THANK YOU!

Contributors to UB Law School, July 1, 2006 – June 30, 2007

Thanks to our alumni and friends, the momentum at UB Law continues, with another record-breaking Annual Fund year. We are pleased to announce that the 2006-07 Annual Fund raised $924,814, exceeding our goal of $900,000. Over 23 percent of our alumni, or nearly one out of every four, gave to the Annual Fund, making our alumni participation rate one of the highest among law schools across the nation. And 265 individuals gave an annual gift of $1,000 or more. Thank you for your support!

The Law School is most grateful to each and every individual and entity that has made a gift during the last fiscal year. Gifts to the Law School support a wide range of academic programs, scholarships, services and facility improvements that make UB Law an exceptional place for learning and provide special opportunities for students, faculty and alumni. Every gift of every size has helped make these accomplishments possible, and for that we are deeply appreciative.

With gratitude, the Law School recognizes those individuals, law firms, corporations, foundations and other organizations that have made a gift during the last fiscal year: July 1, 2006, through June 30, 2007. Gifts, including those to the Annual Fund, specific programs, endowment funds, capital funds, gifts of cash, in-kind donations and appreciated stock are acknowledged with sincere thanks.

Though every effort has been made to ensure our Honor Roll's accuracy, we apologize for any inadvertent errors or omissions it may contain. If you have any questions or comments, please contact: Karen Kaczmarek, Assistant Dean for Development, 409 O'Brien Hall, Buffalo, NY 14260-1100. Phone (716) 645-6429. Fax: (716) 645-3646. Annual Fund volunteers 2006 - 07

UB Law School is very fortunate to have many dedicated volunteers who help ensure the success of our Annual Fund year after year. Thanks to their efforts, the 2006-07 Annual Fund was a resounding success. We extend our sincerest thanks and gratitude to our Annual Fund Chair, Pamela Davis Heilman '75, for her leadership, commitment and enthusiasm.

The Law School is also most grateful to the members of our Annual Fund Leadership Committee, who volunteered their time to prepare personal notes to friends, former classmates, and colleagues. These special volunteers helped to promote increased giving among alumni and encouraged donors to join the UB Law School annual giving societies. Thank you!

Many thanks also to our many alumni who participated in our Fall Phonathon. Many of our loyal donors greatly appreciate the opportunity to speak personally with a UB Law graduate once a year. These personal phone calls inspire many donors to give generously. Congratulations go to George Collins '84, who had the highest number of pledges in a single night, and to William Reich '74, who raised the highest dollar amount in a single night.

Traditionally the Law School also encourages fund-raising efforts among classes celebrating reunions. This focus has helped to substantially increase alumni gifts to the Annual Fund in recent years. We are very grateful to all of the volunteers who helped with their 2006-07 class gifts in honor of their reunion years.

Again, thank you to all of our terrific volunteers. We could not do it without you!

A legacy behind them

Class of 2007 gift bolsters scholarship fund

Closing in on the end of three years at the Law School, members of UB Law's Class of 2007 knew all too well what it felt like to write all those tuition checks. So it is only fitting that their class gift to the school will go to help the next generation of law students meet the costs of legal education.

In "the most successful campaign yet," according to Jill M. Domagala, assistant director of development programs, the class had a 42 percent participation rate and, including a matching gift from the school, raised $5,619 for the Graduating Class Gift Scholarship. That fund grows with each class gift, and generates scholarship dollars for multiple current students.

"We try to encourage the committee to stick with it and help these graduating students get into the habit of giving," Domagala said. "I think it is a really nice gesture for the graduating class to give back to the current students."

Jacia Smith '07, a student assistant in UB Law's development office, had the challenge of motivating her fellow third-years to become philanthropists. Smith, who served as president of the Student Bar Association in her third year of Law School, assembled a committee of 10 people and said their goal was for each to enlist 10 classmates. Some, she said, came up with an even longer list.

From a bar night to kick off the campaign to the wrap-up event held in the Law Library, Smith said the effort entailed "a lot of e-mails, a lot of face-to-face in class, to encourage people to know how important it was to give. We had people who were part of clubs letting people in those clubs know what it was about. We got a lot of word-of-mouth."

The knowledge that the money raised would go for financial assistance, she said, helped in the pitch. "We all wish we had more scholarships," she said. "And we stressed the importance of giving, in that it helps the Law School to continue to expand the curriculum and bring in new professors, making the school one that we can continue to be proud of."

"Most people are not averse to giving," said Smith, who now is employed by the law firm Harris Beech in Rochester, N.Y. "But you just have to give the benefits and pitch it to them in a way they can relate to. As alumni, giving is important to us. We just had to put that information out there that it is not just people asking for money—there is a good cause behind it."
