TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wis 2:12, 17-20; Ps 54:3-4, 5, 6-8;
Jas 3:16—4:3; Mk 9:30-37

Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist,
there is disorder....

James 3:16

Chaos and disease are companions of disorder. These are not the gifts we seek, yet each of us has probably experienced their detrimental power in our lives. In your prayer today, take a long, honest look at your enemies of peace. What kind of chaos exists in your life that you would like to replace with the gifts that wisdom brings?

Wisdom comes from above, James says. It is peaceable and gentle—filled with mercy and all sorts of good fruits. What are the good fruits that wisdom brings?

Wars within and without do not come from wisdom. The conflicts among us and within us often come from making wrong choices. Perhaps if we would prayerfully listen to our conflicts, trying to discern what they need, we would know how to pray and what to ask for in our prayer.

O Prince of Peace, may all wars and conflicts cease!

Sr. Macrina Wiederkehr,
O.S.B. Living Faith, Terence
Hegarty, Editor

“You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain; you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.”

James 4:2-3

St. James warns each one of us against the dangers of materialism. In fighting the materialism in our culture, I must ask myself not only, “What do I own?” But more importantly, “What owns me?” What is the one thing I possess that I could not live without? This is what owns me.

Have you remembered St. Joseph in your will?

Marriage Moment

“Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from” (James 4:1) Couples fight about many different things—money, whose job it is to clean up, the kids... Identify your top gripe of today and decide to let it go. Is one day of peace too hard?

Parenting Pointer

The 4th Monday of September is national Eat Dinner Together Day. Maybe you always (or mostly) eat dinner together. Good. If so, talk about something like favorites (food, dessert, toys, vacation...) If not, eat together today or as often as possible this week.
