SUBJECT: 2016-2017 PRELIMINARY READY ACCOUNTABILITY REPORT (EMBARGOED FROM PUBLIC RELEASE UNTIL 9/7/17)

This briefing paper provides basic background information to help you understand the 20162017 school accountability data, including how the test data are used. The 2016-2017 school year was the fifth year under the state's READY accountability model. The READY initiative has three components:

1) A Standard Course of Study focused on the most critical knowledge and skills that students need to be successful at the next grade level and after high school.
2) End-of-grade and end-of-course assessments with rigorous open-ended questions and real-world applications that require students to express their ideas clearly with supporting facts.
3) An accountability model that measures how well schools are doing to ensure that students are career and college ready upon high school graduation.

SECTION 1: Overview of Achievement Levels and Assessments

To better report students' career and college readiness, the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction uses a five-level achievement scale:

Achievement Level 1: Limited Command
Achievement Level 2: Partial Command
Achievement Level 3: Sufficient Command (Grade-Level Proficiency)
Achievement Level 4: Solid Command (Career and College Readiness)
Achievement Level 5: Superior Command (Career and College Readiness)
Achievement Level 3 identifies students who have a sufficient command of grade-level knowledge and skills in the tested content areas (English language arts, math, and science) to move on to the next grade but who may need additional support to be on track for career and college readiness. Achievement Levels 4 and 5 indicate students are on track to be career and college ready by the time they graduate from high school.

Data being released to State Board of Education members at their September 7, 2017 meeting will provide insight into student academic progress and school performance in the 2016-2017 school year. This includes student performance on end-of-grade and end-of-course assessments based on five achievement levels, overall student proficiency on end-of-grade and end-of-course assessments, academic growth, School Performance Grades, and graduation rates.

With respect to School Performance Grades, schools will be graded using a 15-point grading scale, and grades will be based on the school's achievement score ( 80 percent) and students' academic growth (20 percent). Information contained in this background brief will provide more details into the state's READY accountability model.

SECTION 2: School Performance Grades

The 2016-2017 school year is the fourth year for which public schools and charter schools will receive a letter grade under the General Assembly's A-F School Performance Grades model. The grades will be based on the school's achievement score and on students' academic growth. The final grade will continue to be based on a 15-point scale. Schools also have the opportunity to earn an $\mathrm{A}+{ }^{\mathrm{NG}}$ for their School Performance Grade. Schools receiving this designation earned an A and did not have a significant achievement gap that was greater than the largest state average achievement gap. This additional designation was added in 2014-15 to address federal requirements that the highest designation not be awarded to schools with significant achievement gaps.

When assigning school performance grades, each school's achievement score (80 percent) and each school's students' academic growth ( 20 percent) is taken into consideration. The total school performance score is converted to a 100-point scale and then used to determine a school performance grade of A, B, C, D or F. The final grade is based on a 15 -point scale:

A: 85-100
B: 70-84
C: 55-69
D: 40-54
F: Less than 40
In addition to the overall performance score and grade, a separate score and grade for reading and mathematics is reported for schools containing K-8 grade levels. Schools with no data available to calculate at least a School Achievement Score will not receive a School Performance Grade (e.g. K-2 schools and alternative schools).

Review of the Data in Tables 1 & 2

- 10 schools earned a designation of $\mathrm{A}^{+\mathrm{NG}}$ (most in a four-year period).
- $32 \%$ of schools earned an $\mathrm{A}^{+\mathrm{NG}}$ or A designation (this represents a four-year high).
- $70 \%$ of schools earned an $\mathrm{A}^{+\mathrm{NG}}$, A , or B designation ( $\uparrow$ of $17 \%$ from previous year).
- $12 \%$ of schools received either a D or F designation (consistent across all four years).
- The number of schools exceeding expected growth was the highest in the last three-year year reporting period (43\%).
- The number of schools exceeding expected growth increased by $83 \%$ from the previous reporting year.
- The number of schools that either met or exceeded expected growth was the highest in the last three-year reporting period (82\%).
- The number of schools that either met or exceeded expected growth increased by nearly $35 \%$ from the previous reporting year ( $61 \%$ in '15-'16 to $82 \%$ in '16-'17).
- The number of schools not meeting growth fell by 55\% (20 in '15-'16 to 9 in '16-'17).

Moving Forward

- The School Performance Office will support principals in utilizing data to improve educational outcomes for all students.
- Currently, leadership teams have identified student representation in all federally designated subgroups. In addition, all schools have set improvement goals for each measurable subgroup.
- School Performance Office utilized trend data at the end of the 2016-2017 school year in order to identify school needs and targeted those needs with essential staff and resources (e.g. Social Workers, Math Tutors, Foundations Training through Safe and Civil Schools).
- A new focus has been placed on developing instructional leadership capacity to develop and monitor student progress (e.g. tools for analyzing and utilizing assessment data).
- The School Performance Office is examining the root causes of significant changes (both positive and negative) in standardized assessment results across the school district.
- The School Performance Office will facilitate the sharing of effective practices for improving school performance across schools.
- UCPS district personnel will recognize and leverage the successes of each school in order to empower schools for continual improvement.

SECTION 3: READY Accountability Reporting

The State Board of Education's READY Accountability Model requires that student performance on EOG/EOC assessments, cohort graduation rates, and other performance indicators be reported by school, district and state. The information also is reported by assessment, grade, and student group.

- Performance - The percentage of students in the school who score at Achievement Levels 1-5. Achievement Level 3 is considered grade-level proficiency and Achievement Levels 4 and 5 are considered on track to be college and career ready.
o College and Career Ready (CCR) - includes achievement levels 4 and 5 on EOG/EOC assessments and is used for AMAO (Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives) targets.
o Grade Level Proficiency (GLP) - includes Achievement Levels 3, 4, and 5 on EOG/EOC assessments and is used in all accountability reporting for NC School Report Card.
- Growth - An indication of the rate at which students in the school learned over the past year. The standard is roughly equivalent to a year's worth of growth for a year of instruction. Growth is reported for each school as Exceeded Growth Expectations, Met Growth Expectations, or Did Not Meet Growth Expectations.

K-8 READY Accountability Model Components

- Statewide accountability testing is done in Grades 3-8 only. For students in grades K-2, special age appropriate assessments are used to chart students' academic progress and are not included in the READY accountability model.
- End-of-grade assessments in reading and mathematics in Grades 3-8 and science assessments in Grades 5 and 8 are counted for academic growth and performance. NCEXTEND1 is an alternate assessment for certain students with disabilities and is included in performance only, not in growth.

High School READY Accountability Model Components

- End-of-Course Tests - Student performance on three end-of-course assessments: English II, Biology and Math I is counted for growth and performance. NCEXTEND1 is an alternate assessment for certain students with disabilities and is included in performance only, not in growth.
- ACT - The percentage of students meeting the UNC system admissions minimum requirement of a composite score of 17.
- Graduation Rates - The percentage of students who graduate in four years or less and five years or less.
- Math Course Rigor - The percentage of graduates taking and passing high-level math courses such as Math III.
- ACT WorkKeys - For Career and Technical Education concentrators (students who have earned four CTE credits in a career cluster), the percentage of concentrator graduates who were awarded at least a Silver Level Career Readiness Certificate based on ACT WorkKeys assessments.
- Graduation Project - The accountability report will note whether a school requires students to complete a graduation project; currently UCPS does not require a graduation project.

Review of the Data in Tables 3 & 4

- Student Achievement - In the 2016-2017 school year, the school system reported its highest percentage of students attaining both CCR and GLP achievement levels over the last three years.
- ACT - During the 2016-2017 school year, UCPS had a 2.1 percentage point decrease in its ACT proficiency score. Specifically, the UCPS ACT proficiency score during the 2015-2016 school year was 77.1 and the UCPS ACT proficiency score for the 2016-2017 school year was 75.0.
- ACT WorkKeys - According to the 2016-2017 reporting data for ACT WorkKeys, UCPS held steady when compared to the previous reporting year. The percentage of students earning a certification of "Silver" or higher was 80.4 percent in 2015-2016 and this increased slightly to 80.6 percent in the 2016-2017 academic year.
- Cohort Graduation Rate - The UCPS 4-year composite graduation rate decreased slightly from 92.8 percent in 2015-2016 to 92.5 percent in 2016-2017. This . 3 percentage point decrease mirrors the drop from the previous reporting year. However, the district's rate still exceeded $92 \%$ for the fourth consecutive year. Five of the 12 schools with a CGR reported increased over the previous reporting year.

Moving Forward

During 2017-2018 academic year, the school system will increase its efforts to monitor and support members of this year's cohort in order to attain a district-wide goal of $93 \%$ on the fouryear cohort graduation rate. This will be accomplished through an implementation plan developed for the purposes of strengthening support systems, interventions, and alternative programs aimed at promoting greater student outcomes. Each element of the plan will be designed to support all students in the successful progression through high school. Additionally, student support services personnel across the district will continue to remove obstacles that students may encounter as they seek to earn the requisite credits needed for graduation. School counselors and other personnel will assist in accounting for all students who are a part of the cohort and determining the status of any students who are absent from the school’s total program. Principals will develop plans that target specific goals in meeting cohort graduation rates for the current year.

Review of the Data

- Reading - The data indicate that the Grade Level Proficiency (GLP) rate increased in reading for each cohort of students in third, fourth, and fifth-grade as compared to the previous reporting year. The percentage of students meeting proficiency in on the $5^{\text {th }}$ Grade ELA EOG was the highest in a three year reporting period.
- Math - The data indicate an increase in the overall percent of students meeting proficiency standards in Grades 3-5 across the district as compared to the previous reporting year. In addition, the data reveal an increase in the GLP proficiency rates for third and fourth grade students when compared to 2015-2016. However, according to the data, the GLP rate for fifth grade students decreased slightly when compared to that of their peers from the previous year.
- Science - During the 2016-2017 school year the data reveal an increase in the proficiency rate for students for students meeting GLP achievement levels as compared to the previous year.

Moving Forward

- The Elementary Education Department will continue to implement the new K-2 portion of the district literacy plan, Literacy for $U$. The K-2 literacy framework will focus on five areas of literacy which include interactive read aloud, guided reading, independent reading, word study/phonics, and responsive writing. During the summer, two 3-day professional learning sessions were provided to develop instructional practices around the focused five components of literacy. Staff development will continue throughout the year supporting training in each of these areas. Alignment and support of the Literacy for $U$ plan will also occur in Grades 3-5.
- Enhanced classroom libraries and school-wide leveled libraries will be utilized to expand reading materials as well as increase reading instruction and assessment materials in all schools. myON, a digital repository of books, will also supplement K-5 literacy.
- Utilizing a literacy plan that was developed by each school, the Teaching and Learning Division and School Performance Office will work with schools to implement and monitor individualized literacy plans during the year.
- The School Performance Office will work with principals in utilizing data to improve educational outcomes for all students.
- Disciplinary literacy will remain a focus of reading across the instructional disciplines. Staff development, digital programs and tools, book studies, and other content-based activities will support efforts to implement literacy throughout the total school program.
- Beginning the spring of 2017 and over the course of the summer, teachers participated in EmpowerED training. This training focused on creating a classroom environment that engages and supports students in developing $21^{\text {st }}$ Century Skills. - Technology will be utilized to support instructional improvement by providing the following: content-based digital student and teacher resources; open sources for lesson plan development and enhancement; digital assessments systems for formative evaluation; Canvas learning management system for blended student learning and teacher professional development; and targeted intervention (credit recovery, Alternative to Long Term Suspension program, etc.). Beginning the spring of 2017 and over the course of the summer, teachers participated in EmpowerED training. This training focuses on creating a classroom environment that engages and supports students in developing $21^{\text {st }}$ Century Skills. EmpowerED training will continue to be provided throughout the 2017-2018 school-year.
- Utilizing a literacy plan that was developed by each school, the Teaching and Learning Division and School Support Office will work with schools to implement and monitor individualized literacy plans during the year.

Achievement Gap Moving Forward

Union County Public Schools considers student diversity to be an asset and works to understand and capitalize on students' cultures, abilities, resiliencies, and efforts. Specific strategies in the year ahead include:

- Leadership teams have identified student representation in all federally designated subgroups and have set improvement goals for each measurable subgroup. The School Performance Office will support principals in monitoring relevant data (e.g. benchmarks) in order to make timely adjustments in the resources being utilized to support goal accomplishment.
- Increase pupil social and emotional wellness through providing increased student support counselors, guidance counselors, and social workers at low performing schools.
- Provide Best Start counselors to work with at-risk students.
- Develop and implement procedures for referral and evaluation of English Learners suspected of being a student with a disability.
- Continue to push-out resource materials for schools and families through the district's ESL program.
- Implement extended learning time, such as intersession, afterschool, or summer camps at six low performing schools.
- Provide in-depth, prescriptive tutoring in math for all students in grades four and seven at six low performing schools.
- Implement Read with $U$ to include UCPS staff and community members. Increased strategies will focus upon reading with first grade students for 30 minutes a week. Additionally, the district will pilot digital tutoring supplemented by TutorMate, an online resource platform for specific tutoring.
- Continue professional development and support for the implementation of Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) by 2020.
- Offer alternative learning programs for students who are at-risk of dropping out of school.
- Support alternative pathways to graduation through the Career Academy at South Providence.
- Offer opportunities for attendance and credit recovery.
- Target support for students with disabilities who are found eligible as Specific Learning Disabled, including those with characteristics of dyslexia.
- Continue classroom library initiative at Grades 6-8
- Provide professional development on research based Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (SIOP) Model.
- Implement Dual Immersion, beginning at Kindergarten, at two highly populated English Learner Title I schools.
- Provide differentiated instruction to at-risk learners through intervention models.
- Establish academies at various schools throughout the district in order to provide relevant instructional programs to all learners.

School district leaders and staff will work to increase faculty members’ understanding of cultural competence through professional development, conferences, diversity day, community outreach efforts, and partnerships. District leaders and staff will work to strengthen classrooms that support learning for all students, which include using varied, effective strategies to instruct diverse learners. Conscious efforts will be made to target literacy and math instruction with those who are identified as at-risk, and support services will be put in place to offer social, psychological, and emotional support.
Special Note: To assist low performing schools, district leaders and instructional staff will strategically provide support by assisting with the development of school and improvement plans, conducting on-going data meetings throughout the year, ensuring that a professional learning community structure is in place at each school, providing staff development based upon both district and school needs, and increasing additional support.

Moving Forward

The ACT requires specific disciplinary knowledge. The district focus on disciplinary literacy will give students further opportunities to meet the ACT college readiness benchmarks. In addition to the ACT, all UCPS students will take a suite of College Board assessments across Grades 8-11. Students will take the PSAT 8, PSAT 10, PSAT/NMSQT, as well as the SAT. The data garnered from these assessments will feed into Naviance, a platform that will help students with career and college planning. Each year in Grades 6-12, students will complete a different activity through Naviance such as a career interest inventory, a strengths explorer assessment, a college match survey, and a senior exit survey. These activities will provide a comprehensive profile of Career and College Readiness.

Moving Forward

UCPS will continue to examine results from Advanced Placement (AP) tests in order to address participation rates and ensure that all students have an equitable opportunity to both participate and find success in these college level courses. Beginning with the 2017-2018 school year, UCPS will administer the PSAT to 8th graders and 10th graders in order to utilize the AP Potential Reports provided by the College Board. Direction will continue to be provided to the principals and school staff to analyze and identify greater numbers of students who could be eligible to participate in AP courses throughout all schools. Schools have been asked to offer at least 10 Advanced Placement courses on their campuses in a face-to-face format beginning with the 2017-2018 school year. This includes educating students about the importance and benefits of taking AP courses.
