1880's Liberty Head
$5 Gold Half Eagle

With so much recent growth in the collecting hobby, and with precious metals so highly coveted, historic U.S. gold coins are in greater demand than ever before. That's why these 1880's Liberty Head $5 half eagles are such outstanding values for collectors. Struck in 90% gold and carefully preserved in near Mint State condition, this $5 half eagle design bears just the slightest wear on the highest points yet remains affordably priced.

The Liberty Head $5 gold piece was the only coin struck at all 7 former and current U.S. Mints. These 1880's issues, struck over 120 years ago, and are still in About Uncirculated condition. Liberty with a coronet inscribed LIBERTY is on the obverse, while the reverse bears an eagle with shield, the denomination (FIVE D.), and IN GOD WE TRUST on a banner above. This favorite classic U.S. $5 gold piece can be yours today!

Our representatives are always ready to help you!

Littleton's Customer Service staff is dedicated to assuring your complete satisfaction, and to making your coin collecting hobby easy, convenient, affordable and fun! If you have any questions about our selections or services, or about your order or account, simply call our cordial Customer Service representatives at 1-800-645-3122 – they are always eager to help.

This catalog replaces all previous Profit Share catalogs.

Due to fluctuations in the coin market, Share values listed within this publication are subject to sudden change without notice. Availability of some items may be limited. Paper Shares remain valid until their printed expiration date. Electronic Profit Shares never expire for active customers. However, Shares will expire on accounts dormant for more than five years. Shares do not represent money and are non-transferable.

OUTSTANDING VALUES – FOR LESS THAN 4,000 SHARES

Scarce! 1930s Pay Warrant Sets

From Charleston, S.C.

Now own a genuine 5-note set of South Carolina Pay Warrants – emergency currency of the Great Depression. During that time, businesses, towns and local governments across America were experiencing currency shortages. So when Charleston, SC couldn't pay city employees or meet other financial obligations, it found temporary relief by issuing these $1, $5 and $10 Pay Warrants (or scrip notes) in 1932 and '33.

- Enjoy 5 historic notes
- Set includes 3 large and 2 small-size Pay Warrants
- All issued for less than 9 months
- Each piece hand signed by the paymaster and controller, and cancelled with either 2 punch holes or clipped corners

Add this historic set of Depression-era scrip to your collection!

Consecutively numbered $5 Star Notes

Anyone will appreciate the “celestial qualities” of these scarcer, seldom-seen star notes! Featuring a star next to their serial numbers, these collector favorites replace notes damaged during production. They’ll get three 1999 $5 Federal Reserve Star Notes with consecutive serial numbers – printed at Fort Worth and issued by the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank (only 2.3% of notes from the Chicago facility are Star Notes). The design, featuring a large Lincoln portrait and the Lincoln Memorial, was printed for just over 18 months and has been replaced. All 3 Star Notes are Choice Crisp Uncirculated, so order this consecutive set today!

Certified Carson City Morgans in GSA Holders

Just 2% of all Morgans were struck at Carson City and before that mint closed its doors in 1893, and less than 25% of those are in government holders. Offering scarcity, rich history and collector interest, "CC" dollars in the holders are in far greater demand than those that are not.

Only 122,708 of the 1881-CC Morgans were sealed in holders, and you can now own an 1881-CC dollar in a GSA holder in NGC-certified Gem Uncirculated MS-65 condition! Carson City coinage was suspended from April to October 1881, so these coins feature the 2nd lowest early-years mintage. They're considered the most sharply struck "CC" Morgans!

Byzantine/Islamic Oil Lamp

Unearthed in the Holy Land, these 1,000- to 1,500-year-old lamps once lit the homes of ancient families – and considering their age, they're still in remarkable condition! We selected these from a larger lot, choosing only those with attractive designs and higher quality. Each distinctive lamp was formed when clay was pressed by hand into decorative molds, then fired and glazed, so no two are exactly alike. Artifacts of great historical significance, these one-of-a-kind pieces are sure to add intrigue and fascination to your collection. Display stand included.

Due to the age, and that glaze is no longer present, lamps cannot be used to burn.

Barber Type Set marks the end of a coinage tradition

Nowadays, U.S. coinage shows various designs on the obverse. But at the turn of the 20th century, most of our coins featured the classic Liberty Head. This was the era of Charles Barber's coinage.

Treasured for its history, low mintage, and classic beauty, this coinage grows more elusive with each passing day. That's why you'll want this type set. You'll get 4 different denominations from 1883-1916 (dates our choice) in Average Circulated condition, each bearing Barber's beloved Liberty Head design. Included is the famed "V" nickel, plus three 90% silver issues: the dime, quarter, and half dollar. Order today!
