BAPTISMS

Father Mike's Homiletter – June 21, 2020 The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy Father's Day! To all who fill a fatherly role in the lives of young people – fathers, grandfathers, uncles, teachers, scout leaders, tutors - you help them grow into responsible, mature adulthood, and we are all grateful for your good example, which benefits the entire community.

It takes strength to stand for Gospel values in our society today, and our reading from Jeremiah tells us it was the same in Old Testament times as well. The messages Jeremiah conveyed from God were not comfortable – and thus, not well received, to say the least. Those he made uncomfortable were looking for an easy solution – how about we kill the messenger? Jeremiah is weary of being suspected and assaulted, having to be on the alert at all times. He wanted to give up, but he knows the Lord is with him, and that over the long haul, God will be victorious. That knowledge not only gives him the strength to go on with his mission, it actually impels him to keep doing what God is asking of him.

In Romans, Paul reminds us that when Adam sinned, all mankind shared in his punishment - death. But, Paul says, when Jesus died for us, the grace of His sacrifice was so great, it overflowed to redeem all mankind. His love made it possible for all of us to be saved. Jesus assumed our humanity so He could share His divinity with us. We need to live up to His image of us. What a frightening ideal!

But in our Gospel, Jesus tells us not to fear. We need not fear those who wait for us to slip up, the people who can make fun of us, the people who can get ahead of us in life's races to the top, the people who can punish us in this world. They can only hurt us for a time. We should be focused on the next world – the punishment which will affect both body and soul, for eternity. Jesus explains how much the Father loves us – and knows us. We are worth more than all the sparrows in the world, and while God knows and values each of them, He values us more. And He knows us – every hair on our heads is numbered says Jesus, meaning that God knows us better than we know ourselves. All God wants is for us to be faithful to him on earth, acknowledge Him here, so that He can acknowledge us in the next world.

I think Jesus is warning us about fear because fear can often bring out the worst in us and threaten our ability to clearly and joyfully acknowledge God as the center of our lives. Fear can narrow our focus, have us thinking only of ourselves and what matters to us in the moment. We get angry, we strike back, we are selfish, we blame others for what is not their fault – like Jeremiah's so-called friends did. Jesus sees that fear can make us less than God intended us to be. Pope Francis has said that fear can make us cruel. It is useless – and drains us of the energy we need to be a positive force in our world. Ultimately, fear can kill the soul.

Do we recognize fear when we see it? How does fear show itself? Anger? Selfishness? Put downs of others? Timidity? Arrogance? Hiding in a corner and keeping quiet? Insisting on doing a favor for another who does not want it? When we act this way, what is really driving us? What are we really afraid of? Loss of material goods? Loss of authority? Loss of prestige? The current Covid-19 crisis certainly demonstrates how quickly life can change without any action- or blame - on our part. Is it worth being afraid over material goods? Does it matter what our neighbor thinks about our new car, our style, our title? Many times, we will find our fear is really a fear of not being the person we know we ought to be, the person we want to be, but sometimes aren't.

How to conquer fear? A little at a time – by doing small things we know we should. Keep our criticism to ourselves. Pay a compliment or give credit to another, rather than minimize their accomplishment. Be gentle with others. Look at the situation from their perspective – and take the trouble to think about what their circumstances may be. Ask respectful questions. Be magnanimous – an overlooked fruit of the Holy Spirit – it is the quality of being noble of mind and heart, generous in forgiveness, above revenge or resentment. You will be surprised at how good it will make you feel. Courageous. Fear-less.

Scripture: 1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13; 2nd Reading: Romans 5:12-15; Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

Food for Thought...

Gabrielle Bossis was a Frenchwoman who was both a nurse and a famous playwright and actor, at different times during her life. While living in the world, she had a rich spiritual life, revealed after her death in her journals. She saw Christ's message as calling us to see Him in every person and every circumstance:

"You were touched when you read that I was in the Gospels, hidden in the sacrament of the Word. But how much more I am present in the sacrament of human life!... Hunt for me everywhere! I'll let myself be captured with such joy! And when you have found me, give me to others. There are people I am waiting to reach only through you."

Prayer to Overcome Racism

A Reflection on George Floyd from Bishop Joseph Perry

What a disturbing video capture, in view of the world's eyes, of George Floyd detained by a police officer kneeling on his neck till life was crushed from him; a frightening emblem of relations white-and-black reinforced by similar atrocities embedded in memory of recent days; lest we forget other black men, young and old, grandfathers, great grandfathers, great-great grandfathers, ancestors whose necks were locked in chains during the Middle passage, then by ropes from a tree, a litany of men our brothers demeaned and emasculated. Is this the message of America towards its black citizens? Is this the fundamental assessment of whites towards blacks? Is this the closeted attitude of a nation calling itself free towards blacks and other groups this nation throws to the sides? And, so we pray, and we pray some more, and we pray still, hoping for deliverance in this vale of tears.

MARY, FRIEND AND MOTHER TO ALL,
through your Son, God has found a way
to unite himself to every human being,
called to be one people,
sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on
your Son,
seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect
one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from
your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil
of racism
and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son,
so that prejudice and animosity
will no longer infect our minds or hearts
but will be replaced with a love
that respects
the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts:
pray for us.

Amen.

Thank you

Thank you to all those who have been volunteering for the Re-Opening of Immaculate Conception last weekend!!
We are extremely grateful for your time and dedication!!

VOLUNTEERS are still needed.

We do not want our current volunteers to be overextended and worn out.
Please contact Natalie to volunteer by email ( nhennigan@icparish.org ) or phone (847-433-0130) and leave a message if you are interested.

The Archdiocese, working in conjunction with the Governor's office and the Illinois Department of Public Health, has asked that our volunteers not include anyone over the age of 65, or those with underlying health issues, unless they have communicated the desire to volunteer and understand their risk.

We have had some parishioners express an interest in volunteering, who are over the age of 65, and we would ask simply that you consult your primary care physician before contacting Natalie at nhennigan@icparish.org or 847-433-0130 ext. 103.
