YOUTH HELPLINE DIRECTORY

The purpose of the Helpline Directory is to help those who live and work in the El Paso area to find agencies that respond to health and human services, education, recreation and emergency needs. In addition to the name, address and contact, the agency entry outlines services, eligibility requirements, fees, operating hours, intake procedures and emergency assistance procedures.

Inclusion of an agency in the Directory does not imply endorsement of its purpose or quality by the El Paso Police Department or Youth Initiative Program and further disclaims any responsibility for the quality of the services provided by the listed and referenced agencies and shall not be liable as a result of the use of any of the services described in the Directory, subsequent revision or appendices.

To update agency changes or for information, please contact the Youth Initiative Program (YIP), Nell Tovar, Coordinator, at (915) 564-7256 or e-mail: TovarM@elpasotexas.gov.

MISSION STATEMENT: Our mission is to provide a highly skilled joint military force to the law enforcement and civilian community of Texas countering drug threats directed against our state and the U.S. and where legally feasible, domestically further the war on terrorism capitalizing on over 16 years of experienced law enforcement support.

PRIMARY FOCUS: The youth of Texas are the primary focus of Texas. Working with agencies throughout the state, the DDR Program seeks to educate, empower and create an environment where young people can make the right choices about drugs. Additionally, the DDR Program works with the state Substance Abuse Officer to educate members of the Texas National Guard and their families about the dangers of substance abuse and its detrimental effects.

OUR PROMISE: The Texas National Guard DDR Office is committed to serving the citizens of Texas. Organizations who think that the DDR Office or the soldiers and airmen of the Texas National Guard can assist them in their drug education and prevention efforts are encouraged to call. The DDR Office endeavors to assist as many organizations as its resources will allow. There is no such thing as a request that is either too large or too small; the DDR Office has supported requests from 3 to 3,000 people.

Seaborne Challenge Corps

A program of the Texas National Guard and Texas A&M University at Galveston

The Seaborne Challenge Corps operated by the Texas National Guard. The program provides education, training, career development and service to the community for at-risk youth who are not performing well in high school. Seaborne addresses the distressing economic and social problems that result when students drop out of school.

The Seaborne Challenge Corps, now in its tenth year, was incorporated into the National Guard Bureau's National Youth Challenge Program in July 1999 as the program's 26th state. Funding comes from the federal government, matching funds from the State of Texas, and private foundations.

The 17 1/2 month program is organized into two phases. During the Residential Phase the students actually live on the Seaborne campus for 5 1/2 months while undergoing training and completing the curriculum. Corps members receive daily academic and career development classes designed to prepare them for the General Education Diploma (GED), and also receive encouragement to continue their education beyond graduation or to enter military service. The first four weeks is called "Pre-Challenge" where students become acquainted with their new living arrangements, and the rules and expectations of the Challenge program. Students that pass Pre-Challenge are then invited to continue their education and training for the remaining 18 weeks, called "Challenge."
