripture alone.

Join author Alvin Schmidt as he breaks down the solae and some texts from the days of the Reformation so that the average Joe and Jane can understand what makes a Lutheran a Lutheran.

Did you just cringe after you read each of those words?

Stop. Deep breath. We can do this.

Let's talk about sex: how it permeates every aspect of our culture, how secular views differ from Christian beliefs, how everyone avoids talking about the tough issues . . . and why that's a problem.

So don't shy away. Let's talk.
