THE MISSION:

Investigate Biblical eyewitness accounts of the King in action.

Investigation Destination turns your students into secret agents, investigators on a special mission to discover clues about a special person, the King of Kings.

THE OBJECTIVE:

Prepare students for the return of the King—challenging them to believe in Jesus and accept Him as Savior and then to choose to trust, follow, love, obey, and serve Him. Those who know the Savior will want to tell others about Jesus, our wonderful King.

*“Sing praises to God, sing praises:

HOW IT WORKS

Every day, your secret agents will gather to start their investigation with worship and singing. They may even get to meet Tracker, our investigator dog! During Bible Exploration time, students divide into age-related groups to head into the field, visiting five international locations as they follow clues to the King of Kings. After uncovering the clues, they rotate through games, snacks, crafts, activity sheets, and a music & missions time—each featuring discussion starters to reinforce the salvation message. Finally, they regather to recap the day's events and maybe bump into Spy Guy or secret agent puppets!

Adult Bible Study

Investigating a Royal Controversy: Who Is Jesus?

Jay Lucas. There's no retirement age for secret agents at Investigation Destination! Adults, too, can follow clues to the King of Kings. Luke wrote to tell Theophilus the results of his careful investigation of everything that happened while Jesus was on earth. This study considers the account of King Jesus as told through Luke's investigation. Luke emphasizes that this is actual history and that the gospel of Jesus Christ demands a response.
