

Zionsville Community Schools

2013 Transition Fair Vendors

Advocacy Groups/Parent education/information

accessABILITY Center for Independent Living: Justin Amber

- AccessABILITY is a center for Independent Living and a nonprofit organization working with people in their homes and communities to help them achieve a greater level of independence and community access. We also advocate with people w/disabilities to help them to establish and maintain control over their lives. We work w/decision makers on all levels, educating them on what is in the best interest of people w/disabilities. 317-926-1660, jamber@abilityindiana.org

Answers for Autism: Patty Reed

- We have several fundraising events though out the year to raise funds to promote the advancement of autism research and provide grants for programs in Indiana that serve individuals on the autism spectrum. And increase public awareness. 403-4308, phreed1@aol.com

The Arc of Indiana: Willaine St. Pierre Sandy, Jill Ginn

- The Arc of Indiana was established in 1956 by parents of children with intellectual and other developmental disabilities who joined together to build a better and more accepting world for their children. Today, the work of The Arc continues to:
 - Empower families with information and resources to assist them in their journey of raising a child with a disability to lead a full and meaningful life.
 - Empower people with intellectual and other developmental disabilities to be self sufficient and independent to the greatest extent possible.
 - Inspire positive change in public policy and public attitudes.
 - Reduce the incidence of disabilities.
 - Serve as a spokesperson and advocate for families and their loved ones.
 - www.arcind.org, 107 N. Pennsylvania Street, Suite 800, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, 317-977-2375 / 800-382-9100, 317-977-2380, smorris@arcind.org

About Special Kids (ASK): flyers available

- We are the place for families and professionals in Indiana to go to “ASK” questions about children with special needs and to access information and resources about a variety of topics such as health insurance, special education, community resources and medical homes. ASK is your connection to family support in the state of Indiana! (800) 964-4746, familynetw@abouthspecialkids.org, Cindy Robinson [cindy@abouthspecialkids.org]

Autism Society of Indiana: flyers available

- (800) 609-8449

Bosma Enterprises: Lisa Pace

- Bosma Enterprises is dedicated to empowering people who are blind or visually impaired by creating opportunities that lead to the achievement of each individual's employment, economic, social, and self-determination goals. 317.704.8196, lisap@bosma.org

Brain Balance Achievement Center: Rhonda Zollner

- Brain Balance is an individualized and comprehensive approach helping children with neurobehavioral and learning difficulties surmount their challenges. 317-843-9200, rzollner@brainbalancecenters.com

Buttermilk Mountain: Jodi Maslanka

- Buttermilk Mountain teams up with organizations to hold fun events for families with disabilities. jodi_maslanka@hotmail.com, 317.692.7509

CYACC-The Center for Youths and Adults w/ Conditions of Childhood: Matthew Brown

- The CYACC Clinic provides medical consultation and care coordination to youth ages 11-22 with special health care needs, as well as adults with specific needs due to their childhood illnesses or developmental disabilities. Our mission is to steer youth with special health care needs towards a successful transition to adult life. (317) 948-0061, CYACC@iupui.edu, mwb@indiana.edu

Children's Resource Group: David Parker, Ph.D./ & Dr. Dana Lasek

- CRG (Children's Resource Group) is a multidisciplinary practice that addresses the diagnostic, medical, educational, and therapeutic needs of children, adolescents, adults and their families. Our team of caring professionals includes clinical and school psychologists, psychiatrists, transition/educational and technology specialists, an ADD coach, and therapists. We specialize in assisting individuals with learning disorders, ADHD, mood disorders, and those with autism spectrum disorders (Asperger's). dparker@childrensresourcegroup.com, (317) 575-9111, ext. 146, www.ChildrensResourceGroup.com

Down Syndrome Indiana: Firany Briceno

- Down Syndrome Indiana serves individuals with Down syndrome and their families in Central Indiana and further supports the larger Down syndrome community. Our mission is to serve as a conduit of information, support and advocacy for individuals with Down syndrome and their families, which promotes growth and inclusion in the community. We will have books, post cards etc. with information about Down syndrome and the organization. 317-925-7617, firany@dsindiana.org

Family Voices of Indiana: Heather Dane

- Family Voices Indiana is a family-led organization that provides information, education, training, outreach, and peer support to families of children and youth with special health care needs and the professionals who serve them. 317-944-8982, his5@fvindiana.org

Governor's Council for Persons with Disabilities: Jan Bullington

- The Indiana Governor's Council is an independent state agency that facilitates change. Our mission is to promote public policy which leads to the independence, productivity and inclusion of people with disabilities in all aspects of society. This mission is accomplished through planning, evaluation, collaboration, education, research and advocacy. <http://www.in.gov/gpcpd/>

The Hope Source: Center for Dynamic Minds: Lisa Chandler & Julie Gordon

- The Hope Source Center for Dynamic Minds provides comprehensive treatment and family support services for children, adolescents and adults with autism. 317-578-0410, Julie@asdhopesource.com; lisa@asdhopesource.com

IN*SOURCE: (Indiana Resource Center for Families with Special Needs) Karen Rusk

- INSOURCE is a parent organization. We provide support and serve as a resource to parents who seek assistance navigating the special education process. 317.210.3171, www.insource.org; krusk@insource.org

Indiana Protection and Advocacy Services (IPAS): Bonnie L. Bomer

- Mission Statement: To protect and promote the rights of individuals with disabilities, through empowerment and advocacy.
- IPAS is a federally mandated and legally-based disability rights agency that was created in 1977 to protect and advocate for the rights of people with disabilities. IPAS is an independent State agency that ensures enforcement of the constitutional and statutory rights of people with disabilities throughout the State of Indiana. 317-722-3441, Bbomer@ipas.in.gov

Mark2Ministries: Aaron Scheffler

- Mark 2 Ministries exists to encourage and equip the local church to evangelize, disciple, and integrate people with disabilities into their congregation. (317) 777-8070, aaron@mark2ministries.org

Government Agencies & Employment Services

Children's Special Healthcare Services: Brenda Cockrell

- Indiana Children's Special Health Care Services provides supplemental medical coverage to help families of children who have serious, chronic medical conditions, age birth to 21 years of age, who meet the program's financial and medical criteria, pay for treatment related to their child's condition. 317.234.8212, bcockrell@ISDH.IN.Gov; <https://gateway.isdh.in.gov/CSHCS/index.html>

Indiana Works-Aspire Employment Services: Jeff Johnson

- Aspire, Indiana assists individuals with employment of their choice that meets their goals and expectations. Jeffrey.Johnson@aspireindiana.org, 765-641-8376

IPMG: Laura Vaught

- Waiver Presentation at 6:30-7:00
- IPMG (Indiana Professional Management Group) is a statewide provider of case management services for individuals who participate in the Community Integration and Habilitation Waiver and the Family Supports Waiver. 317-363-6230, l.vaught@gotoipmg.com

Vocational Rehabilitation: Monica Lawrence

- Provides services for individuals with disabilities to assist them with preparing for, seeking and maintaining employment. This is a voluntary program and not an entitlement and all services offered are free of charge. Monica.Lawrence@fssa.in.gov, 317-270-1005

Technology, Curriculum, & Community Resources

Close Education, LLC: Laura Close

- Close Education is the educational solution you have been looking for. We truly help all learners, pre-K through adult, reach their potential...fast. Our online diagnostic and instructional math and reading programs offer proven, quantifiable results in short timeframes. We teach reading and math by bringing the best instructional technology to each student at his or her particular level. Our products include diagnostic reading assessment and intervention, as well as adaptive, personalized instruction to close math skill gaps. www.closeeducation.com; laura@closeeducation.com, 877-432-2567

EYE Can See, Inc.: Greg Blackman

- EYE Can See, Inc. has been a provider of assistive technologies for visual impairments in Indiana for the last 15 years. Our mission is to meet the needs of our clients and give them their independence back. We have a demo center open to the public and we provide on-site demonstrations, presentations, training, delivery and setup for all of the products we represent along with Orientation & Mobility training. Demonstrations of assistive technology devices for visual impairments. www.eyecanseinc.com, 317-258-6747, greglowvision@gmail.com

Night Owl Support System: Chris Patterson & Aaron Samuel

- Night Owl provides Remote Monitoring for people with disabilities. We pair technology and remote care staff to provide safety and independence for people living in the community. 608-845-5008, chris@nightowlsupportsystems.com, chris@nosslic.com

PATINS Project: Jeff Bond/ PATINS Project Central Regional Site Coordinator

- The PATINS Project provides a state-wide technical assistance network to support local educational agencies in developing their capacity to provide assistive/accessible technology devices and services for students with special learning needs. 317-387-4154, www.patinsproject.com, cepatins@ciesc.k12.in.us

Toby Churchill, Ltd.: Craig Burns

- Toby Churchill provides keyboard-based augmentative communication devices. As a 40 year old company, based in the UK with a US office in Denver, CO, the company produces the Lightwriter and the Lightwriter Swift. The Lightwriter device has evolved into at state of the art keyboard speech generating device with robust word prediction and the new Lightwriter Swift is a handheld device with quick access to phrases. The Swift is ideal for quick trips where communication of targeted subject communication is needed, such as a trip to the grocery, doctor visits and classroom communication. Craig.burns@toby-churchill.com, 317-373-9039

Community-Based Extracurricular

Best Buddies: Emily Scharbrough/ Program Manager

- Best Buddies is a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. 317.436.8440 ext. 42, www.bestbuddiesindiana.org, amandaarmstrong@bestbuddies.org

Boys and Girls Club: Glen Sanford

- The Boys & Girls Club of Zionsville helps area youth develop the skills, fitness, and character they need to reach their full potential as productive, caring, and responsible citizens. 317-873-6670, gsanford@bagcoz.org

Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation/Monon Center: Brooke Taflinger, CTRS

- The Monon Community Center is part of Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation. Here at the center we offer a multitude of adaptive recreational programs. We provide programming in the following areas: sports, fitness, social enrichment, special events, arts and culture, and private therapies such as aquatics and recreation therapy. Each program is designed to meet the leisure needs and interest of each participant. We serve all ability levels of all ages. 317-573-5245, btaflinger@carmelclayparks.com; www.carmelclayparks.com

Eagle Recreation and Enrichment: Sue Gregerson

- ZCare is programming designed to wrap around your child's school experience. Programs include before and after school care, an extension of the kindergarten experience, summer day camp, and a myriad of exciting opportunities for students of all ages (K-12) through Eagle Recreation and Enrichment. (317)873-2858, sgregerson@zcs.k12.in.us

Morning Dove Therapeutic Riding Stables: Kate Murphy

- Our Mission is to enrich the lives of individuals in need, through a relationship with horses in a safe and natural setting. Morning Dove Therapeutic Riding offers equine-assisted therapy services to a wide range of participants with physical, mental and/or emotional disabilities. <http://morningdovetrc.org/>, 733-9393, katem@mdtrc.org

Special Olympics: Deb Easterday

- Special Olympics Indiana provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in more than 20 Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Boone County's program participates in almost all of the state sports and competitions with team sports like basketball and softball to individual endeavors in track and field events and bowling. Outreach is now including nutrition, fitness, social opportunities and general community awareness. romanns@sbcglobal.net, 918-4422

Post-secondary Education & Supports

Ball State University: Larry Markel

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- Ball State University's Office of Disabled Student Development (DSD) coordinates services and accommodations for over 600 students with disabilities. While the great majority of students with disabilities at Ball State are those with non-apparent disabilities such as learning disabilities, Ball State has a large population of students with physical or sensory disabilities, including over 40 students who are wheelchair users. DSD facilitates such services as: testing accommodations and classroom adaptations; adaptive technology; note-takers; sign language interpreters, and accessible housing. lmarkle@bsu.edu, 1-765-285-5293

CIP-College Internship Program: Tony Wiesman

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- CIP's comprehensive support system provides students on the autism spectrum and with learning differences with the opportunity to thrive in college, gain critical employment training and experience and learn to live independently.

- CIP's full year postsecondary programs provide individualized social, academic, career, and life skills instruction to young adults with Asperger's, ADHD, and Learning Differences. Our mission is to inspire independence and expand the foundation on which adults can build a happy and productive life.
- 812.323.0600 ext. 22, twiesman@cipbloomington.org

Ivy Tech Community College-Office of Disability Services: Summer Black

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- 317-921-4799, sblack26@ivytech.edu

IUPUI: Mercedes Cannon

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- 317-274-3241, mecannon@iupui.edu

J. Everett Light: Jenny Thomas, Special Education Coordinator

- The J. Everett Light Career Center provides high school juniors and seniors education and training needed to succeed in a chosen career and to bridge the gap between school and the work force. Our courses give students options that combine the theory of a particular career with hands-on practice. (317) 259-5265 EXT 44029, jmthomas@msdwt.k12.in.us

Manchester College: Bonnie O'Connell, Director of Academic Support/Resources

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- Considering going to college after high school? The Director of Academic Support/Resources for Students with Disabilities from Manchester College will provide information and answer questions to assist students and parents as they consider postsecondary options. BSOConnell@manchester.edu, 260-982-5888

Tangram Life Coaching: Steve O'dore

- Tangram Life Coaching provides guidance, consultation, and real action-orientated strategies for individuals struggling with life challenges. Designed for persons with learning differences, ADD, ADHD, Dyslexia, Asperger's, ineffective social skills, career challenges and more. 317-968-9049, sclossey@thetangramway.org

Vincennes University: Susie Laue

- Panel Discussion 6:00-7:00 in FC LGI
- 812-888-4212, slaue@vinu.edu

Educational Services

Learning RX: Lynne McCauley RN, BS

- LearningRX Cognitive Training Center focuses on pinpointing the underlying cause of learning issues and customizes cognitive training programs for each client so that the brain handles the information accurately and efficiently. Learning RX serves children & adults with learning, memory, and attention problems as well as those with dyslexia, autism spectrum disorders, traumatic brain injuries and dementia. Learning RX is an approved vendor for Voc. Rehab. Services.
Lynne@LearningRx.net, 317-845-1999

Project SEARCH: Melissa Rhodes & Deb Okotie

- Project SEARCH is an internship program for individuals with disabilities that is nationally and internationally recognized for innovative practices and a unique, employer-driven model. Our project is based at a health care facility/St. Vincent Carmel Hospital. Project SEARCH is for students between the ages 18-23 following their high school education. Deb.Okotie@nobleofindiana.org, 317-850-4071

Financial Planning

The ARC of Indiana Master Trust: Melissa Justice

- Regardless of your age, or your child's age or disability, planning for the future is important. The Arc of Indiana Master Trust is a special needs trust serving Hoosiers of all disabilities since 1988. 317-977-2375, mjustice@arcind.org

Family Financial Advisors: Tom Faulconer

- Offering fee-based financial planning services to those that need it most. Including special needs, retirement, insurance, and investment advice and wealth management services. Also offering wills and estate planning through Faulconer Law Office. 317-697-6795, tom@familyfinancialadv.com

MetLife Center for Special Needs Planning: Mary Alter & Leah Butler

- MetLife Center for Special Needs Planning is committed to helping families through the maze of legal and financial complexities surrounding planning for the future of dependents with special needs. Through a dedicated network of Special Needs Planners, the Center helps families secure both lifetime care and quality of life for their dependents with special needs. We can help families learn how to protect government benefit eligibility for Supplemental Security Income (SSI), create Special Needs Trusts & understand the importance of a will. ghomes@metlife.com, malter1@metlife.com, 317-567-2005, ncunning@financialpg.com, (317) 574-2930

National Foundation for Special Needs Integrity: Krista Frost

- As a national Pooled Special Needs Trust company, we specialize in the needs of persons with disabilities who receive means-tested government benefits, such as Medicaid and SSI. NFSNI provides a safe harbor to protect your settlement or non-litigation proceeds from being counted against you by these government benefit programs. kfrost@specialneedsintegrity.org, 317-841-8795

Adult Service Providers

Active Day Northwest: Clarissa Beelby

- Active Day/Senior Care represents the nation's largest network of adult day care centers, with more than 75 sites across the country serving more than 3,500 clients per day.
- Our centers, which are staffed by attentive and caring professionals, offer health care supervision, engaging activity programs and rehabilitative therapies in a comfortable, homelike environment. Our primary focus is helping our clients achieve a marked improvement in their overall quality of life, well-being and daily functioning while providing respite and peace of mind for their caregivers. www.activeday.com, 317-569-0014, crogers@activeday.com

The ACR of Greater Boone County: Marcia Clutter & Pat Sellman

- Arc Rehab is the only Boone County based Medicaid Waiver and Vocational Rehabilitation services provider for adults with disabilities in the Zionsville area. We have been advocating and providing facility and community based services for adults with disabilities for 41 years. www.arc rehab.org, psellman@thearcgbc.org, 317-482-6815

BACA: Sheila Habarad

- The Behavior Analysis Center for Autism (BACA) uses the principles and procedures of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) to teach language, social, self-help, academic, daily living and life skills to children and young adults with autism and related disorders throughout Indiana. BACA is committed to the continuous education and training of its staff by hosting regular seminars and training sessions from its esteemed clinical team. For more information, visit www.thebaca.com, 317.769-4335, shabarad@thebaca.com

Bridges of Indiana: Tiffany Smith

- Bridges of Indiana provides services for individuals with disabilities as well as the aging population emphasizing community integration, independence, and individualism. Bridges of Indiana believes that all people with disabilities have the right to choose where and with whom they live and work. Bridges of Indiana has a strong commitment to the rights, dignity, and freedom that people with disabilities share with everyone. Bridges of Indiana is a provider for the State of Indiana Medicaid Waiver Program. www.bridgesofindiana.com. 812-249-5039, marketing@bridgesofindiana.com

CICOA- Aging & In-Home Solutions: Kate Kunk, RN

- CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions empowers older adults, those of any age with a disability and family caregivers to achieve the greatest possible independence, dignity and quality of life. This mission is accomplished by implementation of a wide variety of services that include in-home assistance with activities of daily living, case management, transportation, information and referral, etc. kkunk@cicoa.org, (317) 803-6002

Cornerstone Associates: Jenna Metcalfe

- Our mission is to provide individual support, exemplary services and advocacy to individuals with disabilities of all ages in environments with the goal of promoting maximum independence, inclusion and personal choice. jmetcalfe@cornersassoc.com, (317)299-6088

Developmental Disabilities Systems, Inc./DDSi: Julie Williams

- DDSi was founded to serve the unique needs of people who have developmental disabilities to assist their attainment of life goals in a variety of settings. Services offered include assessment, behavior development, and training. This support is provided within a team context that stresses collaboration with family members and with staff of other agencies from which the consumer is receiving services. (317) 477-8240, jwilliams@ddsi-in.com

Disabilities Service Alternatives/DSA: Heather Godby

- A premier organization that provides residential supports and options. hgodby@dsa-in.com, 765-649-4247

Easter Seals-adult day services, INDATA: Anne Bohm & Carol Girt

- Easter Seals Crossroads has been providing assistive technology solutions in Indiana since 1979. In 2007, Easter Seals Crossroads partnered with the State of Indiana, Bureau of Rehabilitative Services to establish the Indiana Assistive Technology Act (INDATA) Project. The INDATA Project is one of 56 similar, federally-funded projects designed to increase access and awareness of assistive technology. INDATA core services include: Information and referral, funding assistance, public awareness and education, device demonstration, device loan, reutilized computers, and equipment reutilization. mmansfield@eastersealscrossroads.org; cgirt@eastersealscrossroads.org, 554-7810

Help at Home: Michael Rudolph

- Help at Home is a Home Health Agency that provides care for adults and children with Developmental Disabilities. We provide the following services; Residential , Community, Respite, Personal Attendant Care and Caregiver support. These services are intended to support individuals in acquiring skills and participating in community life according to their own interests and abilities.
- (317) 273-8049, mrudolph@helpathome.com

Hollis Adams Foundation: Brian Tekulve

- Hollis Adams Foundation's primary goal is to enhance the intellectual and social abilities of adults with developmental disabilities so that they can enjoy life experiences that many of us take for granted. It is important for those who transition out of high school or who may be waiting for the waiver to keep building relationships to maintain the social interaction that is vital to continued development. We provide programs and activities focusing on interaction with peers. (317) 437-6518, bktekulve@gmail.com

Indiana Mentor: Kira Kimmel

- Adult and children group homes & supported living services. 208-7721, kira.kimmel@thementornetwork.com

LEL Home Services, LLC.: Kim D. Eicher

- The mission of LEL is to provide person and family centered support services in a manner that ensures the health, safety, satisfaction and dignity of the individual. LEL Home Services provides home and community support services to people with disabilities throughout the state of Indiana. 317-387-1443/Ext. 229, keicher@lelhomeservicesllc.com

Meaningful Day Services: Sara Ardoin

- MDS is a medicaid waiver provider offering the following services: Behavior Management, Adult Day Services, Music Therapy and Recreational Therapy. Here at Meaningful Day services we provide services, instruction, training and support aimed to encourage children and adults to live in the community as any other citizen. 317.850.6982, <http://meaningfuldays.com/>

Meridian Health Services: Craig Allen & Leslie Holleman

- Meridian Health Services connections Program is designed to improve coping skills and overall well being of those who have both intellectual and mental challenges. 317.803.2270, craig.allen@meridianhs.org, leslie.hollerman@meridianhs.org

Noble of Indiana: Tom Cain

- Since 1953, Noble of Indiana has created opportunities for children and adults with disabilities to live meaningful lives. Our services include community job placements, prevocational training, adult daily living skill instruction, community integration opportunities, behavioral support and community living and respite services. tom.cain@nobleofindiana.org, 317-375-4228

Opportunities for Positive Growth/OPG: Gail Kahl

- OPG, Inc. is a human service agency committed to providing meaningful and dignified support to individuals with developmental disabilities. Home and Community based services for people desiring skill development through music therapy, residential & community habilitation, and/or behavioral supports. 317-813-1781, gkahl@opgrowth.com

Outside the Box: Katy Bird, Andrew Reynolds

- Outside the Box offers individually customized therapeutic day services to participants in our program. In our unique setting, participants are peer matched into small groups of no more than 8, with two facilitators. Curriculum topics include (but are not limited to!) social skills, communication skills, daily living skills/self-care, relationship building, sensory/motor development, community living, problem solving, independence, task completion, compliance, safety, volunteerism, job-readiness, and self-advocacy. Individuals participating in the day program at Outside the Box can expect individualized attention geared toward skill acquisition, development and nurturing based on goals identified in their person centered plans.

- Outside the Box also offers employment services and an art program. 317-253-6658, kbird@otbonline.org, areynolds@otbonline.org

P & P Home Services: Ranaye Miles

- Our agency is an approved Medicaid Waiver Provider for in-home and community based services for CIH, FSW, A & D, and TBI Waivers. Our staff has over 45 years of combined experience in the services field and strives to meet the unique needs of each person that we serve. pphomeservices@gmail.com, 317-591-9234

Pinnacle Behavior Services: Jennifer Thompson

- Pinnacle Behavior Services provides behavior management and music therapy across the State of Indiana to individuals on the Indiana Medicaid Waiver. Pinnacle's team works with the consumer, guardian, family, etc...to meet the needs of the individual by providing support in the home, at school, work and/or in the community. Pinnacle's behavior consultants provide proactive and reactive interventions to reduce behaviors in the area of social skills, coping skills, anger management, self-image and many others. Pinnacle's music therapists provides therapy to improve self-image and body awareness, fine and gross motor skills, auditory perception while increasing communication skills, ability to use energy purposefully, interaction with peers and others, attending behavior, independence and self-direction. 317.770.5081, operations@pinnaclebehaviorservices.com

St. Vincent New Hope: Amy Flint

- St. Vincent New Hope is a not for profit, faith-based organization, which has provided support services to individuals with developmental disabilities since 1978. St. Vincent New Hope has programs for persons with developmental disabilities & traumatic brain injuries. Services offered include group homes, Medicaid Waiver services, Behavior Management & Consultation, & day services. (317) 338-4535, AMFlint@stvincent.org

Sycamore Services, Inc: Debbie Mitchell

- Sycamore Services provides Employment, Day and Community and Residential Services. We serve the entire Indianapolis area as well as Hendricks and Morgan Counties. <http://www.sycamoreservices.com>, damitchell@sycamoreservices.com

Tangram: Steve Clossey

- TANGRAM creates innovative options for persons living with disability-from employment to business ownership to independent living and active social lives with friends and family. We believe that living with purpose and meaning is fundamental to every to every individual and, when made possible, essential to enriching lives, business and our entire community. 317-968-9049, SClossey@TheTangramWay.org

Village of Merici: Mary Pat Torbeck

- We invite you to participate in our Merici Book Club for Adults with Developmental Disabilities. The Book Club is available for adults of all reading levels and offers e-text, book on CD and other supports. There is no fee to join the Merici Book Club but bring some money for a beverage and/ or pastry. Come and meet new friends!
- The Village of Merici is a 501(c)3 organization. 317-858-8544, information@villageofmerici.org , marypattorbeck@villageofmerici.org