Medical science and skill saved Eli. A generous community saved his family.

Born with Down syndrome, Eli Harrington spent the first days of his life in intensive care. Three months later, he had major surgery to repair a defective heart. Then came treatment for severe seizures. Most recently, he underwent major skull surgery to correct a serious cranial condition. Highly skilled specialists at Seattle Children's have saved Eli's life more than once. Even with health insurance, the Harrington's medical bills were overwhelming. Once again, Seattle Children's was there to help—with financial relief through uncompensated care. Thousands of families benefit from the fund, which is supported by the generosity of everyday people like you. To learn more or donate, visit seattlechildrens.org/ways-to-help. Eli thanks you.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION PROCEDURES

In the event of an emergency, please wait for an announcement for further instructions. Ushers will be available for assistance.

FOOD AND DRINK are not allowed in the Theatre.

SMOKING POLICY According to state law, smoking is NOT allowed within 25 feet of any door, nor in any part of the Theatre.

EMERGENCY NUMBERS

If you need to be reached during a performance, please leave your exact seat number and the House Manager's number with your service or sitter.

In Issaquah (425) 392-1942 x100
In Everett (425) 257-6368

BABES IN ARMS Please, no babes in arms in the Theatre. In Issaquah, the Francis J. Gaudette Theatre has comfortable, sound-proof family rooms for families bringing children under four. Subscribers may exchange into the family rooms when a sitter cannot be found. When children are old enough to join the main floor audience, please instruct them in proper theatre behavior. It is helpful to familiarize them with the story and the score in advance.

ACCESSIBILITY Wheelchair seating is available. Please advise your ticket seller when purchasing tickets if you require wheelchair seating.

LISTENING SYSTEM The Theatre is equipped with a listening system for the hard of hearing. Headsets are available on a first-come first-served basis from the House Manager, and are free of charge with a valid ID.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON Whether it rains, sleets, snows or blows, only a power outage or building destruction will prevent a performance from taking place as scheduled.

PATRON CONSIDERATIONS Please arrive on time. Check your tickets for your performance time. Late arrivals are very disruptive to fellow patrons and to the artists onstage. Please give yourself plenty of time to get to the Theatre. Patrons arriving late will not be seated until a suitable pause in the performance at the House Manager's discretion.

Please turn off all pagers, cellular phones and watch alarms before entering the Theatre. No text messaging is allowed during the performance.

No photography, video or sound recording of any performance is allowed based on royalty and union agreements.

Be aware that talking, humming and tapping feet during a performance is also disruptive to the patrons around you. Before the overture begins, please turn off playbill flashlights and unwrap cough drops. In intimate auditoriums like the Francis J. Gaudette Theatre and the Everett Performing Arts Center, even the actors can hear these seemingly small noises. Please use moderation in applying perfume, cologne or lotion, as many people are allergic to scents.

In consideration of your fellow patrons and the actors, please do not leave the performance during the curtain call.

Directors' Notes

"We are all looking for magic. We all need to feel we are under a spell and one day a wand will be waved and the princes that we truly feel ourselves to be will start forth at last from the tattered shapeless smocks. But indeed, we have to wave the wand for ourselves. If only we could refrain from endlessly repairing our defenses." – P.L. Travers

Mary Poppins the musical, with its sweeping production numbers, flight sequences, and moments of magic; all taking place in a myriad of strange locales in Edwardian England, is an enormous undertaking. So, Co-Director Kathryn Van Meter and I turned once again to the amazing talents of the Les Misérables design team. Scott Fyfe, Scenic Designer, Tom Sturge, Lighting Designer, and Cynthia Savage, wearing two hats as Costume Designer and Costume Shop Manager; have created a fantasmagoric world. The cast of seemingly unlimited talent headed by the dulcet toned Cayman Ilika as Mary and Seattle's favorite hooper Greg McCormick Allen as Bert, bring P.L. Travers' iconic characters to life with a combination of childlike abandon and just the right amount of British reserve. The beloved Disney score soars to life under the magical baton of Bruce Monroe and the musical genius of Tim Symons. The experience of bringing this timeless tale to the stage can only be described in one word: SUPERCALIFRAGILISTICEXPIALIDOCIOUS!

Enjoy!

CREATING ART

One of Village Theatre's most unique qualities is that every one of our shows is custom designed from the ground up. This Season we are celebrating our team of master craftsmen by taking a look behind the scenes at the dedication and work put into each and every show here at Village Theatre.

Esther Garcia is the Head Women's Cutter/Draper at Village Theatre. She works closely with our costume shop manager and each show's costume designer to understand the renderings, concept, and period of the production. "From there, I work with actor's measurements to create custom patterns to fit the performer and realize the designer's vision for the character that you see on stage." She explains.

All of Esther's work is done in our Costume Shop, located within the Francis J. Gaudette theatre. The shop is equipped with industrial sewing machines, industrial irons, and much more. With costuming needed for all five Mainstage productions, Village Originals, and KIDSTAGE productions, the shop is always working on something. Generally a show's build takes six to eight weeks and the number of costumes in every show varies greatly. While a really small show can have as few as 12 full costumes, larger productions like Funny Girl, can have well over 200 full costumes.

As a cutter, the most important work Esther does happens in the fitting rooms. "It's the one time we have to look at everything to see how it fits, mark for alterations, take notes from the designer, and make sure everything will run smoothly during costume changes." She says.

Esther's days are often filled with many different projects, depending on where the costume shop is in show's building process. "My day can include design meetings with the costume designer, fitting eight to ten different costumes on an ensemble actor, or working with skirt hems—so many skirt hems! Any number or combination of these can happen during a day. It keeps me on my toes!" Thankfully, Esther says, she doesn't do it alone. "Along with another cutter, we manage our workloads with the help from teams of highly skilled professional stitchers, all of which we couldn't do without their help."

CREATING MAGIC:

How Mary Poppins Became A Musical

BY CARLY VESTER

P.L. Travers, author of the Mary Poppins books, insisted she never created

Mary Poppins. In true magical fashion, Travers' fastidious leading lady simply appeared to her one day, much as Mary Poppins simply appears with the east wind on 17 Cherry Tree Lane. However, Travers did have a key inspirational source. Raised by her Aunt Ellie, a woman she described as "stern and tender, secret and proud, anonymous and loving," she once said Aunt Ellie served as inspiration for not only Mary Poppins, but Miss Andrew and Miss Lark too. It was while living with Aunt Ellie in Bowral, Australia, Travers met many people who would later become characters in her books, including Mrs. Corry.

Though some of these book characters were absent from the Walt Disney film adaptation, they were brought back to life for the musical you are about to see. Travers was not fond of Walt Disney's movie adaptation, saying the real Mary Poppins "remained within the covers of the books." She was so unhappy with the film, that when Cameron Mackintosh approached her in 1993 (when she was nearly 94 years old), she only granted the rights to him with the addendum that the script must be written by an English-born author. Julian Fellowes (creator of Downton Abbey) was brought on to write the script due to his knowledge of the 'finer points' of the English class system in the Edwardian era. When George Stiles (music) and Anthony Drewe (lyrics) heard about the project, they put together a demo version of a new introductory song for Mary Poppins titled "Practically Perfect." Mackintosh's response was so positive that both were brought onto the team for producing the musical.

As Brian Sibley and Michael Lassell wrote in Mary Poppins: Anything Can Happen If You Let It, the musical was a collaboration of many creative sources. "The musical-theatre Mary Poppins is not an attempt to put P.L. Travers' book onstage per se, or even put the Mary Poppins movie onstage. Instead, the show's director Richard Eyre and the creative team assembled for the production [and] incorporated elements of the books and the film, the film's music and new songs, the inventions of Walt Disney and his studio, and the [creative] of the stage musical's book writer Julian Fellowes and [the show's] team of composers."

However, the film and stage musical have something else in common. It's been noted that the creative teams behind both endeavors agreed the atmosphere in working on Mary Poppins was extraordinary. Sibley and Lassell wrote: "It was, for both teams, as if there was something inherently pleasant in having to inhabit the world of Mary Poppins on a daily basis."

Ten years after this magical show opened in the West End, we are thrilled to be opening this production at Village Theatre. As P.L. Travers once said, Mary Poppins doesn't symbolize the magic that lies behind everyday life. "She is everyday life, which is composed of concrete and magic."

 Microsoft is pleased to sponsor Village Theatre's production of Mary Poppins. Village Theatre is a favorite among our employees and their families for its engaging, energetic, and family-friendly productions. Community involvement is an integral part of our corporate culture at Microsoft. A key part of that work is Microsoft YouthSpark, our global initiative to create opportunities for 300 million youth by 2015. We also encourage employee investment and volunteerism in the community throughout the year and during our annual Giving campaign. And through sponsorships of great organizations such as Village Theatre, we aim to create an environment in which the arts will thrive for generations to come. Enjoy the show!

 The Issaquah-Sammamish Reporter is proud to sponsor Village Theatre's production of Mary Poppins. Our mission as the local print and online news and information source for Issaquah and Sammamish is to engage with our community and support such classic productions like Mary Poppins and many other shows brought to you by the amazing and creative talent assembled at our own Village Theatre. We hope you will enjoy the (as Bert would say) "Bit 'O Magic!" of Mary Poppins, and come back to Village Theatre again for Around The World In 80 Days, No Way To Treat A Lady, and Cabaret!

 Klein Honda in Everett serves Snohomish County and the Seattle metro area. It has been run from day one strictly by its motto "A Friend of the Family." We are honored and proud to be a sponsor of Village Theatre's production of Mary Poppins. We have been committed to a better community since 1976 and we value our relationships and region deeply. We love giving to our community that has given us so much. It is our way of saying "thank you." We believe we have a responsibility to assist with strengthening our area by supporting Village Theatre. The arts bring people together and increase the livability of our area and ensure the cultural and economic vibrancy of our region. It is our pleasure to be associated with Village Theatre and we are truly inspired by their passion, talent, and exceptional work.

ROBB HUNT (Executive Producer) helped found Village Theatre in 1979 and has been involved as producer for the theatre ever since. Robb was an avid performer for many years with experience as a principal actor and dancer in several Puget Sound theatre companies. With a background in business, Robb was a strong hand as a consultant in the field of Arts Management; several of his clients included The 5th Avenue, the Metropolitan Museum, Seattle Repertory Theatre, Seattle Symphony, The Museum of Flight, The Carnegie, and San Francisco Museum of Modern Art. Robb is dedicated to commissioning and developing musicals and has been the driving force in the inclusion of new musicals in Village Theatre programming. He has collaborated on the creation of productions such as Eleanor, Next To Normal, The Ark, and Making Tracks. Village Theatre has become an active member of the National Alliance for Musical Theatre and Robb has served on its New Works committee and on the Board of Directors. He has also served as a peer panelist and evaluator for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

STEVE TOMKINS

(Artistic Director) began his active professional arts career in Seattle in 1972, as a member of The Empty Space's acting company. He has been the artistic director at Village Theatre for the past 20 years. Prior to his time here, he was the artistic director at Civic Light Opera for several years. As a director and choreographer, Steve's regional work has been seen at The Arkansas Repertory Theatre, The Arizona Theatre Company, Seattle Repertory Theatre, ACT, and TAG. For seven years, Steve staged and choreographed production shows with Greg Thompson Productions. He has directed and choreographed numerous productions at Village Theatre including: Grease, The Mystery of Edwin Drood, Joseph..., The Ark, Auntie, West Side Story, Peter Pan, La Cage Aux Folles, Oklahomal, Damn Yankees, How to Succeed..., South Pacific, Play It By Heart, The Music Man, CATS, Hello, Dolly!, EVITA, Bye Bye Birdie, ...Jersey, The King and I, AIDA, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Stunt Girl, Chasing Nicolette, Meet Me in St. Louis, 42nd Street, Anne of Green Gables, Iron Curtain, Annie Get Your Gun, The Producers, Big River, Chicago, Les Misérables, and Funny Girl.

How To Give

Village Theatre's Annual Fund supports our Mainstage productions, the new works program Village Originals, and our Youth Education and Outreach programming. There are many ways that you can support our efforts to ensure that present and future audiences experience the musical excitement and artistic excellence of Village Theatre.

INDIVIDUAL GIVING: Donations enable us to achieve the level of excellence that you have come to expect. By donating to our Annual Fund, you will play a part in every aspect of Village Theatre. You will also receive unique benefits to enhance your musical theatre experience.

CORPORATE GIVING: By joining our team of corporate partners, your business will receive prominent recognition, promotional opportunities, and entertainment benefits that demonstrate your community leadership. Corporate sponsorships take several forms with opportunities at many levels. These include the sponsorship of performances, support for education and outreach, and special events

SPECIAL EVENTS: Please save the dates: Sing It Forward in Everett will benefit our Youth Education Program and Scholarships and will be held on January 24, 2015. On the Town, our annual gala and auction, will be held on May 16, 2015.

VILLAGE ORIGINALS MEMBERSHIP: Village Originals Members are the only people guaranteed admission to the Annual Festival of New Musicals. As a member, you will be the "beta tester" for every new musical we work on. "Research and development" has never been this much fun!

VILLAGE GUARDIANS: When considering a planned gift, start by asking how you want to benefit Village Theatre, yourself, and others. While a planned gift is often simple to arrange, you should always seek the advice and guidance of your attorney, accountant, or other appropriate advisor.
