Union brings battle over the Shore Hotel to the City Council

BY KATE CAGLE
Daily Press Staff Writer

A Hollywood agent trying to open a new restaurant inside the Shore Hotel has become wrapped up in a years-long conflict between the hotel worker's union and the hotel's owners. The latest battlefront is an alcohol permit for the restaurant called Avery.

On Tuesday, the City Council will decide whether to deny a conditional use permit for Avery after Unite Here Local 11 filed an appeal citing ongoing litigation between the Shore Hotel and the Coastal Commission.

The Shore and the Coastal Commission are scheduled to go to trial this summer over concerns the hotel did not provide adequate information during the permitting process and is thus operating illegally. Without a valid permit, the Shore could face millions of dollars in fines or be completely shutdown until meeting certain conditions.

In February, the Shore agreed to pay $100,000 in back pay to three workers as part of a separate settlement with Unite Here. Workers complained they were disciplined and then fired after testifying at the Coastal Commission that the hotel was violating its permits.

WOODLAWN

22 Santa Monica College students in a Photo 5 class created an exhibition — "Second Day Shoot" — out of a class exercise on photography and Adobe Lightroom software, typically held on the second day of the semester at the Woodlawn Cemetery and Mausoleum (1847 14th St.). The photo exhibit, sponsored by Woodlawn, is currently on view in the mausoleum, and will be highlighted in a Memorial Day event on May 29.

Helicopter service takes Santa Monica festival-goers to Coachella from SMO

BY KATE CAGLE
Daily Press Staff Writer

A tech start-up known as the "Uber for helicopters" has launched a new service at the Santa Monica Airport, beginning last weekend with quick trips to the Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival.

The New York based on-demand helicopter service, Blade, is also brokering trips to Palm Springs, Ojai, Santa Barbara and San Diego in under an hour.

"There is no such thing as rush hour in the sky," is Blade's official tagline.

A seat on a helicopter to Thermal or Palm Springs ran for about $700 this weekend each way. Outside of the two weekends when they are providing regular service to Coachella, Blade will not schedule regular flights out of SMO. Instead, flights are booked on demand through the Blade app.

The app allows you to "crowd source" a flight on your own schedule and see if anyone wants to join you. Blade's marketing and communications officer Caitlin Deering explained customers buy and sell extra seats for credit toward future flights.

Pico Blvd.
38th Annual SMC Student Photo Show April 18-29

Santa Monica College (SMC) will present the 38th Annual SMC Student Photography Exhibit April 18-29 in two locations: the SMC Photography Gallery and SMC's Pete & Susan Barrett Art Gallery.

Gallery receptions will be held in both locations from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, April 22.

On display will be 167 prints created by 92 SMC student photographers. The high-caliber works range from fine art to portraiture to still life and beyond.

"This annual exhibition is an exciting time for us," said SMC Photography and Fashion Department Chair Ford Lowcock. "We had 13 photo faculty members come in on Saturday, March 18, to jury this year's submitted work - approximately 1,200 print and 450 Photo 1 entries - which took 7 hours! And our gallery reception is always a fun event, with about 500 people coming through both galleries."

Selected images have been awarded special recognition by SMC Superintendent/President Dr. Kathryn Jeffery and a variety of other jurors, including the full-time faculty of the SMC Photography Department.

The SMC Photography Gallery is located on the second floor of Drescher Hall on the SMC main campus at 1900 Pico Blvd., Santa Monica. Photo gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

SMC's Pete & Susan Barrett Art Gallery is located at the SMC Performing Arts Center on Santa Monica Boulevard at 11th Street, Santa Monica. Art gallery hours are noon to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

For additional information, call (310) 434-4289.

Santa Monica Soft Pedalers Tour de Libraries:
A Bike Ride Excursion for Seniors

Santa Monica seniors, here's your chance to get fit, learn some handy safety tips, and get to the know the library system better. On Wednesday, April 19, Santa Monica Bike Center, Santa Monica Public Library, Santa Monica Commission for the Senior Community, and local non-profit Sustainable Streets team up to host the Santa Monica Soft Pedalers Tour de Libraries, a bicycle tour of Santa Monica Public Library's five locations.

Senior citizens are disproportionately affected by traffic-related injuries and deaths in Santa Monica. In a landscape that can be terrifying at any age, strength in numbers will pave the way for a safer and healthier streetscape. This Soft Pedalers bicycle ride empowers our senior community to engage in safe and smart active transportation.

The tour includes a "tri-shaw" for two disabled seniors to join the ride. To register for the "tri-shaw" use contact information above. Bring your own bike and helmet. Santa Monica Bike Center will also provide bikes for registered participants who don't own a bike of their own.

Santa Monica Public Library presents
Soundwaves: Bonnie Barnett

The Santa Monica Public Library will present vocal improviser Bonnie Barnett and her band on April 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Main Library's Martin Luther King Jr. Auditorium at 601 Santa Monica Blvd.

Barnett is a longtime participant in the Los Angeles new music community who has performed at the REDCAT and the Eagle Rock Center for the Arts, among other venues, and co-hosts Trilogy, broadcast Wednesday nights 9-10PM on KXLU 88.9.

Soundwaves is a monthly concert series presenting artists who appear on the DRAM (Database of Recorded American Music) streaming service. The Santa Monica Public Library is the first public library to offer this service to its cardholders.

This event is free and open to the public. Seating is limited and on a first-arrival basis. The Santa Monica Public Library is wheelchair accessible. For special disabled services, call Library Administration at (310) 458-8606 at least one week prior to event.

Green celebrities

Dear EarthTalk:

Who are some of the greener movie stars out there today and what are they doing to fight for the planet?

Stacey DiGiorno,
Chevy Chase, MD

WHILE A HANDFUL OF HOLLYWOOD

A-listers — Robert Redford, Meryl Streep and Ed Begley Jr., to name a few — have been actively campaigning for the environment for decades, a new wave of green celebrities is using star power to help convince millions of fans around the world to live greener lifestyles and speak up for environmental protections and climate mitigation.

Leonardo DiCaprio continues to distinguish himself as one of the greenest stars out there. He started the Leonardo DiCaprio Foundation in 1998 with the mission of protecting the world's last wild places, and has since then channeled millions of dollars in grants toward various direct action initiatives and awareness-raising campaigns all over the world. His 2007 documentary, The 11th Hour, features interviews with a variety of leaders and luminaries in documenting the grave environmental problems facing the planet's life systems, while his 2016 film, Before The Flood, focuses on the environmental impacts of global warming on different locales around the world. Last December, DiCaprio met with then-President-Elect Trump to discuss the importance of the U.S. remaining committed to reducing greenhouse gas emissions and honoring its commitments as part of 2015's Paris climate agreement.

Another big star that's gone green is Arnold Schwarzenegger. The Terminator earned his environmental cred during his six years as California's governor when he shepherded legislation through a hostile state legislature establishing the most stringent emissions reduction mandates in the nation, and issued executive orders to up the energy efficiency requirements for existing and new state government buildings. He also helped pave the way for the introduction of automobiles powered by emissions-free fuel cells by building the beginnings of a hydrogen refueling network across California. Schwarzenegger has been outspoken about the need for state and local governments to take the lead in the battle against global warming — a message that never resonated more clearly than now with climate-denier Donald Trump in the White House.

Mark Ruffalo may have played The Hulk in Marvel Comics' Avengers movies for good reason: He's pretty green—and resource extractors don't like him when he's angry. The A-list actor is outspoken against the environmental and health ills of fracking, a technique that recovers gas and oil from shale rock by drilling down into the Earth to direct a high-pressure water mixture at the rock to release the gas inside. He founded the non-profit Water Defense in 2009, and later went on to join engineering professor Mark Jacobson, banker and solar executive Marco Krapels and filmmaker/activist Josh Fox to launch The Solutions Project, which aims to help move the U.S. to 100 percent renewable energy. He has also been active alongside the Standing Rock Sioux in fighting the Dakota Access Pipeline in North Dakota.

Some other movie stars for the environment include Edward Norton, Brad Pitt, Cate Blanchett, Daryl Hannah, Pierce Brosnan, Charlize Theron, Matt Dillon, Matt Damon, Julia Roberts, Will Ferrell, Tom Hanks and George Clooney. At least you can feel better about going to the movies now that you know the stars on the screen are using some of the money they are making at your expense to help the planet.

New Medicare help for people with chronic illness

IF YOU HAVE MEDICARE, THERE'S A good chance you have two or more chronic conditions such as arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, or dementia.

Two-thirds of the 57 million Americans with Medicare have two or more chronic illnesses. Having multiple chronic conditions increases the risk of death and functional limitations, decreases quality of life, and leads to higher health care spending.

Managing chronic diseases can be difficult, to say the least. You often face multiple visits to one or more doctors; you must take multiple drugs at different times on different days; you have to make extra trips for tests. It can all be a bit overwhelming.

At Medicare, we recognize the challenges you have in managing your conditions, working with your health care providers, and trying to stay healthy. Two years ago, we added a new benefit called Chronic Care Management, or CCM. This program provides additional payments to doctors and other providers to help you live with chronic disease.

For example, through the CCM benefit your primary-care doctor will help you keep track of your medical history, medications, and all the different health care providers you see. You'll receive a comprehensive care plan that outlines your treatments and goals. Additionally, you'll have 24-hour-a-day, 7-day-a-week access to health care professionals for urgent needs from the comfort of your home.

To be eligible for CCM services, you must be enrolled in Medicare or in both Medicare and Medicaid. And you must have two or more chronic diseases that are expected to last at least 12 months and place you at significant risk of death, acute exacerbation/decompensation, or functional decline.

Other examples of chronic conditions include, but are not limited to, asthma, atrial fibrillation, autism spectrum disorder, chronic kidney disease, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, depression, heart failure, hepatitis, hypertension (high blood pressure), infectious diseases such as HIV/AIDS, ischemic heart disease, osteoporosis, schizophrenia and other psychotic disorders, and stroke.

SPECIFIC CCM SERVICES MAY INCLUDE:

- At least 20 minutes a month of chronic care management services;
- Personalized assistance from a dedicated health care professional who will work with you to create your care plan;
- Coordination of care between your pharmacy, specialists, testing centers, hospitals, and more;
- Phone check-ins between visits to keep you on track;
- 24/7 emergency access to a health care professional;
- Expert assistance with setting and meeting your health goals.

How much do CCM services cost? You'll be responsible for the usual Medicare Part B cost-sharing and may have a deductible or coinsurance/co-pay. However, many people with Medicare have Medigap supplemental insurance that provides wraparound coverage of CCM cost-sharing.

Chronic Care Management means having a continuous relationship with a dedicated health care professional who knows you and your history, gives personal attention, and helps you make the best choices for your health. CCM gives you and your loved ones the assistance you need to manage your chronic conditions so you can spend more time doing the things you enjoy.

Ask your doctor about Chronic Care Management and get the connected care you need.

For more information, call 1-800-MEDICARE or visit: go.cms.gov/ccm.

GREG DILL is Medicare's regional administrator for Arizona, California, Hawaii, Nevada, and the Pacific Territories. You can always get answers to your Medicare questions by calling 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227).

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF PROPOSED FY 2017-18 ONE-YEAR ACTION PLAN ALLOCATING FEDERAL CDBG AND HOME FUNDS

Notice is hereby given that the City of Santa Monica has developed the Proposed FY 2017-18 One-Year Action Plan. The One-Year Action Plan is submitted annually to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). It delineates the City's specific projects and activities for one-year use of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and HOME funds in order to meet the City's overall housing and community development needs as specified in the 2015-19 Consolidated Plan adopted by City Council and submitted to HUD in May 2015. The City is seeking community comments on the Proposed One-Year Action Plan.

Copies of the Proposed FY 2017-18 One-Year Action Plan are now available to the public for a 30-day community review period ending April 24, 2017. Copies are available at City Hall and on the web at <http://www.smgov.net/hsd> or you may contact the Human Services Division, 1685 Main Street, Room 212, Santa Monica, CA 90401, telephone (310) 458-8701; TDD (310) 458-8696. Please send your written comments to humanservices@smgov.net or to the above address by April 24, 2017. You may also present your comments verbally at the City Council meeting on May 9, 2017.

“Essentially, you can open your app - it takes 3 minutes - put all your information in and the helicopter will arrive within 20 minutes of booking,” Deering said. “You don’t even have to talk to anybody.”

While Deering declined to describe their target clientele, Blade advertises itself as a premium service. Over the weekend, the company set up a lounge for customers heading to Coachella sponsored by the tequila company Casa Dragones. Passengers received a glass of tequila with a single hand-cut cloudless spherical ice cube (yes, artisan ice is now a thing) when they arrived. A team of flight attendants takes care of the traveler’s bag - which has a maximum weight of 25 pounds.

“The experience starts as soon as you get to the lounge, it’s not just the helicopter flight,” Deering said.

It’s not clear what impact this new service may have on airport traffic. Year over year, helicopter operations are down 36 percent at the airport, with 149 flights in February 2017, according to the most recent monthly operations report. Helicopters accounted for just three percent of total operations.

Anti-airport activists fear the new service flies in the face of the City’s short-term goal of reducing airport traffic by shortening the runway and long term goal of shutting down SMO for good.

As for the City, leaders were caught off guard by the news of the service on Good Friday. City Manager Rick Cole told the Daily Press Friday afternoon he was trying to get Blade’s president on the phone to learn more about their business. Cole believes Blade at a minimum needs a business license to operate in Santa Monica and may need a commercial operating permit.

“You would absolutely think that would be worked out before they took off, but on the other hand they are operating like Lyft and Uber,” Cole said. “These are new companies operating in the grey area of the law.”

Cole says the company is pushing the envelope on charter operations. Blade serves as a liaison between commercial pilots who presumably have permission to fly out of SMO and passengers. When it comes to current law, the fact Blade does not usually schedule flights - but merely facilitates them - may be an important distinction. Cole declined to comment on how the service fits into the City’s overall goals for the airport.

CRIME WATCH

BY DAILY PRESS STAFF

Crime Watch is culled from reports provided by the Santa Monica Police Department. These are arrests only. All parties are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

ON APRIL 4, AT ABOUT 8:47 P.M.

While patrolling the 2000 block of Main Street officers saw a bicyclist riding his bicycle with no light in violation of a vehicle code. Officers attempted to stop the bicyclist but the bicyclist did not comply and ignored the officer's commands. The suspect fled from the officers and rode recklessly not obeying traffic laws. Officers were able catch up with the suspect at Pico Blvd and Ocean Avenue where the suspect was placed under arrest. A search of the subject led to the recovery of narcotics paraphernalia. The suspect also had an active arrest warrant for narcotics possession. Roy James Lambert, 26, from Los Angeles was arrested for resisting/delaying an officer, possession of narcotics paraphernalia and Santa Monica warrant. Bail was set at $20,000.

Unite Here's research analyst Danielle Wilson is hoping the City Council will step in and make a statement about the Shore Hotel's past actions by denying the alcohol permit for the restaurant.

"I think the bottom line for them is that they originally approved a limited amenity hotel and the Shore is trying to disobey that," Wilson said. While the Shore did at one point list the new restaurant as an upcoming amenity, it has since taken the advertisement off its website.

There is limited information available about the restaurant called Avery that will be opening inside the hotel, except the owner is Peter Trinh, a Hollywood agent who also owns the Craftsman Bar and Kitchen in downtown Santa Monica.

"The Landlord has zero say in our operation and business," Trinh said in a letter addressed to the City Planning Division. Trinh did not return the Daily Press's phone calls asking for comment. In the letter, Trinh says his company, Full of Flavor LLC, is simply a tenant in a lease agreement and not involved in the legal dispute surrounding the Shore.

"We are really confused as to why we are getting dragged into a dispute between the Appellant and Landlord," Trinh said.

City staff reached out to the Coastal Commission, and representatives told them pending litigation should not impact the CUP for alcohol service by a third party applicant, according to a staff report provided to the Council. City staff is recommending the Council deny Unite Here's appeal and grant the permit.

The Planning Commission debated the issue over two separate meetings before granting the alcohol permit to Full of Flavor earlier this year. Commissioner Mario Fonda-Bonardi said that absent a proven link between the restaurant's owner and the Shore, he couldn't deny the application.

While Full of Flavor is a distinct entity from the Shore Hotel, critics argue hotel guests will benefit from the proximity of the restaurant.

"There are a lot of question marks here for us and for the community," Wilson said.

Avery will open regardless of the Council's decision on the alcohol permit.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 17)

You've wished for a work life that's colorful and exciting, and that's what you'll get this year. The next 10 weeks will be healing for family ties. Love and friendship will be the outcropping of a May project. An investment will pay off in June. You'll profit from a series of sales, beginning with a big one in September. Libra and Scorpio adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 3, 44, 49, 21 and 15.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

The warrior learns to fight but also to defend, starting with defending the self. You know better than to leave yourself open and vulnerable. If you decide to do this, let it be a strategy, not an oversight.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

The truth can be treated like some amorphous mystical thing you have to quest after, or it can be as simple as getting the facts straight about reality. Opt for the second treatment today, if only in the interest of saving time

GEMINI (May 21-June 21)

On a winning team, not everyone in the group has to be a superstar. In fact, the unit is better off for the less-skilled individuals involved. They make everyone watch closer and double-check the work.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

There's money in finding your niche. You don't have to create it. This is a process of discovery, the key to which lies in becoming extremely clear about what you'd like to see and what you want to happen.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

You sometimes wonder, as you pursue your curiosities, if all of this is adding up to anything. Rest assured, learning is not wasted or lost on you. You'll convert today's information to insight.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Honesty includes what you know and what you don't know. Gaining and maintaining awareness of both parts of the equation will be your key to wisdom today.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)

The principle of inclusion will be manifest in today's happenings. Of course, this is just how you are generally, making sure not to leave anyone out. You will casually but carefully maintain social balance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21)

Can you dedicate more time and space to listening to another person? It will take initiative, because there is so much else going on right now for both of you. But without the effort, this relationship bond will weaken.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You have many interests. One of them is strengthening into something beyond a mere pastime or pursuit. It's becoming a belief and a lifestyle.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

If you find today's happenings bemusing, this is nothing to keep to yourself. Speak up and similarly confounded people around you will, too. The confusion only proves that you are paying close attention.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You have friends in high places, low places and a lot of places in between. You'll use those contacts in interesting ways in the weeks to come. Some of them could stand to be refreshed. Reach out.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

Knowing that you're included in a circle of people is comforting, but this is not your only or even your primary source of solace. The feeling that you belong to yourself as well -- that's more than comfort. That's serenity.

Saturn Sunshine Aspect

Sure, there are many important things to be besides "happy." And yet, should the buzz of happiness be such a rare occurrence? At the very least, doesn't everyone deserve to feel healthy, safe and loved? If that's not the norm lately, the position of the sun to Saturn today will help you find ways to turn the trend around.

WELL NEWS BY SCOTT LALEE

The Nose Knows

Neurologists have gathered more robust evidence that one's sense of smell is linked to one's chances of developing dementia.

They looked at medical records of nearly 2,500 adults between the ages of 70 and 79. At age 70, they were asked to identify a dozen different smells. None of the participants were diagnosed with dementia at the time. Nine years later, those who had performed poorly on the initial test were two to three times more likely to have developed dementia than those who had performed well. Moderate early scores indicated a 1.8 times greater risk.

Financing provided by third parties and is subject to credit requirements. Interest accrues during the promotional period but all interest is waived if the purchase amount is paid in full within 12 months. Offer available with our Instant Product Rewards with purchase at time of initial visit.

Why have 29,822 Southern California homeowners chosen us to replace their windows?

No pressure. During your Free Window Diagnosis, we'll give you an exact, down-to-the-penny price that's good for an entire year.

114 years of window expertise. We're the full-service replacement window division of Andersen, the window and door brand that your dad told you to trust.

No middleman to deal with. There's no runaround between the installer and the manufacturer because we handle it all, from custom-building to installing to warranting all our products.

We won't sell you vinyl. We've replaced thousands of poor-quality vinyl windows and patio doors, so we made our window's Fibrex® composite material two times stronger than vinyl.

Make an appointment and get a price that's good for an entire year!
