6th Grade Honor Band Conductor—Kevin Sady

Mr. Kevin Sady grew up in Gardnerville, Nevada and was involved band all through middle and high school. He attended the University of Southern California on scholarship and studied trombone with Dr. Terry Cravens. Mr. Sady then transferred to the University of Nevada where he studied with Dr. Mack McGrannahan and attained his Bachelors and Masters degrees in Music Education. He started his teaching career at Pau-Wa Lu Middle School in Douglas County and transferred to Galena High School where he has taught since 2006.

Mr. Sady runs the award winning concert, jazz and marching bands at Galena High School, runs field show competitions, chaired local honor bands, honor jazz bands, and is chairman for the Nevada Music Educators Association All-State Band. Mr. Sady has had the pleasure of being the guest conductor at Lake Tahoe Music Camp and honor bands all over northern Nevada. Mr. Sady also has a private trombone studio and is the principle trombonist for the Reno Pops orchestra. He has played for the Reno Wind Symphony, and substituted for the Reno Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Reno Jazz Orchestra.

Middle School Honor Band Conductor—James Mazzaferro

Mr. James Mazzaferro is currently director of instrumental music at Sheldon High School, located in the Elk Grove Unified School District. His teaching assignment includes Marching Band, Concert Band, Symphonic Band, String Orchestra, Monday-Friday Jazz Band, Tuesday-Thursday Jazz Band, and Advanced Placement Music Theory. He has also been the conductor of the Cosumnes River College Orchestra, a position he has held since 1999. He is also the Camp Director/Artistic Director of Cazadero Music Camp, a summer music camp for musicians in grades five through high school.

Mr. Mazzaferro received his Bachelor's degree in Music Education from San Francisco State University, playing in the Symphonic Band under the direction of Edwin C. Kruth, and served as Principal Bassist in the University Symphony under the direction of Lazlo Varga. He received his Master's degree in Instrumental Conducting from California State University, Sacramento, studying conducting under Robert Halseth. He is a multiple recipient of "Who's Who Among America's Teachers. He was named 2005 Teacher of the Year in the Elk Grove Unified School District and in 2009 was named as a Crystal Apple recipient as an outstanding educator in the EGUSD by LDS students from Sheldon High School. In 2009, he was recognized by the Sacramento Area Theater Association with an "Elly" Award for his musical direction of Sheldon's production of "Bye Bye Birdie." In 2012, he was one of eight High School Band Directors in the country that were named a Bandworld Legion of Honor Laureate by the John Philip Sousa Foundation.

High School Honor Band Conductor—Dr. Edward C. Harris

Dr. Edward C. Harris is the Director of Bands at San José State University. He received his Bachelor of Music degree in music education, and Master of Arts degree in clarinet performance from San Francisco State University. He received his Doctor of Arts degree in conducting and clarinet performance from the University of Northern Colorado. He served as Director of Instrumental Music at Sequoia High School in Redwood City, California from 1971 to 1978.

Under Dr. Harris' direction, the San Jose State University Wind Ensemble has gained wide recognition for its diverse and creative programs. He has served as President of the Western Division of the College Band Directors' National Association and has been on the Board of Directors for the California Band Directors Association and California Music Educators Association. In 1995, Dr. Harris was honored to receive the "Stairway of the Stars" Award from the City of Santa Monica for distinguished contributions to the arts in California. In 2003, he was honored with the Gilbert T. Freitas Memorial Award for Music Education from the California Music Educator's Association Bay Section and the CMEA Don Schmeer/Byron Hoyt Band Educator Award honoring excellence in instrumental instruction and performance. He received the 2006 CMEA John Swain College/University Educator Award for his progressive leadership at San Jose State University. In 2010, Dr. Harris was named the "Music Educator of the Year" by the Bay Section of the California Music Educators Association, and he received an Abby Award for distinguished arts leadership from the Silicon Valley Arts and Business Association. In 2011, he was elected into the prestigious American Band Masters Association.

Dr. Harris was appointed the conductor and artistic director for the San Jose Wind Symphony: one of California's premiere concert bands with performances at the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles Conference, the California Music Educators Association Conference. As a professional clarinetist, Dr. Harris has performed with the Greeley Philharmonic in Colorado, the Pacific Symphony in California, and the Modesto Symphony. His primary teachers include Robert McGinnis of the New York Philharmonic, Donald Carroll of the San Francisco Symphony, and Dorrace Stalvey of Los Angeles.
