INTERVIEW POLICIES

Media interviews with players and coaches are encouraged, and every effort will be made to accommodate media requests. In-person interviews are preferred. Telephone interviews can be arranged through the sports information office. The best time to reach head coach Darrin McClure is weekdays before noon.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITIES

Players and coaches will be available for interviews at the volleyball court, after a brief cooling-off period at the conclusion of each match. Media will be provided full stat packages upon completion of each game. Skyhawk head coach Darrin McClure and selected players will be made available upon request. Requests for players will be taken near the end of each game. Space will be made available following post game interviews for filing stories.

CREDENTIALS

No media credentials are required for coverage of regular-season home matches since admission is free. For post-season matches, credentials may be obtained through the sports information office.

PRESS ROW

The press row for UT Martin volleyball is located directly behind the official score table in the Skyhawk Fieldhouse at an elevated height for easy viewing. Wireless internet access is available throughout the Fieldhouse. Media parking is located in the general parking lot adjacent to the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center. There is no charge for parking.

ON THE WEB

A wealth of resources for the UT Martin sports information department can be found at www.UTMSports.com. The site features updated schedules, rosters, player information, scores and statistics.

SKYHAWKS IN PRINT

The name of our institution is The University of Tennessee at Martin and if abbreviated, should be referred to as UT Martin. The University of Tennessee at Martin should be used as the first reference in a news story. UT Martin should be used in subsequent references and UTM is acceptable in headlines. Tennessee-Martin, UT-Martin, UT or Martin should never be used. The description Skyhawks should be used to represent all UT Martin athletic teams. Lady-Skyhawks or Hawks should never be used.

SKYHRWK FIELDHOUSE

Since 1969, the University of Tennessee at Martin volleyball team has called the Skyhawk Fieldhouse its home. With a capacity of 3,000, Skyhawk Fieldhouse is also home to the volleyball team's locker room, coaches' suite, athletic training facilities and sports information offices.

The Fieldhouse underwent a facelift in the summer of 2011, as a large "Skyhawk Volleyball" screenprint was placed on the west wall. A total of 115 temporary plastic seats were also installed in the south bleachers, behind the bench areas. To provide an intimidating environment, large life-sized prints of each current Skyhawk player surround the walls, a tradition which began during the 2009 season.

Before construction of the neighboring Kathleen and Tom Elam Center in 1976, Skyhawk Fieldhouse was also home to the UT Martin men's and women's basketball teams. Now Skyhawk Fieldhouse is also home to many of the university's largest and most well known events that surround homecoming and Greek Week. The UT Martin volleyball team hosted the First State Skyhawk Invitational for two straight seasons (2011-12), which consisted of four teams playing in a two-day tournament.

* Ohio Valley Conference Tournament

The volleyball program has enjoyed success at Skyhawk Fieldhouse, sporting a 121-125 all-time record. UT Martin hosted the 2002 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament at Skyhawk Fieldhouse and claimed its first tournament championship and automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, with a title match 3-0 win over Southeast Missouri State. The 2002 OVC Tournament also produced the largest crowd at Skyhawk Fieldhouse when 1,172 fans watched UT Martin defeat rival Murray State 3-2 in the semifinals.

HEAD COACH DARRIN MCCLURE

Darrin McClure has served as head coach for The University of Tennessee at Martin volleyball program since 2008.

Having previously served as an assistant coach in 2005 and 2006 seasons, then guiding the program back to the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for the first time in six seasons as interim head coach for the 2008 campaign, McClure was officially named the program's sixth head coach on Jan. 13, 2009.

Despite playing the majority of last season with one upperclassman, the Skyhawks qualified for the OVC Tournament for the third time in five seasons under McClure. UT Martin finished the season with a 10-21 overall record and 6-10 mark against OVC competition.

In 2012, McClure coached a pair of All-OVC selections in Kasey Elswick and Amanda Crask. Elswick earned All-OVC honors for the third time in her storied career, becoming just the third player in program history to achieve that feat. Crask picked up All-OVC newcomer accolades after a freshman season in which she handed out 884 assists and added 158 kills and 218 digs.

The 2012 season also marked the end of the career of one of UT Martin's all-time greats in Elswick. An honorable mention All-American in 2011, Elswick became the first player in Skyhawk history to lead the team in digs in four straight seasons (505 as a freshman, 606 as a sophomore, NCAA single-season record 852 as a junior, 643 as a senior). A two-time OVC Defensive Player of the Year, she wrapped up her momentous career as the OVC's all-time career digs leader (2,606).

McClure enjoyed tremendous success in 2011 - a season where he picked up the OVC Coach of the Year award after guiding a team that was picked 10th in the preseason polls to the league championship match. The Skyhawks won 19 matches and 12 league decisions, which were the most for the program since 2002 and was the program's first winning season since 2006.

In 2010, McClure coached Lauren Montague, who graduated as one of the all-time greats in Skyhawk history. She became the seventh player to record 1,000 career kills and graduated as one of three players in program history to finish their career in the top-10 career lists in kills and digs.

McClure took the nation's youngest team in his second season through the year with an 8-21 record. Included in that record was a five-set win over Indiana to open the Indiana Adidas Classic.

In his first season guiding the program on an interim basis, McClure was able to bring in a talented recruiting class that contributed from day one. That paired with a core group of returners helped him lead the Skyhawks to a 9-24 overall record but more impressively a 7-11 OVC mark. He also guided UT Martin back to the OVC Tournament, which hadn't been done since the 2002 season.

While at UT Martin, McClure's teams have given back to the community in a big way. The Skyhawks have raised more than $8,500 over five seasons in the fight against breast cancer and Lou Gehrig's Disease.

Prior to returning to his undergraduate alma mater in a head coaching capacity, McClure was a history teacher at Martin Middle School. At the same time he also directed the volleyball program at the University School of Jackson and guided them through the rebuilding process after graduating a wealth of talent from their district championship squad. With a majority of freshmen and sophomores on the floor, he guided USJ to a third-place showing in his first year at the helm.

Additionally, McClure also coached the Jackson Juniors Club Team to a second-place finish in the region. The Jackson Juniors were formally known as the Gotcha Volleyball Club, which he was a cofounder of in 2004.

McClure gained valuable playing experience prior to joining the UT Martin volleyball program. He played middle blocker and outside hitter for the Paducah Volleyball Club for five years from 1994-99 and guided them to a pair of tournament victories.

He was also part of the Spike-It-Up Amateur Volleyball Tour that competed 2v2 competition throughout the Southeast and Midwest. He helped guide his Spike-It-Up team to its highest finish of third during a tour stop in Cincinnati, Ohio.

During the offseason, McClure has twice attended the Gold Medal Squared Coaching Camp, an elite coaching clinic conducted by former US Olympic team coach Carl McGowan and two-time Olympic gold medal winning coach Marv Dumphy. He and some of the top collegiate coaches in the nation worked with the Olympic pair to learn from their proven coaching and motivational techniques.

McClure is married to his wife Jennifer, who is also a graduate of UT Martin and the couple has one son, Miles.

ASSISTANT CORCH JULIA NOE

Julia Noe has been a member of The University of Tennessee at Martin coaching staff under head coach Darrin McClure since 2011. Noe was previously a volunteer assistant at Western Kentucky and an assistant coach of the prestigious Kentucky Indiana Volleyball Academy (KIVA) 18 Red club team based out of Louisville, Ky.

Primarily working with the setters at UT Martin, Noe has coached the only two Skyhawks to compile a triple-double in a match, as Jenna Miller (10 kills, 42 assists, 18 digs against Jacksonville State on Oct. 10, 2011) and Amanda Crask (15 kills, 40 assists, 17 digs against SIU Edwardsville on Nov. 14, 2012) both recorded the feat.

Last season, Noe helped guide Crask to an All-OVC Newcomer selection. As a freshman, Crask led the Skyhawks in matches started (30), assists (884, 8.42 per set) and attack percentage (.215) while adding 158 kills, 23 service aces, 218 digs and 34 blocks. Crask registered 10 double-doubles and handed out at least 30 or more assists on 18 different occasions.

Noe's impact was immediately felt in her first season at UT Martin in 2011. The Skyhawks posted their first winning season since 2006 and made it to the OVC Tournament championship match for the first time since 2002. UT Martin's 19 overall wins and 12 OVC victories were also the most since 2002.

Also in 2011, Noe oversaw a squad that ranked second in program history with 1,561 assists. She coached Miller, who graduated with the third-most career assists (3,140) in Skyhawk history.

Noe helped the Lady Toppers to a 25-9 record in 2009, while also previously serving as a varsity assistant coach at her high school alma mater (Sacred Heart Academy) and co-head coach of the Bravo 18-1 club squad in 2010.

As a player, Noe was an integral piece of the Western Kentucky University volleyball team from 2005-08 and established herself as one of the greatest setters to ever don the Lady Topper uniform. In her four seasons (2005-08), the Lady Toppers compiled a 110-32 record, including a 52-11 Sun Belt Conference slate. Western Kentucky made three NCAA Tournament appearances while winning a pair of SBC East championships and SBC tournament titles in Noe's tenure as a player.

Noe's storied playing career included three all-conference selections (2006-08), a spot on the 2008 All-SBC Tournament team and a first-team American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-South Region mention in 2008. That same year, she was also named as an AVCA All-American honorable mention.

A Louisville native, Noe received national attention as a junior. She received the Collegiate Volleyball Update (CVU. com) National Player of the Week on Oct. 2, 2007, becoming the first Western Kentucky player to earn a national player of the week accolade since 2003. In her record-setting week, she averaged 13.78 assists, 2.56 kills and 2.67 digs per game while hitting .413 in a pair of SBC victories.

During her senior campaign, Noe's steadiness helped the Lady Toppers consistently rank in the top five in the nation in hitting percentage. Noe's name is found dotted all across the Western Kentucky record book. She is the program's all-time leader in triple-doubles, amassing six of the program's 16 such performances. She also ranks in the top-5 of three career categories: assists (4,369, third); assists per game (9.92, fourth); and hitting percentage (.317, fifth). Her single-game hitting percentage of .800 (12 kills, no errors, 15 attempts) against Indiana on Aug. 26, 2007 rank as the second-best performance in Lady Topper history. She is listed six times in the program's top-10 single-season records in assists, assists per game, service aces and service aces per game.

In addition, Noe accumulated 954 digs, 632 kills, 164 blocks and 127 service aces in her collegiate career.

At Sacred Heart Academy, Noe was a four-year starter who led the Valkyries to the KHSAA state championship in 2003. She racked up all-state, all-district, all-tournament and academic all-state awards while at SHA and was also a three-time All-American for KIVA, winning two national championships for the AAU squad.

Noe received her bachelor of science in interior design from Western Kentucky in 2010

SUPPORT STAFF

Tamika Donaldson begins her third season at her alma mater as an athletic trainer. A 2009 UT Martin graduate, she works primarily with the volleyball and men's basketball teams while also assisting in all sports.

Donaldson joined the Skyhawks after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn. At Cumberland, she served as the primary trainer for the women's soccer, women's basketball and cycling teams, while also helping out with the football squad.

A Humboldt, Tenn. native, Donaldson worked with the Skyhawk football, soccer, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball teams as an undergraduate at UT Martin. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in health and human performance with a concentration on athletic training.

Donaldson is currently a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Tennessee Athletic Trainers Society (TATS).

Donaldson earned her Master's in education while working at Cumberland.

Ryne Rickman has worked in the UT Martin sports information office since 2008. At UT Martin, Rickman is the media contact for football, volleyball, men's basketball, baseball, golf, equestrian, rodeo and rifle teams. Rickman also serves as official statistician at most Skyhawk home events, produces media guides, game day programs, press releases, and serves as a media host and coordinating event operations.

While at UT Martin, Rickman has taken part in several other sports information ventures. The last four seasons, he has served as the official statistician at the Ohio Valley Conference men's and women's basketball tournament in Nashville, where he was solely responsible for all stats from the tournament. He also served in that same role for the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Second/Third Rounds, also held in Nashville.

Rickman was also Tournament Director of the 2011 OVC Tennis Tournament, held in Paducah, Ky. In March of 2009, Rickman was a media relations assistant at the NCAA men's basketball South Regional tournament in Memphis, arranging press conferences and postgame interviews in the Sweet 16/Elite 8 rounds. He also served as official scorer of the 2008 Major/60 12 Year Old Cal Ripken World Series in Martin from Aug. 7-14, 2008, overseeing the four-day, 10-team national Babe Ruth Little League tournament.

A native of Benton, Ky., Rickman came to UT Martin from Murray State, where he graduated with a degree in journalism and a minor in recreation in May 2008. He worked part-time as a student worker in the Athletics Media Relations office for four years and was the media contact for track and field and cross country, and also the head researcher for football and basketball media guides. He was a co-contributor to Murray State's 2007 football media guide, which was named by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) as the Best in the Nation for Football Bowl Subdivision universities.

SERSON OUTLOOK

To outsiders, the University of Tennessee at Martin volleyball team may seem untested, as only three of the 12 players listed on the 2013 roster are upperclassmen. However, after a strong spring season in which all seven returning players continually improved, Skyhawk head coach Darrin McClure is excited to get the 2013 campaign underway.

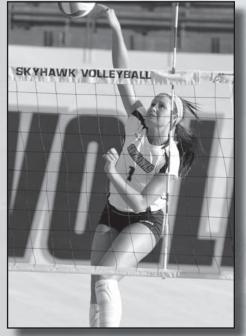

"We only have one senior and some might think that is a disadvantage but it is a positive for us because our returners have gone through a spring season," said McClure, who enters his sixth season at the helm of the Skyhawk program. "We played tough Southeastern Conference and Big East opponents and that experience helped us prepare for the fall."

Six of the seven returners are juniors or sophomores who have logged significant playing time in their UT Martin careers. This core group is expected to be the foundation for the program's success both this season and in the future.

"The growth of our juniors and sophomores has been tremendous," McClure said. "They all look stronger and are playing more confidently in practice. We have three team captains but all seven returners are doing a great job of leading."

Those who have followed the UT Martin program in the last few years may notice that this year's roster size is significantly smaller than in years' past. That doesn't necessarily mean that the team is lacking in depth and in fact, McClure has seen an advantage to the fact that the Skyhawk roster consists of a dozen players.

"This is one of the smallest rosters we have had but at the same time, it is one of the closest teams I have ever coached," McClure said. "We really have spent a lot of time and effort this preseason building team unity. One of our goals is to play for each other."

Sophomore Lynsey Hazelwood will look to replicate her success from 2012, when she ranked second on the team in kills.

In 2012, the Skyhawks qualified for the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for the second time in the last three years. Heading into that season, UT Martin relied upon Kelly Hogan as one of the two seniors on the squad. However, Hogan's hot start (37 kills in 14 sets over four matches) was cut short after a season-ending knee injury on Aug. 31.

After a strenuous rehab process, Hogan was granted a redshirt and is embracing the leadership role as the team's lone senior.

"We missed Kelly's on-court presence last year, especially during the OVC season," McClure said. "It's been a tough road for her with her rehab but her presence alone is huge for our team leadership. She does a good job guiding our younger players and challenging our returners."

An outside hitter, Hogan will be joined by returners Emily Keaton (team-high 262 kills in 2012), Allie Whimpey (343 career kills in two seasons) and Lynsey Hazelwood (205 kills last season, second-most on the team).

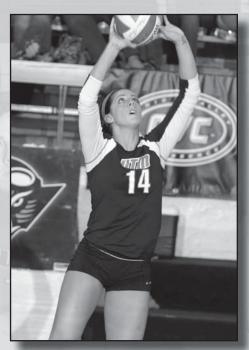

"Emily is expected to be our outside anchor," McClure said. "She has had a great preseason so far and the biggest difference for her has been her leadership presence – she has done a great job setting an example. She is a well-rounded kid who works hard and she has had the best stats on our team this preseason. Lynsey and Allie are probably in the best shape I've ever seen them in and I've been watching them since club ball. They are very competitive and want the ball all the time."

The key to any team's success is having a decision-maker who can quickly identify and assess their surroundings in order to put her teammates in the best position to succeed. McClure is convinced he has found just that person in sophomore setter Amanda Crask, who is coming off an OVC All-Newcomer campaign in 2012

"I don't hesitate to say that Amanda will be a big part of our offense," McClure said. "She knows that we want her to be offensive and we train her that way. She is in great shape – she had a good spring and she worked her tail off this summer. Her best volleyball is ahead of her."

Sophomores Shelby Hoskins and Chelsea Bowles round out UT Martin's returners and both will look to step into bigger roles this fall. Hoskins showed flashes of potential throughout the 2012 season, leading the team in blocks and ranking second in attack percentage, while Bowles played in a team-high 115 sets and scooped up 242 digs (second-highest on the team) in 2012.

"Even though she is a sophomore, we want Shelby to be the focal point of our offense," McClure said. "With her stats from last year, she needs to learn to deal with teams maybe revolving their game plan around stopping her.

Amanda Crask, an All-OVC Newcomer honoree in 2012, enters the season as one of the top returning setters in the league.

We may be better defensively right now than we have ever been just based on the things I have seen in practice. That has led to competitive drills and blue-collar practices. Chelsea will step up and have a big role in our defensive scheme and serve/receive scheme."

For the second straight season, McClure boasts a multitude of talented freshmen. Just as the team's current sophomores did last season, this year's five freshmen have shown a willingness to learn every day.

"I have been surprised by the way our newcomers have been receptive to what our returners are teaching them," McClure said. "There is always going to be a learning curve and you have to learn in fast forward because there is a lot of information to process. The newcomers have started to adjust and they have started to apply those methods to practice each day, which is very encouraging."

The star-studded signing class includes middle blockers Julia Devinney and Alisha Erves, libero/defensive specialist Colleen Larson, as well as outside hitters Michelle McLaughlin and Madison Wessling.

"I feel good about where our freshmen are right now," McClure said. "I expect Julia and Alisha to be a big part of our offense as the year goes on. Colleen will be a big part of what we do defensively and a crucial part of our serve/receive patterns and I expect Michelle and Madison will battle for time at outside hitter."

With a unique blend of veteran returners and an infusion of exciting young talent, the Skyhawks seem ready to challenge for OVC West superiority in 2013.

SEASON RECAP

HAWK VOLLEYBALL

SKYHAWK VOLLEY

SEASON RECAP

The University of Tennessee at Martin volleyball team made its 12th overall Ohio Valley Conference Tournament appearance and third appearance under head coach Darrin McClure in 2012. The Skyhawks compiled a 10-21 overall record to go along with a 6-10 mark against OVC competition.

The Skyhawks opened the season against power conference heavyweights Arkansas and Kansas, as well as Northwestern State, in the Arkansas Invitational before holding its home opener in the First State Skyhawk Invitational.

UT Martin nearly earned its first victory on Aug. 31 against Troy before falling in five sets, despite 40 digs from Kasey Elswick. In that match, the Skyhawks lost senior outside hitter Kelly Hogan, who led the team in kills in two of the first four matches, for the season with a knee injury.

The Skyhawks would bounce back to claim their first victory of the season in the next match, a 3-1 decision over Wright State. UT Martin then stood toe-to-toe with Big East Conference foe DePaul in its next match before falling 3-2 in a nailbiter.

After a tough weekend tournament at Southern Illinois, the Skyhawks bounced back to win three of their next four matches. UT Martin began the streak with a 3-1 win over Jackson State. A narrow loss to Sun Belt Conference member North Texas followed but the Skyhawks recovered with a 3-0 victory over Alabama State. UT Martin then improved to 4-9 on the season with a 3-1 home win over Alabama A&M, led by 17 kills apiece by Lynsey Hazelwood and Jackie Harter.

Emily Keaton led the team in kills on 10 different occasions, slamming down 262 kills (2.34 per set) overall.

UT Martin then began OVC play with four straight road matches, earning a 2-2 split. After a 3-0 loss at SIU Edwardsville, the Skyhawks picked up their first league victory with a 3-1 win at Eastern Illinois. After a tough 3-1 loss at Southeast Missouri, the Skyhawks evened their OVC mark with a 3-2 victory at Tennessee Tech, guided by Elswick's 41 digs.

After a nonconference loss at Evansville, the Skyhawks claimed a 3-1 home win over OVC rival Murray State to begin a four-match homestand. UT Martin then put up a fight before falling to Austin Peay and Tennessee State but salvaged the homestand with a 3-2 victory over eventual OVC Tournament champion Belmont. Emily Keaton was responsible for a careerbest 21 kills in the match while Amanda Crask handed out a career-high 51 assists.

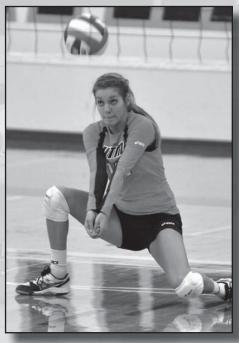

Tough road losses at Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State followed. A bit of history was recorded after the Morehead State match, as Elswick became the OVC's all-time career digs leader.

UT Martin recovered for back-to-back home wins against OVC West rivals Eastern Illinois and SIU Edwardsville. In the victory over SIU Edwardsville, Crask racked up just the second triple-double in program history with a career-high 15 kills, 40 assists and a career-high 17 digs.

The Skyhawks then fell in five straight matches to close out the regular season but still qualified for the OVC Tournament, hosted by Morehead State. In the first round, UT Martin fell to regular season champion Morehead State by a 3-0 margin.

At the conclusion of the regular season, the OVC recognized Elswick (first team) and Crask (all-newcomer) as all-conference performers. The All-OVC selection was the third in the remarkable career for Elswick, as she became the third player in program history to achieve All-OVC status in three different years, joining Rachel Ahlers (2000-02) and Lindsey Vicknair (2000-02).

Elswick led the OVC in digs (643, 5.64 per set) and ranked 13th in the nation in that category. She racked up double-digit digs in all 30 matches and at least 20 digs in 16 matches, eclipsing the 40-dig mark twice (41 at Tennessee Tech on Sept. 29, 40 against Troy on Aug. 31). She was named the adidas OVC Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 3 and earned Capital One Academic All-District first team honors.

Kasey Elswick led the OVC in digs (643, 5.64 per set) and was named to the All-OVC team for the third straight season.

Crask handed out at least 30 assists on 18 different occasions. She registered 10 double-doubles this season – seven of which came against OVC opponents. She also piled up seven or more kills in 10 different matches and hit over .300 in a dozen contests, while her 23 service aces ranked second on the team.

The Skyhawks boasted five players with at least 150 kills, led by Keaton's 262 kills. Hazelwood ranked second on the team with 205 kills as a freshman, while Shelby Hoskins recorded 195 kills and a team-high 0.74 blocks per set. Harter (177 kills) and Crask (158 kills, 884 assists) also played a big role in the Skyhawk offense in 2012.

Elswick ended her remarkable career with 2,606 digs, which is 152 more than any other OVC player had amassed. Freshman Chelsea Bowles led the team in sets played (115) and ranked second on the team with 242 digs (2.10 per set). Keaton (240) and Crask (218) also reached the 200-dig plateau while Hoskins and Harter shared the team lead with 78 blocks apiece.

SEASON IN PHOTOS

Kasey Elswick capped off her remarkable career with her third All-OVC selection.

Amanda Crask nabbed OVC All-Newcomer accolades and amassed a triple-double.

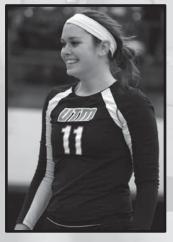

Emily Keaton led the Skyhawks with 262 kills while adding 240 digs and 39 blocks.

Shelby Hoskins led the team with 78 blocks while hitting .211 with 195 kills.

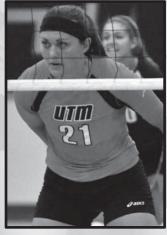

Lynsey Hazelwood led the team with 28 service aces and ranked second with 205 kills.

Allie Whimpey led UT Martin in kills in the final two matches of the regular season.

Chelsea Bowles led the team with 115 sets played while ranking second with 242 digs.

Kelly Hogan's season was cut short after four matches but she led the team in kills twice.

The Skyhawks played their best ball in midseason, compiling nine of their 10 victories from Sept. 14 through Oct. 27. UT Martin concluded the season with a 10-21 record and a 6-10 Ohio Valley Conference mark, qualifying for its 12th OVC Tournament appearance on the final day of the regular season.

The 1970 volleyball squad featured a pair of future UT Martin Hall of Fame members. The late head coach Nadine Gearin (Class of 1988) and No. 55 Pat Head Summitt (Class of 1983), who was told she had to play volleyball if she wanted to also play basketball for the university. Summitt later went on to become an Olympian and the all-time winningest college basketball coach in history.

Now in its 66th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 13 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. She is currently one of just six females to be the head of a Division I conference, and one of just nine to lead a Division I conference all-time. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

In 2007-08, UT Martin guard Lester Hudson became the first men's Division I player to record a quadruple-double in a game, when he registered 25 points, 12 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a victory over Central Baptist College. Hudson, who ranked fourth in scoring nationally as a junior, returned for his senior season in 2008-09 and was second nationally in scoring (behind Davidson's Stephen Curry) at 27.5 points a contest. Hudson earned numerous honors (including OVC Player of the Year and OVC Male Athlete of the Year in each 2008 and 2009 and All-American status from several outlets) before being drafted by the Boston Celtics with the No. 58 pick of the 2009 NBA Draft.

In 2012-13 the UT Martin duo of Jasmine Newsome and Heather Butler finished fifth and sixth nationally among NCAA scoring leaders. Newsome, the 2012 and 2013 OVC Player of the Year, averaged 22.6 points per game on the way to All-American honors while Butler averaged 22.4 points per contest. Butler set a NCAA record during the season by connecting on a 3-pointer in her 80th-straight game.

The league also had another historical moment in November 2008 when the NCAA awarded Nashville the 2014 NCAA Women's Division I Final Four. The OVC will serve as the host of the prestigious event, which is one of the biggest sporting events the city of Nashville can host. The event will be held April 6 & 8 at Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Jon Rauch (Morehead State). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and a NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers). The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKU skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 30 years, 11 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regularseason titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006 and winning a NCAA Tournament match in 2010, the league's first NCAA victory since 2000.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third-straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals -Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) - were back-to-back winners of the award.

Morehead State won its third-straight OVC regular season championship in 2012. Over that time period the Eagles have compiled an impressive 52-2 league record.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year. A year later (2009) the league had a Major League Baseball First Round Compensation Round pick (Eastern Illinois' Tyler Kehrer who was No. 48 overall) and NBA Second Round pick (UT Martin's Lester Hudson) in the same season.

The OVC sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the OVC has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Above: Lester Hudson became the first Skyhawk in history to be selected in the NBA Draft when he was drafted by the Boston Celtics in 2009. A two-time Ohio Valley Conference Male Athlete of the Year, he led the UT Martin men's basketball team to its first-ever OVC regular season championship in 2008-09. The only player in NCAA Division-I history to accumulate a quadruple-double, he has suited up for the NBA's Boston Celtics (2009-10), Memphis Grizzlies (2009-10, 2011-12), Washington Wizards (2010-11) and Cleveland Cavaliers (2011-12) since graduating from UT Martin.

Above: In 2011, Skyhawk junior Kasey Elswick amassed 852 digs, a single-season NCAA Division-I record. For her efforts, she was named the 2011 OVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Below: The 2012 UT Martin softball team swept both the OVC regular season and tournament championships, capping off the program's fourth title since 2009. In the NCAA Tournament, UT Martin went toe-to-toe with eventual national champion Alabama. The Skyhawks were paced by the league's Player of the Year (Leah Taylor), Pitcher of the Year (Chelsea Jones) and Coach of the Year (Donley Canary).

Above The Skyhawk women's basketball team clinched their third straight NCAA Tournament appearance. UT Martin was the only school in the country to place a pair of players in the Top 10 nationally in scoring with Jasmine Newsome ranking fifth (22.6 ppg) and Heather Butler in sixth (22.4 ppg). Butler set new NCAA records by hitting a three-pointer in 33 straight games in 2012-13 and 80 consecutive games overall.

Left: Skyhawk senior pitcher Dan Tobik was selected by the Los Angeles Angels of Anahiem in the 39th round of the 2013 MLB Draft. That marked the third straight season that a UT

Martin baseball player had been chosen, as the Kansas City Royals selected Alex Mills in the 22nd round in 2012 and Washington Nationals picked Trey Karlen in the 33rd round in 2011.

ATHLETC TRAINING

Dr. John Materson

Dr. Keith Nord

Dr. G. Bradford Wright

Dr. David E. Yakin

ATHLETIC TRAINING ROOM

With three Skyhawk training room locations throughout the UT Martin athletic facilities, student-athletes can be assured of receiving the best medical attention and rehabilitation available. The primary athletic training room facilities are located in the Skyhawk Fieldhouse. There are also satellite athletic training room locations in the Bob Carroll Football Building and near Pat Head Summitt Court in Skyhawk Arena.

The Skyhawk Fieldhouse athletic training room was renovated in 2007 as part of a $1.9 million dollar renovation of the entire Skyhawk Fieldhouse and Kathleen and Tom Elam Center. Included in the renovation was an updated whirlpool rehabilitation room where student-athletes can receive aqua rehabilitation and treatment. The athletic training room also contains multiple examination stations with the latest in rehabilitation equipment.

The athletic training staff uses a comprehensive approach to the injury care and wellness of student-athletes by utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries.

Assistant Athletic Director Bart Belew is in his 12th year as head athletic trainer. Belew, a UT Martin graduate, went on to earn a master's degree and serve as a graduate assistant at Ole Miss where he worked with both the football and baseball programs before a stint at Freed-Hardeman led him to a return to his alma mater in 2000 as the head athletic trainer. He currently has a staff of four full-time certified athletic trainers and support staff of 16 athletic training students.

The athletic training staff is surrounded by many qualified and generous team doctors, through a partnership with Sports Orthopedic and Spine of Jackson, Tenn.. Dr. G. Bradford Wright, MD, and Dr. Steve Houseworth, MD, serve as the primary team physicians and are directly responsible for the orthopedic needs of UT Martin student-athletes. Dr. Wright has previously worked as team physician with the US Olympic Track & Field teams, West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx and Memphis Riverkings while Dr. Houseworth has served as a team physician for Louisiana Tech University.

Dr. Wright and Dr. Houseworth are also assisted in the care for Skyhawk student-athletes by the other orthopedic specialist of Sports Orthopedic and Spine; Dr. David E. Yakin, MD, Dr. Keith Nord, MD, Dr. Timothy Sweo, MD, and Dr. John P. Masterson, MD.

The athletic training staff is one support group that the athletic teams cannot do without. They are responsible for staffing all practices and games as well as handling the day-to-day rehabilitation of injured or post-surgery student-athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

SKYHAWK STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The UT Martin strength and conditioning facilities are for the exclusive use of Skyhawk student-athletes as they train for competition, under the direction of strength and conditioning coach Charles Rayburn.

Sport specific workouts are designed and supervised at all times by one or more members of the strength and conditioning staff. Each student-athlete is placed in to respective developmental levels according to individual ability and specific regiments are then prescribed and continuously changed based on individual aptitude.

The Skyhawk strength and conditioning philosophy is multi-faceted with a primary emphasis on reducing injuries during the season.

The 3,500 square-foot Skyhawk weight room, located on the second level of Skyhawk Fieldhouse, includes Hammer Strength and Life Fitness machines and weights. This state-of-the-art facility is equipped with modern equipment ranging from self contained Power Lift multi-racks with 6x8 platforms, Olympic lifting bars, a complete line of rubber coated TGX dumbbells, a variety of glute/ham stations, a huge plyometric/medicine ball area, and various other supplemental pieces. The facility offers an unlimited variety of movements and exercises for the student-athlete.

The Skyhawk weight room allows for large enough groups so the student-athletes can train concurrently optimizing efficiency and effectiveness but, small enough to receive individual direction.

"My experience at UT Martin was incredible! The relationships I built with the faculty and staff remain strong today. They made a huge impact on my life, as did my sorority sisters, who to this day are some of my closest friends. I cherish the time I spent at UT Martin."
