JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY—

As the liturgical year--and this Jubilee Year of Mercy--unfold, we reflect on what Jesus' ascension meant for the first disciples and means now for us. Stay in Jerusalem, Jesus had instructed, awaiting "the promise of the Father. In a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:4-5, 8). Despite Jesus' absence, they wait "with great joy... continually in the temple praising God" (Luke 24:52-53). But as we join them, waiting and worshiping, the enduring challenge--theirs and ours--is delivered by "two men in white" (Acts 1:10). In every age, disciples must stop looking at the sky, head down the mountain, and go back into the world, "commissioned," says Pope Francis, "to announce the mercy of God, the beating heart of the Gospel," inviting everyone to find "in our parishes, communities, associations and movements... wherever there are Christians... an oasis of mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,

Because the bishops of our region transferred the Solemnity of the Ascension to the following Sunday, this weekend we celebrate the Lord Jesus' return to heaven to sit in glory at the right hand of the Father. The Scripture readings remind us that there are some important implications for us as disciples of the Lord. Both in the Gospel text from St. Luke and in the first reading from the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, we are given the mandate to become witnesses. "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). The Greek word for 'witness' in this text and elsewhere in the New Testament comes from the root word for martyr. Like the first disciples, we probably feel inadequate or afraid to assume such an awesome responsibility. This is why Jesus reminds us that we will be given the gift of the Holy Spirit (whose feast we will celebrate next weekend at Pentecost) to enable us to be credible witnesses before the world. As we continue to read the Acts of the Apostles, we discover that many of the first disciples eagerly responded to the Lord's mandate and witnessed courageously to their faith and some to the point of offering their lives as martyrs.

There is no question that Jesus leaves the Church with a strong mandate! His command implies that we are to undergo a conversion of heart, change our lives, and follow in his footsteps. Like the early disciples we frequently give in to the temptation to delay our response to this invitation of Jesus. In the account in the Acts of the Apostles two heavenly messengers challenged those early followers to respond in action: "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?" Isn't that a common experience in our lives as Christians? We tend to stand around postponing our active involvement in the life of our parish community. What is holding us back from becoming fully engaged in being witnesses of the Lord in the world and activating the power of the Holy Spirit whom we received at Baptism and renewed at Confirmation? The mission that Jesus entrusts to the Church is nothing less than the continuation of his own work on earth of announcing the Good News, building up the Kingdom of God, and witnessing to God's compassion and love for each and every person. We do this primarily through the very lives we live. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful! Light the fire of your love within us! Help us to become credible witnesses of the mission of Jesus Christ in our community.

Fr. Chester Borski

St. Martha Catholic School Local Advisory Board Discernment

Each year we conduct a "discernment process" (a guided experience of prayer and shared reflections) to select new members to serve on our parish School Advisory Board. This is a wonderful opportunity to exercise your stewardship gift of talent. The term of service is three years.

ONE OF THE BEST KEPT SECRETS AT ST. MARTHA

Did you know that you have a "Second Family" just waiting for the opportunity to share an hour or two visiting in your home, to help with simple errands, deliver a meal or to offer a ride to an appointment? If you didn't, that's no surprise to us! For eleven years the Second Family Ministry has been one of the best kept secrets in our parish. And now we are spreading the word about what a great ministry this is! You might consider discovering the joy of letting someone into your life by offering to help out just a little bit. Or, you might like to join the Second Family Care Team and reach out to another member of the congregation who would benefit from your "bite sized commitment". As always, the blessings flow both ways, and we learn that through simple tasks relationships are built and lives are changed. Please help spread the word. We are asking that you be the eyes and ears and perhaps even the hands and feet of this wonderful ministry. Tell your friends, be alert to special needs and phone if you know someone that would benefit from having a Second Family, or if you would like to have a Care Team. And, finally, prayerfully consider joining this ministry and see what a difference a few hours a month can mean to someone who is home alone, can no longer drive, is caring for a loved one or is isolated and a bit lonely. To learn more about the vision and the work of your Second Family Care Team at St. Martha, phone Martha Busch 281-728-7159 or e-mail stmartha2ndfamily@gmail.com.

We are pleased to announce that St. Martha will offer the Light Weigh One King program starting Monday, June 6th. Light Weigh One King is a twelve-week Bible Study- DVD series, designed for small group use. Class time will be Monday nights from 6:30-8:00. We will focus on how to unite with Christ in order to overcome temptation.

Spiritual health and physical health are connected! Jesus has the answer to every problem we face and nothing is too hard for us when we turn to Him! Light Weigh One King techniques have been by the grace of God, used by tens of thousands of people to overcome struggles with food, alcohol, Internet addiction, shopping, blood sugar problems, nail biting, depression, anxiety, anorexia, bulimia and other addictions.

Light Weigh One King teaches peace with food. Peace with food is not a diet, peace with food is when you get to the place where you enjoy food, but food no longer has control over you. Peace with food is possible through uniting to Jesus Christ. There will be NO WEIGH-INS at these meetings! That is not what this program is about!

Please view the 30 minute Orientation video that is found at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fS6YLpYD22Y> We hope that you will join us for the Light Weigh One King twelve-week bible study. ## Ministerio Hispano

Ascensión del Señor Reflexión sobre el Jubileo de la Misericordia:

La sexta obra de misericordia corporal es: Socorrer a los presos. La privación de nuestra libertad es uno de los castigos más severos que existe. La sociedad es corresponsable en muchos de los crímenes. Uno de los ministerios menos acudidos es el de visitar a los prisioneros en cárceles y centros de detención, se necesitan más voluntarios para poderlo hacer bien. Aún si no los puedes visitar, todos podemos rezar por ellos, por su conversión y por sus familias y víctimas. Jesús le dijo a San Faustina: "Mientras más grande sea el pecador, mayor derecho tiene para Mi Misericordia". La oración es un muy poderosa y todos la podemos usar. También es muy importante el ayudar a nuestros hermanos, que aunque no están físicamente en alguna cárcel, son presos de algo: Sus pasiones, la tecnología, sus vicios, etc. Mucha gente necesita la ayuda de otros para poder liberarse de aquello que los mantiene atrapados y nos los deja vivir de acuerdo a lo que Dios nos manda. Seamos misericordiosos con ellos.

Compromiso de la semana: Rezaré por las personas que están en prisiones y centros de detención.
