WHO'S WHO AND WHY

Mr. & Mrs. WALTER SAPHNER of Cleveland are back at Sanibel for their 11th visit. They have been busy catching up on things with their many friends on Sanibel, but still find time to go shelling and fishing. Mrs. Saphner will be taking back some beautiful orange and red tulips brought up by our recent north winds. The Saphners are guests at Surf 'n Sand Cottages.

Also staying at Surf 'n Sand are Mr. & Mrs. RALPH MARTIN, their son and wife, Mr. & Mrs. WILLIAM MARTIN and little grandson, WILL. The younger Mr. Martin was the lucky finder of a lovely golden olive.

Mrs. LYNN ARITEN from Minneapolis, Minn. rented a home here and is joining friends on many outings, seeing the wonders of Sanibel & Captiva. She attended the recent Shell Club meeting.

Mr. & Mrs. E. DECKER from Moorestown, N.J. are staying at the Palm View Motel while enjoying all the beauties of nature here.

Mr. & Mrs. JOHN ANDERSON of Hibbing, Minn. are staying at By The Sea on Sanibel for an extended time. They love our Florida weather.

Mr. & Mrs. HILDING JOHNSON of Wayne, N.J. are also staying at By The Sea collecting shells and enjoying the things that we natives take for granted. They will be going back to the cold north for a white Christmas.

Mr. & Mrs. GEORGE NIEBLING from Port Jefferson, N.Y. have been coming to the Islands for 10 years. They are at the Jolly Roger, and say they will be back next year with a new addition to the family.

Mr. & Mrs. BEN LEONARD from Clarksboro, N.J. are staying at the Song of the Sea. They are simply enthralled with the Island.

Visiting from Erwin, Pa. at the home of TOM and PEARL McINTOSH on North Periwinkle, for the Thanksgiving holidays are their son, CHARLES and his wife, IDA McINTOSH and son CHUCK, JR. Also ROBERT McINTOSH from Jefferson Borough, Pa., and the land of snow. They will be having a ball in this nice sunshine and getting acquainted again with their sister LYNN who attends Cypress Lake Senior High.

Visiting for the first time on Sanibel are WILLIAM and NANCY HARDING and little daughter, ANNE from Washington, D. C. Also RONALD and SARA WATTS from Conn. They are both school teachers (Boning up on Conchology perhaps.) All are friends and house guests of DON and GRACE WHITEHEAD on Lingren Blvd. Don, you had better do some fishing now.

Dr. & Mrs. M. M. USDIN and daughters, SALLY and ANNIE of Prairie Village, Kan. had heard of Sanibel and Captiva Islands for 20 years. A few days ago they arrived at Captiva Beach for a look-see. They are enchanted to say the least. Sally and Annie are avid shell collectors and have shells from many places all over the world. They have collected them personally tho they are only 12 and 14 years of age. How about that! They are now on the first leg of a long cruise that will include many of the Caribbean Islands.

Mr. & Mrs. RUSSELL PLUM of Westville, N.J. are staying at the West Wind Treadway. They just hate to think of leaving the lovely beaches, shells and friendly Islanders.

Mr. & Mrs. ROBERT HEMPHILL of Carlinville, Ill. are at Mid Island Inn for several weeks. They've been here before and love it so well they have bought property and plan to build a home very soon. They are a wonderful asset to Captiva.

Mr. & Mrs. TOM BURKE from Chicago, Ill. are at the Gallery for a nice long vacation. They have found many interesting shells to add to their collection. They are members of a Shell Club in their area.

Mrs. HELEN YAST from Oak Park, Ill. is back on lovely Sanibel for her ninth trip. She is very interested in the Island, our shells, birds and foliage.

BILL and HELEN SUCH of East Gulf Drive are entertaining their family, HELEN and DANE JORGENSEN and the three grandchildren from up Jersey way. Sanderlin will be a busy place and keep Pop Pop running.

Mr. & Mrs. HALDAN GREGORY of Decatur, Ill. are here for a long visit. This is their 13th year here. Mrs. Gregory is the sister of CECIL HUDSON.

Mrs. H. R. STEVENSON and Mrs. RUTH STONE from Sun City Center, Fla., are at the Sandpiper Cottages to do some shelling and enjoy Thanksgiving with friends.

Mr. & Mrs. RUSSELL HAWKINS from Union City, Mich. are at Duggers Tropical Village. They have fallen in love with the Island and our weather.

Mr. HERBERT PURDY is home after a stay in Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mr. TOM WYNN and CAL RUSSELL RUPERT are both much improved.

Mrs. RUSSELL RUPERT is on the mend now.

SYLVIA BENDS of Hartford, Conn. and Miami, Fla. is on the Island for a visit. She attended the Sanibel-Captiva Shell Club meeting Monday night, Nov. 17 at Captiva Community Bldg. and saw two interesting films. She is the treasurer of South Florida Shell Club.

Other shellers here are Margaret Bergen and Helen Krause from Orlando. They have been interested in the Island shells and their protection for over ten years. They expect to return for a longer time in January, February and March.

Mr. & Mrs. A. W. WOOD from Cleveland, O. are back at Funks Gulf Breeze but will be in the Shell Basket after Thanksgiving. Mr. Wood is an avid hunter; bet they have duck for Thanksgiving.

On a return visit to the Blue Heron are Mr. & Mrs. E. D. YOUNG from Serren Hills, Ohio. They are in love with the Island. Mr. & Mrs. H. E. MCKENZIE from Sanford, Fla. are on a shelling trip here -- went out with Mc Quire from the Red Pelican this week.

At The Reef are Mr. & Mrs. HARRY RADER from New Brighton, Pa. for a bit of R&R.

LEONARD and VIOLET RENSCHAW, whose summer home is in Centerville, Md. are back at their Captiva home. Their summer wasn't very good. They were involved in an auto accident and had to be hospitalized and Mrs. Renschaw's eyes are still in serious condition.

ROBERT and RENA Mac ALISTER are at their home on Captiva after summering in So. Berlin, Mass.

Mrs. C. A. KALMAN is back on Sanibel after a summer in Springfield, Mass.

To The Islander:
Mr daughter, Zee, and I wish to express our thanks for all the cards and messages of sympathy from our many friends. Your loving thoughts were a great consolation to us and we deeply appreciate each and every one.
/s/ Mrs. Zelda P. Seigler

Mr. & Mrs. THOMAS J. MURPHY from Branchville, N.J. are staying in the Periwinkle Trailer Park after buying property here for a future home. Mrs. Murphy found her first golden olive.

Exclusive Living on SANIBEL

SUNSET SOUTH GARDEN APARTMENT CONDOMINIUM

The Sunset South Condominium concept is one frankly aimed at providing exclusive luxury living for a compatible few, in deliberate contrast to the current trend of city-type, cliff-dwelling, highrise structures. These are spacious two bedroom, 2 bathroom apartments with just 4 units to a building. Our master plan of only 14 buildings will limit occupancy to a select few, 7 are already under construction. Sound clubby? It is! With private fresh water pool, cabanas, putting green, club house, etc. --- the works. You'll have the new Country Club and Golf Course on one side and the wide, sparkling white sandy beach of the Gulf of Mexico on the other.

There is still time to qualify. Price range --- $35,500 to $49,500.

MEALS FOR MILLIONS

There's a beautiful set of drapes and two pillow tops waiting for some one at the Pirate Playhouse who will give a tidy check to "Meals for Millions Foundation" which feeds the hungry all over the world. The drapes have a rich white background with a bright blue and gold motif. Phone GR 2-3943, Ruth Hunter.

To The Islander:

I think it's time for a correction. Some weeks ago the Islander stated that I was in the hospital for surgery. This week it says I'm recuperating at home. I was not in the hospital nor am I now recuperating at home. ALL of the above should have been about my husband, MARTY.

I happen to be enjoying a wonderful rest at the above named Inn (Christmas Farm Inn, Jackson, N.H.) which I am taking care of for the owners, our friends Doris and Dick Welch, who are having a much needed vacation in Florida. I will be returning to Sanibel the middle of December.

Doors will open promptly at ten o'clock next Saturday, Nov. 29 at the Community House for the annual Christmas Bazaar and White Elephant Sale sponsored by the Ladies Guild of Sanibel Community Church.

There will be booths for plants, homemade food items, Christmas gifts, sewing, white elephants, and a Food and Coffee Bar.

The members of the Guild have been preparing for the Bazaar since last year's event and assure everyone that this year it will be even bigger and better than ever. Leave that turkey in the refrigerator and bring your weekend company to the Bazaar. Do some Christmas shopping and then have a delicious sandwich and homemade dessert for lunch. See you at the Bazaar!

MOLES VS. GRASSHOPPER

It was inevitable; there was no question about it; it was bound to happen, the grasshopper insisted. The grasshopper was adamant.

The cricket moles shook their heads and twisted their feelers around, as much to say that the grasshopper was daffy.

After all, that road has been like that for years and an age, holes, ruts, dips, water in huge puddles, in fact, ponds was a better word, and one could scoot in and out among the weeds, grass, dive in the pools of water during the rains, sit and watch the cars go by and splash one another, listen to the humans swear and fuss at one another and grumble about the road, the holes, no way to run the water off! Then that stupid grasshopper tried to tell us that those big machines that had come on the Island and parked in a bunch were going to change everything.

Well the cricket moles decided to wait until morning and then have a good laugh at the grasshopper when the machines moved away. Old Herman Mole, a patriarch of considerable renown and whose mental alertness had been used time and again said: Quote -- I have lived here on Periwinkle since a baby mole and it was always like this and always will be, mark my word -- end of quote.

But lo and behold, on the new day the motors started on the bulldozer, the graders, loaders, trucks and men (those hated humans) went to work.

"Do you know that bulldozer cut right into our homes and yards," said Benny Cricket Mole. "Not only that, they came with a front loader and scooped up the dirt, soil, grass, flowers and my bed and dumped it in a truck and drove off with it. Why, some of my cousins hardly got away with their lives. It was awful.

"My uncle Cliff and my brother JoJo and of course Mamma went back from the street about 25 feet and watched with perturbation as the humans, trucks, dozers, front loaders slowly inched their way along the highway.

"Tears dropped slowly from all our tiny eyes as inch by inch our homes, playgrounds, gardens, and food storage slowly disappeared. To make matters worse my sister, Deborah Cricket Mole piped up and said, "Oh no! Look who's coming around to say I told you so." And that's who it was, Johnny Grasshopper. Did he ever gloat!"

I can tell you this much, the grasshopper was right. They did dig it out and they cut down trees, leveled it off, graded it so the water would run off and then, believe it or not, just as Johnny said, they put blacktop on it, widened the road and rolled it to a beautiful finish and now you can drive down Periwinkle Road and believe me, it is a pleasure.

Our northern friends will really be surprised when they come down and see the wonderful job these men did from Limgren Blvd. to Tarpon Bay Road, even tho the moles didn't like it!

REDFISH BONANZA

On their latest outing aboard the Blue Heron, Clarence Rutland and Mario Hutton had the thrilling experience of running into a school of hungry bull reds. In about 30 minutes a total of 44 channel bass averaging over 20 pounds each were boated, and Mario and Clarence reeled in about 10. To top off this successful exploit, Uncle Clarence won the daily jackpot with a hefty grouper for the second time in his last four tries.

SOMEWHERE
GENERATION GAP!!!

Dear Goldie,
Why do women always try to look younger than they are? I'm a man of 55 and I'm enjoying my aging years as well as I did my younger years. The wrinkles I have I feel I earned and I'm proud of them.
/s/ Old and Happy

Dear Old and Happy,
First off, 55 certainly isn't "old" unless you wish to make it so. Secondly, each and every one of us has a right to dress and look as we like - even a women!
* * * * *

Dear Goldie,
My mother is constantly borrowing my clothes. She doesn't take care of them and I usually get them back with stains or a cigarette burn. How do you ask your mother to keep hands off your clothes without causing an argument?
/s/ Naked Daughter

Dear Daughter,
It's so refreshing to hear of the shoe being on the other foot for a change! However, since you don't want to fight, either move out or put up with the inevitable - OR lose 10 pounds.

THE ISLAND CHEF

HOLIDAY SEAFOOD SALAD

- 2 lbs. fresh Florida lobster tails
- 1 lb. fresh Florida deveined, shelled raw shrimp
- 1 fresh Kingfish steak, weighing about 8 oz.
- 1 1/2 lbs. steamed clams in shell
- 1 envelope Italian salad dressing mix
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup olive oil or vegetable oil
- 1/3 cup chili sauce
- Chicory or curly endive
- 1 medium size green pepper, halved, seeded, and cut in strips

Cook lobster tails in boiling salted water, drain, cool until easy to handle. With scissors, cut through the thick membrane on underside of shell and remove. Take out lobster meat by peeling hard shell back with fingers of one hand and pulling meat towards you with the other. Leave small tails whole; split large ones in half. Place in a large shallow dish.

Cook shrimp, drain. Place in dish with lobster.

Simmer kingfish, covered, in boiling salted water in a large frying pan 10 minutes, or until fish flakes easily; remove from water. Place in dish with other seafoods. Chill.

Drain juice from clams into a cup; rinse clams in cold water to remove any sand grains; chill clams.

Combine salad dressing mix with vinegar and 2 tablespoons of the clam juice in a jar with a tight lid; shake well to mix. Add olive oil and chili sauce; shake again; chill.

When ready to serve, line 4 scallop shells or individual salad bowls with chicory or curly endive. Remove skin and bones from kingfish; cut in 1-inch squares. Arrange kingfish, lobster, shrimps, and clams in shells or bowls, dividing evenly. Garnish each with green pepper strips. Serve dressing separately to spoon over all.
