Pastor's Reflection:

Reflexión del Párroco:

Joy of Easter: The word Easter was derived from an Anglo-Saxon term referring to the dawn. The Latin variation, Pascha, is from the word Passover. It is not hard to see why Easter is connected with the dawn as it is a celebration of light. By His resurrection, Christ has overcome the darkness of sin and death. Jesus Christ said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." [Jn. 8:12] We are called to live in the light of our redemption. The Easter season, which will last until the Solemnity of Pentecost, is a powerful reminder that we are a people of hope. In the midst of world, community and family problems, we should never forget the light and joy of the resurrection of Christ and the promise of eternal life. The resurrection is a reminder that our Lord has won the victory for us.

Easter is the day when Christians around the world celebrate the victory of the Lord. My prayers are with our parish staff, our parishioners, our extended family members and guests at this joyful celebration.

Of special importance are those who have celebrated Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. May the Lord bless all of you this year at Easter and throughout the Easter Season.

Alleluia! HE HAS RISEN!

In peace,

Fr. Mark

The Priests and Staff of St. Therese wish you a Blessed Easter!

Alegría de Pascua: La palabra Easter se deriva de un término anglosajón refiriéndose al amanecer. La variación en Latín, Pascha, es de la palabra Pascua. No es difícil ver por qué la Pascua está conectado con el amanecer, que es una celebración de la luz. Por su resurrección, Cristo ha vencido las tinieblas del pecado y de la muerte. Jesucristo dijo: "Yo soy la luz del mundo. El que me sigue no andará en tinieblas, sino que tendrá la luz de la vida." [Jn 8:12] Somos llamados a vivir en la luz de nuestra redención. La temporada de Pascua, que se prolongará hasta la solemnidad de Pentecostés, es un poderoso recordatorio de que somos un pueblo de esperanza.

En medio de los problemas del mundo, comunitarios y familiares, no debemos olvidar la luz y la alegría de la resurrección de Cristo y la promesa de la vida eterna. La resurrección es un recordatorio de que nuestro Señor ganó la victoria para nosotros.

Pascua es el día en cuando los cristianos de todo el mundo celebran la victoria del Señor. Mis oraciones están con nuestro personal de la parroquia, nuestros feligreses, sus familiares e invitados en esta gozosa celebración.

De especial importancia son los que han celebrado los Sacramentos de Iniciación en la Pascua. Que el Señor bendiga a todos ustedes este año en la Pascua y durante todo el tiempo de Pascua.

¡Aleluia! ¡Ha resucitado!

En paz,

Padre Marcos

MONTH 6 – Developing Baby -- I’m Sitting Up Straight Now! Spiritual Adoption Program

Your spirituality adopted baby is developing quite beautifully now. Her weight is approaching 2 pounds. She sits up straight now to accommodate her internal organs which have moved into their final place in her little body. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed. Don't forget to pray for your baby. In Maryland abortion is legal through all nine months and her mom might still feel pressure to abort.

Family Time

QUESTION:

If you could change one thing about the way Easter is celebrated in your family, what would it be?

FAITH TIP:

Bunnies, eggs, lilies, and lambs—these Easter symbols are all signs of new life. Why not engage your family in looking for signs of new life all around you? This Easter weekend, if possible, get outside and see the natural world bursting forth. Let nature be your religion teacher this week.

MEALTIME PRAYER:

Dear God,
Thank you for the beauty of springtime, for all of creation bursting forth from its winter sleep. Help me to see you, God, in the world that is coming to life this spring.
Amen.
