TODAY'S PREVIEW

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – Legendary head coach John Wooden wrote the book, “Coach Wooden’s Pyramid of Success: Building Blocks for a Better Life,” consisting of 15 building blocks for success.

Success, Wooden wrote, is built block by block and those individual blocks together form the structure of the pyramid of success. Entering its 15th year as a program, the Arkansas gymnastics team has adopted that very same philosophy for this upcoming season.

Fittingly, Wooden was the head men’s basketball coach at UCLA for three decades and roamed the sidelines of Pauley Pavilion, the same venue where the 17th-ranked Razorbacks will begin their 2017 season by facing the fourth-ranked UCLA Bruins on Saturday at 6 p.m. CT on Pac-12 Los Angeles.

“This is not a sprint; it’s a marathon,” head coach Mark Cook said. “Every year, we have one of the hardest schedules in the country. We have faced hard teams in the past in the first meet of the season. We have faced LSU in Cancun, Mexico, and the list goes on and on.”

Saturday’s meet is also a homecoming for Cook, who began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at UCLA from 1995-97, helping lead the Bruins to two Pac-10 titles, three NCAA Regional championships and their first NCAA Championship in 1997. He came to Arkansas in May 2001 to build the Razorback program from scratch and he’s now entering his 15th season at the helm.

“The team wants to go out there and represent ourselves well, be competitive and really put the pressure on them as much as possible,” Cook said. “We have beaten them before several times. We knocked them out of NCAA Nationals right here in Barnhill Arena several years ago. We’re excited to go out there. We’re just going to go out there and compete hard.”

Arkansas, picked No. 17 in the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women (NACGC/W) preseason coaches’ poll released in December, returns eight gymnasts from last year’s team that went 12-12, including 4-3 in Southeastern Conference action.

The Razorbacks were sixth at the SEC Championship and finished third at the NCAA Iowa City Regional. The season was highlighted by several program records and top-10 wins over No. 4 Alabama and No. 9 Auburn.

This year’s team is led by a trio of seniors who have each earned All-SEC honors: Heather Elswick, Samantha Nelson and Amanda Wellick, who is also a two-time All-American and qualified for the NCAA Championships as an individual in 2014 and 2016.

GYMBACK BUBBLES

Mark Cook was voted 2016 SEC Co-Coach of the Year with Florida’s Jenny Rowland. Three Arkansas gymnasts in Samantha Nelson, Amanda Wellick and Paige Zaziski earned All-SEC honors in 2016, and Nelson and Wellick both return for the Razorbacks in 2017.

Five returning Arkansas gymnasts in Heather Elswick, Sydney McGlone, Samantha Nelson, Braie Speed and Amanda Wellick have claimed individual event titles in their career, combining for 20 individual titles in 2016 and 39 individual titles overall in their careers.

Amanda Wellick is a two-time All-American, earning second team honors in 2015 and 2016. She qualified for NCAA Nationals as an individual in 2016, scoring a 39.300 in the all-around to finish seventh in the evening session and 16th among all competitors.

Arkansas has five incoming freshmen for the 2017 season. Michaela Burton from Illinois, Hailey Garner from Tennessee, Kirby Rathjen from Texas, Sarah Shaffer from Texas and Jessica Yamzon from Nevada. All five are expected to compete in all four events.

The 2017 SEC Gymnastics Championships will be held in Jacksonville, Florida, at Veterans Memorial Arena. Arkansas posted a 196.500 at the 2016 SEC Championships in North Little Rock, the team’s best score at the event in program history.

Arkansas has made 13 consecutive trips to the NCAA Regionals, which includes two NCAA Regional titles and two NCAA Super Six appearances. Arkansas will host an NCAA Regional in 2017 for the first time since 2014 and for the fifth time in program history.

Cook and Arkansas marked their 12-year anniversary in 2014 and celebrated the program's first NCAA Individual Champion, as Katherine Grable collected the NCAA title in both vault and floor exercise. In 2015, Cook led the Razorbacks to their 12th-consecutive NCAA Regional appearance and 10th-consecutive top-15 finish.

Cook came to Arkansas in May 2001 to build the Razorback program from scratch. He was consulted on the construction of one of the top practice facilities in the nation. He selected, ordered and assembled equipment; and helped fans and Northwest Arkansas quickly accept and learn about his sport. He was also scouting, recruiting and signing the first recruiting class in school history.
