A Harley-Davidson® motorcycle had drifted over 4,000 miles across the Pacific Ocean after being washed away during the devastating tsunami that struck Japan in 2011. At the request of its owner, Ikuro Yokoyama, the remains of this 2004 Harley-Davidson® Night Train™ is on display at the Harley-Davidson Museum® as a memorial to the tragedy that claimed more than 15,000 lives.

The Big Reveal

"Brian Urlacher and RESTORE shock the world with newly regrown hair."

After nearly 15 months of keeping a lid on his hair growth, on January 5th, 2016 Brian Urlacher revealed his new hair to the world. The reveal went viral, being covered by over 600 media outlets and ended up trending number 1 on Twitter and Facebook.

On that day Brian reportedly received a staggering 1,100 text messages and phone calls from friends and family. Until that day, Brian told nobody outside of his immediate family.
