THE BERKSHIRE MUSIC CENTER

In the years since 1940 the Music Center, under the leadership of Serge Koussevitzky, Charles Munch, Erich Leinsdorf, and now Seiji Ozawa, Gunther Schuller and Leonard Bernstein, has given experience, guidance and valuable training to more than 6,600 young musicians, including 710 from foreign countries. Its alumni are now members of hundreds of orchestras here and abroad (there are 41 alumni in the Boston Symphony Orchestra, 20 in the Philadelphia Orchestra and 15 in the New York Philharmonic), members of many opera companies, conductors of many orchestras (Leonard Bernstein, Seiji Ozawa, Michael Tilson Thomas, Lorin Maazel, Lukas Foss and Zubin Mehta among them), heads of many schools (The Juilliard School, Eastman School of Music, Interlochen Academy of the Arts), and performers and teachers in all parts of the world. Without the aid and support of the Friends of Music at Tanglewood, the Boston Symphony Orchestra could never have supported the Center for these years.

As the 1972 season comes to a close, the Trustees and Overseers of the Orchestra acknowledge with grateful appreciation all those who have supported the Berkshire Music Center during this its thirtieth session. With their continued support the Center will maintain the highest standard of musical excellence in training the outstanding young talents of the day.

TALCOTT M. BANKS
President
